PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the annals that Pizarro, on his successive to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the casket was received, and as soon as the top of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, and vitalizes the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel exhilarating spirits. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the first article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to the horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will relieve Sad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will cure the most severe pains in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pints, at 50 cents, qts $1.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY
BOURBON
"1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the peculiar medicinal qualities which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaint, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age having contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

Rally round the flag, boys—
Give it to the breeze!
That's the banner we love,
On the land and seas.

Brave hearts are under it;
Let the Traitors brag;
Gallant lads, fire away!
And fight for the flag.

Their flag is but a rag—
Ours is the true one;
Up with the Stars and Stripes!
Down with the new one!

Let our colors fly, boys—
Guard them day and night;
For Victory is Liberty,
And God will bless the Right.

REV. DR. FULLER, of Baltimore, who went to Washington to exhort the President as to his responsibilities, went back fuller informed than he came. It was cool in the delegation of the Young Men's Christian Association, headed by the Rev. Dr., to discourse of peace. Do they suppose loyal people have already forgot the blood of loyal troops hardly yet dry on the pavements of Baltimore? Missionaries of peace and fraternity hailing from the Monumental City are not likely just now to get hearers from those who prefer to listen to a cannon (i) call clergy.—Bost. Trans.

NOT PROPHETIC.—The New Orleans Picayune of April 18th predicted the "immediate effect of a Virginia secession would be the removal of Lincoln and his Cabinet, and whatever he can carry away, to the safer neighborhood of Harrisburg or Cincinnati—perhaps to Buffalo or Cleveland."

Profundissimus thinks that "Uncle Sam" is going into the chair bottoming business, as the North is so engaged in raising flags and the South in raising Cain.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1861.

WASHINGTON MOVEMENTS.

It appears by despatches from Washington, that the Government has decided to call into service, in addition to the 75,000 volunteers already called for, 40,000 men to serve for three years, and 25,000 for five years, and also 18,000 seamen. This will give a force, by land and sea, including the regular army and navy, of about 180,000 men. It can be doubled, if wanted, to crush out the insurrection.

The Naval Academy, lately broken up at Annapolis, Maryland, is to be reestablished at Newport, R. I. A new national armory, to take the place of that at Harper's Ferry, will be established at Rock Island, Illinois.

Government will make no more consular or diplomatic appointments until the regular post route to Washington is reopened. The federal officers who have resigned on account of the secession of their respective States, are to receive their pay (if they can get it) from the government funds in the hands of those States,—which is perfectly fair.

Fort McHenry, at Baltimore, was reinforced on Sunday.

On Monday, five employees at Washington Navy Yard were discovered filling shells with sand and sawdust. They were arrested, and will be tried by Court Martial, and, if convicted, shot.

[This case shows how important it is to root out the traitors, from army, navy yards, and every post of national trust and responsibility.]

It is said that 10,000 Southern troops are at Richmond. The telegraph gives the apocryphal story that an armistice of 60 days has been concluded between the United States and Virginia, and that Secretary Cameron has gone to Richmond.

This story is hardly worth repeating.

MARYLAND.—A private dispatch received in New York, from Baltimore, says, secession is defunct there, and the Union sentiment is again triumphant. Few men are willing to-day to announce themselves as secessionists. One week's experience of the deadly contagion has overwhelmed the conspirators, and the Union sentiment is stronger and deeper than ever. The day of recovery has come, and those who last week, sustained by the police, disgraced the city, almost shrink from the public gaze. The reaction is overwhelming in all parts of the State. Sad as were the doings of the past ten days, they have forever settled the question of secession in Maryland. On Wednesday the Custom House at Baltimore will be cleared of its traitors and new appointees take their place. The American flag will be immediately hoisted over the Custom House. Boys are selling miniature flags in the streets.

The Legislature of Maryland on Monday adopted, it is said by a two-thirds vote, a resolution to the effect that they have no authority to pass a secession ordinance. A proposition for calling a convention is yet before them.

☞ Bogus dispatches have lately been sent to the Carolinas, Tennessee, &c. from Richmond; to the effect that the Marylanders had cut up the N. Y. 7th regiment;—that the same regiment had deserted from the black republicans, gone over to Jeff. Davis, and chartered a steamer to go South; that only three northern States would send troops, viz. Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Ohio,—that Maine and Vermont would not let their men go out of the State;—that Old Abe had been poisoned, and Seward held the reins;—and that Maryland had passed a secession ordinance.

☞ It is very properly ordered, now, that the Western States of the Union, will take care of the rebellion, if it should run up the Mississippi river;—that the great States of Pennsylvania and New York, with some of their smaller neighbors, will look after the safety of Washington and vicinity, not to mention Baltimore;—and we hope, that New England, with the ports of New York and Philadelphia, will be allowed to look after the pirates and the blockade.

☞ Gen. Butler, commanding the forces at Annapolis, said that if the Maryland Legislature passed an ordinance of secession, he would arrest the entire body!

The brave Naval Officer sent to look after Jeff. Davis's privateer pirates, is named Stringham. His acts will probably correspond with his name.—Boston Post.

HONOR DUE TO THE BOSTON POST.—No paper in New England (says Uncle Toby) is more fully up to the mark this day, than the Boston Post.

The Post of Monday, April 29, contains an article on Virginia and Fort Monroe, which ought not only to be printed in their Weekly Press and Post—but to be printed on a slip or extra, and sent all over the sea-coast of New England, with the Boston Journal's proposal for a Volunteer Navy, to be raised and sailed forthwith.

The Post's article shows very clearly that it was necessary to burn the Norfolk and Portsmouth Navy Yard—and shows as clearly why it was necessary, viz., because of the Navy officers there, most were traitors, — in league with the seceders—and they made traitors of all, or nearly all, the workmen—so that it was impossible to get anything done in season. They meant to steal the whole!

☞ Mr. J. T. Gilman, the able editor of be Bath Times, has become sole proprietor and publisher. He richly deserves the most abundant success,—as he is one of the very few men who show by their works that they know how to conduct an independent paper.

He says in his new address:—

Politically we wish to have a distinct understanding. The Times will be Democratic—it can be nothing else while we control it and remain ourself unchanged.—But let not this remark be misunderstood. Politics are not necessarily partizan, nor does Democracy consist in the defence of a party. Democracy is the rule of the people—loyalty to their will—obedience to their majority behest. We are getting too old, too lacking in elasticity to become the mere echo of a party. We shall not feel obliged to advocate party doctrines any further than our best judgment approves; we shall not feel bound to condemn in an opponent anything that we would wink at in a political friend. When we say, therefore, that the Times will be Democratic, we mean independently so—in the higher and better and patriotic sense of that much abused and misunderstood word.

In the present struggle in which our country is involved, when treason and armed rebellion threaten the subversion of our National Constitution—that proud monument of the wisdom, democracy and political sagacity of our revered fathers—we can know only our country, in all its fullness—our flag, "with not a stripe erased or a star obscured"—our Government, as represented by its constitutional authorities; rejoicing that at the call of that country, in defence of that flag and responsive to the demand of those authorities, all discords disappear, and brother meets brother, forgetful of the past, with a full purpose to stand together, shoulder to shoulder, for the protection of our beloved land against all foes from without and traitors within.

When the cloud now resting over the land shall have passed off, and the sun in our political heavens shall become freed from its present partial eclipse, should we then remain at our present post, we shall feel free to shape our course in obedience to the suggestions of the soundest judgment, and the new demands which new circumstances may develop.

FROM EUROPE, via Londonderry, April 21.—The steamship Arabia, after a short passage, arrived at Halifax, Monday, with one week's later intelligence. The expenditures of the British Government last year were £800,000 less than estimated; the new budget has been issued. A report that President Lincoln was dead, was circulated in England. Russia has informed France that she cannot join her in a settlement of the Eastern question. Garibaldi has taken his seat in the Italian Parliament, and in his opening speech was so severe on the ministry, that great excitement ensued. An attack by the Austrians upon Sardinia is deemed not improbable. Fresh disturbances in Poland are anticipated, and the Russian force there is to be increased to 100,000 men.

BRAG AND COUNTER BRAG.—Last week the false report that Lieutenant General Scott had resigned his position, was received at New Orleans with every demonstration of joy. By direction of the Governor a salute was fired, the bells were rung, flags flung to the breeze, etc. Our pleasant friend the Pic put its dear foot some distance in, being led by the bogus news to glorify the supposed accession of 'Old Chippewa to the rebel ranks in the most extravagant manner. "And so," says Pic, "swells up and on the noble army of 'rebels.' Can the fiat of Abraham Lincoln, backed by the advice and consent of his Cabinet and his Senate, disperse it? We shall see!"

The Boston Post responds:

Rather think you will see. The prospect is that not a rebellious grease spot even will be left of you and your noble army. Meanwhile we retain Winfield.

☞ The Mobile Register finds itself unable to explain the unexpected unanimity of the North in support of the government, upon any other hypothesis than that "the public mind of the North has been suddenly seized with one of those manias by which Providence sometimes smites an entire people." It confesses its surprise at the concurrent support of the administration by Douglas, Buchanan, Fillmore, Cass, Gov. Sprague, &c.

☞ Mrs. Lincoln is reported to be in remarkably good health, as are all her family. She has been importuned to leave Washington for the present, but says she considers it to be her duty to stand by her husband.

☞ The Charleston Mercury has been informed that when Major Anderson and his command passed out of the harbor on their way to join the fleet of the United States, the Marion Artillery, a company which, according to high military authority, contributed very materially to the reduction of Fort Sumter, in testimony of their appreciation of his gallant defence, formed on the beach and stood with uncovered heads until the Isabel had passed their position.

☞ Three of the leading citizens of New York passed through Philadelphia on Friday, on their way to Washington, who were formally authorized to tender Mr. Lincoln, on behalf of the States of New York and Massachusetts, seventy-five thousand men and thirty million dollars to aid him in at once opening a clear and unbroken communication with the capital in a direct route through the State of Maryland and the city of Baltimore.

☞ The New York Tribune says:—"The worn-out race of emasculated First Families must give place to a sturdier people, whose pionneers are now on their way to Washington at this moment in regiments. An allotment of land in Virginia will be a fitting reward to the brave fellows who have gone to fight their country's battles, and Maryland and Virginia, Free States, inspired with Northern vigor, may start anew in the race for prosperity and power. The property of the true Union men in both these States will not be disturbed; but the traitors must be punished."

☞ The Cincinnati Enquirer says a letter was received in that city last Saturday from a member of the Cabinet, which stated that an agent was some time since despatched to Europe by the Government to purchase 500,000 stand of arms, and that these arms would soon begin to arrive by steamers. This is thought to be true in substance, but exaggerated as to the number of arms ordered.

☞ At a meeting of the New York Home Guard, held at the Astor House, it was decided to tender the command to Mr. George Law. The Guard is to be composed of twenty thousand, all to be able-bodied and active. They will be armed with rifles, and will soon be ready for service.

☞ The Milwankee Sentinel makes this statement in regard to the arms at Harper's Ferry:

Hon. J. F. Potter was in town yesterday. He left Washington on Friday morning last, and brings the intelligence that of the 50,000 stand of arms at Harper's Ferry previous to its abandonment, 45,000 stand had been shipped North to Pennsylvania, and westwardly through Parkersburg, for arming Western troops, and they are the arms that were stopped and seized at Cincinnati. They had been marked for Fort Smith, and other Southern points, solely with a view to mislead prying parties, and insure their passage through Virginia.

☞ A Washington letter says the conduct of the Eighth Massachusetts Regiment is deserving of great praise. When Gen. Butler asked if any of them could sail the Constitution, fifty-four men stepped from the ranks—one of whom was the son of the man who built her.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Charleston papers say that the steamer Habana, just purchased by the Confederate government, will have her name changed to Sumter, and will be commanded by Semmes.

Capt. Needler of France has offered his services to the Confederacy, and will also fit out privateers at his own expense.

Several privateers are expected to leave soon.

The Board of Underwriters [in New York, we presume] are fitting out an armed steamer for a coast guard.

It is stated that a grocer has arrived here from Charleston, who was pressed into the service of the Confederate army. He escaped by concealing himself on board a vessel.

He reports that at the bombardment of Fort Sumter, at least a thousand rebels were killed, four hundred of whom were in Fort Moultrie.

He further asserts that 30 were killed by Anderson's first discharge.

Schooner B. D. Pitts, from Charleston, brings 21 passengers, including the crew of the steamer Nashville, and James Tracy, a native of Ireland, his wife and five children. Tracy had declared his intention to become a citizen, and had a small farm, which was confiscated because he refused to fight against the flag which he had sworn to protect. He was seized and tied to a fence with his hands over his head, and given 500 lashes. His wife was kicked and otherwise ill used. Tracy served in the Mexican war under Gen. Scott.

☞ The Government has just purchased twenty thousand straw hats. These will be very acceptable to the troops quartered at Washington and other points where the heat of the sun is almost unbearable without such protection.

ARMS FROM CANADA.—A private letter from Chicago, states that Mayor Wentworth had telegraphed the Governor General of Canada, desiring to purchase arms, and received in reply that Canada would sell none, but would lend him 27,000. The first instalment, consisting of about 3000 stand, were to reach Chicago Tuesday.

Sick Headache, Debility and Indigestion. Where, among all the remedies for these complaints, is there one which so quickly, so effectually, and so permanently removes them, as the Oxygenated Bitters?

IN OLD HAMPTON, N. H., the stars and stripes float from the Town House. The Winnicummet Guards, 49 guns, are drilling daily, and awaiting orders to leave for Concord. Capt. Dubbar has been appointed recruiting officer, and has opened his office at Town Hall. Hampton will furnish her quota of men, good and true. The citizens have subscribed liberally for the benefit of the Guards; each man will be presented with a revolver. Measures will also be taken to form a "home guard" immediately.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing, and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it to deserve all that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

RUBBER BOOTS, OVERSHOES,

And SANDALS—best quality and cheap for cash, at 24 MARKET STREET. J. C. CARR

Local.

☞ Co. A, 1st Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers, Capt. W. O. Sides, was on Monday ordered to rendezvous forthwith with the Regiment at Concord, and go into Camp there. But on Tuesday morning a telegraphic dispatch was received from Adjutant-General Abbott, countermanding the order, and directing them to remain in Portsmouth—with the statement added that probably they will be ordered by Gov. Goodwin to garrison Fort Constitution.

We also learn that Concord has as many troops as can be accommodated there; and that the Ropewalk at the South End of this city is to be fitted up immediately, and occupied as Barracks for the Volunteers.

☞ The Stars and Stripes are to be hoisted on the Portsmouth Steam Factory, this day, (Wednesday, May 1,) at a quarter before 1 o'clock. The flag-pole is forty feet in height above the roof, and the flag is twenty-four feet in length. It is to be placed on the centre of the roof, with services appropriate to the occasion.

☞ The armament of the U. S. ship Constitution was left at the Navy Yard here, when that vessel went to Annapolis to be a School Ship. It is reasonable to suppose that her guns and ammunition should now be placed on board; and it is reported that the ship is coming here forthwith for the purpose.

☞ Mr. J. B. Flagg has sold out his interest in the City Hotel in this city; and is succeeded as landlord there, by Major Goodwin, well known as an experienced caterer for the public about here.

☞ We are informed that the guns heard in this city, on Tuesday forenoon, were the report of pieces just mounted at Fort McClary, and being tried.

☞ It is reported that the Second Regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers is full, and that recruits for a Third Regiment will be received.

☞ Like many of the reports farther off—the story of a schooner loading hay for the South, at one of our North End wharves, was all grass.

☞ Spunky wants to know if the Portsmouth Volunteers can fail to take Sides for the right, so long as they have their present officers.

ITEMS BY TUESDAY EVENING'S MAIL. Sergeant Hart, the old soldier who replaced the flag on its staff during the hot bombardment of Fort Sumter, says that before he left Charleston it was admitted that the rebels lost a large number of men. A gentleman of Boston, who has just returned from the South, and who passed through Charleston on the day of the opening of the rebel batteries, says that he saw messengers at the Mills House who were sent in there for more surgeons to Fort Moultrie. Other accounts agree with these statements. Some say 150 were killed, and others, near 300.

Preparations are said to be making by North Carolina, with South, to attack Washington, before the U. S. get a large force there.

The Pennsylvania Central Company has loaned or presented to the Government a number of frames for iron bridges, to replace those destroyed. Carpenters and other men have been concentrated at York since Saturday. They will be protected by troops as they advance.

Sills and heavy timber have been forwarded. Five regiments will probably move upon York, intended to guard every bridge clear to Baltimore, and when the troops reach Baltimore they will attempt to pass around that city, and reach the Relay House, at the junction of the Baltimore and Washington Railroads.

In Western Virginia, the great body of the people adhere to the Union. A committee of their best citizens have implored arms from the U. S. through the Pennsylvania legislature.

The Virginia secessionists have put out the lights on their coast.

A letter from Major Cook of the Boston Light Artillery, dated Annapolis, April 27, stated that they are quartered at the Naval Academy. He says there are two men in sight of our quarters hanging to the yard arm of a vessel for taking powder to the Southerners.

☞ Capt. Wm. Woodbury, the oldest shipmaster and shipowner in Portland, died very suddenly on Monday, aged 89.

☞ As Virginia increases in soldiers, she eats up her provisions faster. Flour advanced in Richmond last week $1 a $2 per bbl.; Meal 10c a 15c per bush.; Bacon 4c a 6c per lb.; and other necessaries in like proportion.

Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is as healthy as the purest flour; will prove a great saving in that article; is peculiarly adapted to benefit weak stomachs and dyspeptic persons; is much more healthy and economical than the baking powders, and greatly preferred to soda to use with cream tartar. Grocers say they have as good.—They are mistaken. It is the best in the world. Try it. Most of the grocers have it. Have the Gold Medal or none.

From the Extra Chronicle of Tuesday Afternoon.

PORTSMOUTH AROUSED!

GREAT MILITARY TURN-OUT.

Tuesday morning was a Gala occasion for Portsmouth, sure—or would have been but for the gloom of the shadow thrown by the impending "irrepressible conflict" which caused the excitement. The immediate occasion of the people's assembling was the Presentation of Revolvers to the Officers of the Portsmouth Volunteers, by the City Council. The ceremonies took place at the Depot of the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, which conveyance the Company had been ordered to take for Concord on Tuesday morning.

The weather was delightful, and the streets were thronged with fair women and brave men. The Volunteers, 86 rank and file, under Capt. Sides, were escorted by the Cadets, Capt. Fontane, and the Goodwin Guards, Capt. Isaac Jenness, and with the Portsmouth Cornet Band, (which we learn also generously volunteered their valuable services for the occasion,) made up quite a military display. The troops marched to the C. & P. R. R. Station, where the City Council was ready to receive them, on a platform decorated with American flags; upon which elevation also stood several clergymen, representatives of the press, and other gentlemen.

After an appropriate and earnest prayer by Rev. Mr. Gage,—for the President and all associated with him in this holy warfare, for the success of the sword unsheathed in the cause of law and liberty—and for the welfare of these troops:

His Honor Mayor Simes addressed the Volunteers and their Officers thus:

Capt. Sides, Officers and Soldiers:—We meet to-day under circumstances of no ordinary character. Over eighty years ago, our forefathers were called from their peaceful homes to the field of battle, to assert their independence. Victory crowned their arms. A Constitution and Government, the best and wisest a nation ever yet enjoyed, was formed,—having for its emblem that starry flag under which we have so long lived and prospered. Now that Constitution and that Government are threatened with destruction—their very existence even is at stake. That flag which has never yet been lowered to a foreign foe, has been openly insulted and attacked by a band of domestic traitors, who would trail it in the dust.

You are soon to go forth from our midst to uphold that Government—to preserve that Constitution as our fathers transmitted it to us—to defend that flag to the last drop of your blood, if need be. Be worthy of the State of Stark. Prove yourselves worthy sons of worthy sires. Be firm as your own granite hills, as fearless as the noble and heroic Anderson. And may the God of battles, surrounding you with his strong right arm, lead you on to a glorious victory, granting that you may return to us covered with honors. Ours shall be the care to cherish and protect those dear ones at home to whom you are bound by every tie of kindred and affection.

And now, Capt. Sides, allow me, in behalf of the Mayor and Aldermen of the city, to present you with this Revolver, as a slight testimonial of the esteem they bear you and the confidence they repose in you. Never was weapon drawn in a better cause.

His Honor having presented Capt. Wm. O. Sides with the Revolver purchased by the Mayor and Aldermen,—

Capt. Sides responded fittingly, but very briefly:

Mr. Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Portsmouth: I am no orator. The speeches that I am in the habit of making, are words of command, and very brief. Accept my thanks for this needed and valuable present. If we come into action, it shall speak for me.

Phinehas Nichols, Esq., President of the Common Council, then addressed the Volunteers—in presenting a Revolver each to Lieutenants John S. Sides and John S. Rand, 2d.

Soldiers and Friends:—I have the honor, in behalf of the Common Council of this city, to express to you our admiration of your patriotism, in responding so promptly to our country's call to arms. Now, when our once glorious Union has been broken by treason—the flag of our nation trodden in the dust—the blood of freemen wantonly shed—and the national capital is menaced by armed and arrogant traitors—you, with the true spirit of '76, have promptly come forward to meet the enemy in the first breach; and you must conquer, for your cause is sacred. The liberties of the world are the stake for which you contend. All civilized nations anxiously await the result. In the spirit of the martyrs of Concord and Bunker Hill—the heroes of Bennington, Saratoga and Yorktown,—go forth to the contest, and show how we value the liberties they purchased with their blood. Go, be brave, drive treason from the land, re-construct the Union—and you will bless, and be blessed, by all future generations.

To the 1st and 2d Lieutenants of this gallant Company, in behalf of those for whom I speak, I present these arms, to protect your persons and lives in this holiest of all wars. Noble men, we honor you. Return with your arms, with liberty triumphant, and the stars and stripes floating in the breeze throughout the country—or perish with them in your hand.

Officers and privates, the sympathies of this Council, and of those whom we represent, will be with you and those you leave behind. All we have promised, we will do, —and more, if necessary. The prayers of a whole free people will constantly ascend for you, that God will bless you, make you triumph over the enemies of our country, and return you crowned with laurels, to your homes.

Second Lieut. Rand replied neatly and briefly, on behalf of himself and Lt. Sides, as follows:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Common Council:—In behalf of the 1st Lieutenant and for myself, I return thanks for the interest you have manifested by presenting us with these Revolvers. Like our Captain whom we follow, I must be brief, hoping soon to return with victory in the stars and stripes.

Rev. Mr. Eddy then implored the Benediction on all assembled; and the crowd dispersed. The military escorted the City Council to their Rooms, and afterwards paraded about the city. The crowds in attendance was very great, and everybody appeared to feel a deep interest in the proceedings—as well we all may.

The Pistols are Colt's six-shooters, and were suitably inscribed by Mr. A. L. Bennett.

BOSTON, April 30—2 P. M.—Maryland Legislature voted fifty-three against secession, thirteen for it.

A great Union meeting was held, in East Baltimore, last night; the National Banner was unfurled, and strong Union resolutions adopted.

The Bridges which were destroyed are being rapidly reconstructed.

The Maryland Legislature has passed a vote allowing troops to pass through the State of Maryland.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND!

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an invigorating tonic to the system, and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 69 Mills street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most conscious remedie for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,

AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all, who chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NIGHT SWEATS, DEBILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT FRETTS, LANGUOR, DIZZINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, and even cure, when taken before the final trial—she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but those also of your husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known, in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as liquor, and yet is free from liquor, can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—☞ Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to Old and Young, Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is represented. Such is the case with Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. We will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the best article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention that the distinct characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary article of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age has the contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

☞ There are all sorts of persons in the world, good, bad, refined, coarse, intelligent, ignorant, haughty, meek, forgiving, unrelenting, cheerful, repining, &c., &c., and among all these classes enumerated, none are more disagreeable to themselves and to society than the murmurers. Borrowers of trouble.—which will come along rapidly enough to forbid the necessity of anticipating it,—they would make us believe that the Almighty Creator of the Universe made man for subject of experiment, and placed him here for the purpose of testing the amount of misery a human being could endure in the course of a natural life. Their religion is filled with distrust, and their ideas of a God are so narrow that there is a constant fear that although the blessing is promised, it must be "received before believed,"—after which, of course, all faith is superfluous.

Some wiseacres have discovered that the apple-trees are not to assume their wonted vigor and bloom, which the return of Spring usually imparts to them; no beautiful green leaves are to unfold themselves, to clothe the naked limbs, and afford a shelter for the singing birds. Sad! isn't it?—Surely it would be solemn, if true. But why apple-trees more than other fruit-trees? Does the sap refuse to flow through the veins of the former, yet readily submits to the behests of Dame Nature, and courses freely through all others? No, no; mix a little common sense with theory, or else it will be "hard to take." Now if the trees are all dead, no leaves can appear; but if not, they will as surely come forth in their season, clad in beautiful verdure, as the sun will rise and set. So we shall wait a while, trusting in a kind Father, who careth even for the sparrow, and whose promise is, that "seed-time and harvest shall not fail." B. A.

Celebrated Stimulating Onguent!
For the Whiskers and Hair.
The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article.
THE STIMULATING ONGUENT
is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of
WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE
in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.
It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.
The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE make the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.
Every Machine Warranted.
PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1861.

THE CHRONICLE.—In answer to repeated inquiries, we would state that we intend to print two editions of the Chronicle for the present—Morning and Afternoon; and the price of either will be $3 per year in advance—1 cent per single copy. Orders for either edition, by carrier or mail, promptly attended to; and whenever we deem it advisable to discontinue one or the other, subscribers will be furnished with the one edition, as heretofore.

A GREAT MISTAKE.—We find the following sentences, in a peace editorial of the Union Democrat.

Mr. Seward says the force now gathering "is intended for nothing but the defence of this capital." We have not believed, and not now believe that any attack upon the capital is meditated.

Earnestly desirous for peace, we have sought for chances by which peace, and possibly union, may yet be secured. Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward have both declared within a week that these military preparations are only for the defence of the capital.

If no such attack was meditated, then Wigfall, Davis and Stephens lie dreadfully—under a mistake, or under a cloak.

This, however, is not the great mistake referred to. The great mistake is in saying, as many papers have said, that Lincoln and Seward have declared the military force now gathering, to be only for the defence of Washington. They have said no such thing, though the telegraph has said so, again and again,—on the contrary, in the Proclamation of April 5,—the President says:

I deem it proper to say that the first service assigned to the troops hereby called forth, will probably be to re-possess the forts, places, and property which have been seized from the Union.

This document is signed by President Lincoln, and countersigned by Sec. Seward.

In relation to the troops marching or riding through Baltimore, they probably have said they were for the defence of the Capitol,—but is absurd to suppose they have ever said that the whole force, or even that part of it, was raised for that purpose only.

SLAUGHTER AND OUTRAGE AT CHARLESTON.—Everybody wondered that no man was killed, and hardly anybody hurt, on either side, by the great cannonade at Charleston. In Fort Sumter the men were few, and the casemates bomb proof.—But in the forts of the rebels the men were many, and the Charleston papers say the forts were greatly knocked to pieces,—but strange to say, no lives lost.

Very strange—but it now seems, not very true. New York papers of April 30, give us these items:—

A soldier who escaped from Charleston states that he served at the guns during the fight at Fort Moultrie, and that nearly every shot from Fort Sumter killed somebody. Between three and four hundred were killed, and a large number wounded at Fort Moultrie during the seige. The killed were collected in a mass and interred at night in Potter's field. Many were also killed in dwellings outside the fort. The soldiers were threatened with death if they disclosed the facts about the killed. People are constantly inquiring for their friends, and are assured they are at Sullivan's Island.

Another soldier who was at Morris Island says that one hundred and fifty were killed there, and forty at Sullivan's Island. He makes the same statement relative to the dead being buried at night in Potter's field. He also states that the negroes only wanted their leaders to give the word, when the slaughter would be terrible.

All masters of vessels received notice on the 24th to leave Charleston in forty-eight hours, or they would be held by the Southern Government. Some were detained for lack of men to work their ships, and the rest fled.

An Irishman who lived six miles from Columbia had his farm pillaged, his wife was chased into a swamp, and himself and son flogged with five hundred lashes. They were then taken with their five children to Charleston, and put in prison, where they were charged $5 a day for board. All the money they had was taken from them, and they were put on the schooner D. B. Pitts, which arrived at New York on Monday.—The Irishman's name is Tracy. His back is in a shocking condition.

☞ In North Carolina, not much has been done, secession-wise, beyond guarding the stolen forts,—and committing a few outrages on northern business men. Men, white, and free negroes, are pressed into the military service of the State,—and a home guard is to be formed to watch the slaves and keep them at work.

Throughout the confederacy "the poor whites are sanguine of success; but thoughtful men and army officers shake their heads. The mob and demagogues are in power, and they are bewitched with ideas of greatness."

☞ Alfred Strickland, about 18 years of age, employed on a farm at Newbury, decamped on Monday, stealing a valuable grey horse, worth $200, belonging to Mr. Henry P. Toppan of Newburyport, together with a wagon, harness, two buffalo robes, two gold watches and an overcoat.

NEW YORK MILITARY.

NEW YORK, April 29.

Dear Chronicle:—Of the many civic, military and partizan displays which our city affords, none are more attractive than the parades of the firemen. Five thousand of these passed up Broadway, this afternoon, as escort to Col. Ellsworth's "Firemen Zouaves," a volunteer regiment lately organized from about fifteen hundred of those who "run wid de macheen."

It is strikingly picturesque to see several thousands of these self-sacrificing fellows marching up our metropolitan thoroughfare, in "open order," their red shirts contrasting forcibly with the black pants; their large fire hats, and they themselves, forming a line straight as an arrow from curb to curb.

The Zouaves are worthy of more than a mere mention, for if they come in contact with any of our Southern friends, it will be a "pity about those Southrons!"

The regiment is composed of men whose chosen calling entirely exempts them from military duty, but with that genuine disinterestedness and love of danger which characterizes the firemen, they have banded together in defence of their country, the late United States. Fighting is no new event to them, for two rival companies can't pass each other in the street without having a friendly fight, and a free circulation of clubs and paving stones! and with their Sharp's rifle and brace of pistols, eighteen shots in all, and their bowie knife for close work, they will make sad havoc amid the ranks of any opposing battalion.

Their dress is, scarlet fatigue cap, gray jacket trimmed with black, (open at the front, showing the fireman's red shirt) and gray pants. Considering the short period which has elapsed since their organization commenced, they have attained a remarkable degree of accuracy in drill, showing that their leader, Col. Ellsworth, has imparted to them that discipline in which the famous Chicago Zouaves were so proficient. This gentleman evinced his excellent judgment in selecting this city for the formation of his division, for a hardier, more daring, or resolute body of men than those which he has called from the N. Y. Fire Brigade, cannot be found in our half of the country, and, I fear, not in the other. They leave four or five thousand behind, whose motto was yesterday, and will ever be: "If our country calls, the rest are ready."

The barracks on the Park, to which I briefly alluded in my last, have since then been enlarged and completed. They consist of four buildings each about the size of your rope-walk, the busy hum from which, as it swept across the sylean (?) waters, I can hear even now.

Their interior is replete with cooking, eating, sleeping and washing arrangements sufficient to accommodate two or three thousand men. The fresh, green lawn is spotted with snow-white tents, and sentinels with glistening bayonets patrol the walks.

Night and day our streets are alive with troops, artillery men and infantry, in their gay dresses, and volunteers with no dresses at all. With the latter the government fulfils the commandment 'clothe the naked.'

We have "strawberries and cream" this week! Shall I send you some?

NEWINGTON.

WASHINGTON, BALTIMORE, &c.—Washington, April 30.—There has been not the slightest disturbance of the peace, notwithstanding the large number of troops here.

The ladies of the city have tendered their services as hospital nurses should they be required, and some are preparing lint in case it should be needed, but there is no present apprehension on that point.

Fort Madison, near Annapolis, is occupied by U. S. troops.

A dispatch to the World from Washington says that Secretary Cameron and General Scott, in conference with Gov. Sprague, have ordered another regiment from Rhode Island, they being highly pleased with the troops from that State already there.

ANNAPOLIS, April 30 — Evening.—Steamer Monticello and a gun boat arrived to day from New York. They have gone down the Bay to participate in the blockade of the Virginia ports.

The Wyoming is being converted into a gun boat, and will follow.

The Maryland brought down from Perryville a large number of transport cars for the railroad, and 500 men of the 8th New York regiment with two pieces of artillery, who are entrenching themselves on an elevation two miles from here, completely commanding the road to Baltimore. The position is on the North side of the Severn river.

All the northern mails now go via Annapolis to Perryville.

The Union sentiment is rapidly gaining ground in this part of the State.

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—Bark Laura, from Hayti 15th, reports the capture of bark William, charged with taking slaves from the Spanish part of the Island to Cuba, under pretence of taking them to the guano islands. President Geffrard has issued an address against the transfer of Dominica to the Spaniards.

The Daniel Webster from New York, 16th, arrived at the bar yesterday morning, where she received orders to return immediately for fear of seizure.

☞ A case of varioloid occurred last Saturday, at the Northfield (N. H.) Seminary. Most of the students have since been vaccinated.

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA.

The presence of Sherman's Battery at Elkton, Md., has changed the community from secessionists to Union men. Troops are concentrating around Baltimore.—Troops are already in Virginia, and a force of federal troops will soon be posted at Frederick.

Gov. Letcher has been notified that any approach of Confederate troops towards Washington, will be the signal for an instant attact on Richmond and Norfolk.

A dispatch from Frederick, Md., April 29, says:

A direct vote was taken in the House of Delegates, on the secession question, this morning. The vote stood 53 against secession and 13 for secession.

Secession is killed "dead." Nothing else was done to day.

Next day, Tuesday, April 30, a message was received from the Governor, enclosing a memorial from citizens of Washington and Frederick counties, protesting against the right of soldiers from Virginia to invade the soil of Maryland and outrage the feelings of citizens by searching their private dwellings, and beseeching him to take measures to prevent their repetition. The Governor requests the Legislature to take action, at the same time disclaiming having given the troops any such permission. The message was referred.

The National Intelligencer says both Houses of the Maryland Legislature have passed resolutions affirming the right of the general government to march troops thro' Maryland, without hindrance, to defend Washington.

Some of the Virginia papers hint at the formation of a large camp of rebels in the vicinity of Dumfries, near the Potomac, and about 25 miles below Alexandria.—Many military companies recently arrived at Alexandria are believed to have been transferred thither.

The Virginians are removing all the machinery at Harper's Ferry to Richmond.

In Virginia, the Union strength is increasing west of Martinsburgh.

A dispatch from Alleghany Co., Md., April 26, to the New York Evening Post, says:

Western Virginia is going to fight the State, and our part of the county must take the same stand. We can hold our ground till we can get assistance from the government.

You would be pleased at the appearance of the place. The stars and stripes are floating from all the house-tops—squads of men are drilling in all parts of the town—drums beating, &c. I tell you, everything looks military. These men will fight, and never had men better cause to fight for.

I hear this morning that there is quite a number of runaway negroes on the mountain. The people of Maryland will know what it is to be without a Fugitive Slave Law. The negroes will all leave.

A private letter from Virginia says the Virginians are wild with excitement, and everywhere rushing to arms. It says there are 7000 South Carolina troops in Richmond, and 1500 Georgians at Norfolk. On Sunday the summons to arms reached Lexington, and before sundown five companies left. A pressing want of provisions is already felt, and the paper currency of the State is almost worthless.

A gentleman from Virginia states that the vote in the Convention against secession was 50, not 16 as reported.

COL. DIMMICK, the gallant commander at Fort Monroe, is a native of Vermont.—He is a true and tried defender of the stars and stripes, having served his country faithfully in both the Florida and Mexican wars. A conscientious, upright soldier, skilled in military tactics, and one in whom Gen. Scott has entire confidence. Thank God for the right man in the right place.—Boston Journal.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Gen. Harney denies any intention of resigning.

Regular trains for the North, from Washington, commence to-day.

It is said Gov. Letcher will issue a proclamation forbidding the passage of Southern troops through Virginia.

A man was arrested in Gov. Sprague's quarters last night as a spy.

CHICAGO, ILL., April 30.—A gentleman from Mississippi says that in many parts of that State an active famine prevails.—There is little money, and those able to leave are fleeing to escape starvation.—The stations along the Ohio and Mobile Railroad are packed with freight, much of which has been there for months, consignees paying charges. The company receives no freight for towns in Mississippi unless the charges are prepaid.

☞ The correspondence from the South represents that North Carolina went out of the Union by acclamation.

GARDINER'S RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND.—The popular prejudice against patent medicines seems to have been removed in the minds of the many who have tried the above invaluable remedy. Certificates from among the first men in the community attest to the virtues of this "Compound," and the evidence of its value is so overwhelming and well authenticated as to convince the most cautious. We would call attention to the reliable names attached to the advertisement in another column of this paper, and advise a trial of this excellent medicine, which has so rapidly come into notice. If the attention of the suffering can only be gained, we feel assured that a fair trial will remove all objections which may exist, and that they will find the "Compound" an inestimable blessing.—Ex. 1t D&W

☞ The wife of Mr. John F. Whiting was found drowned, in a brook at Manchester, Saturday forenoon. Her pet poodle dog came home wet, having probably tried to save her, from suicide. She was deranged; leaves no children. Mr. W. is a man of property.

☞ Right Rev. Benjamin T. Onderdonk, late Episcopal Bishop of New York, died on Tuesday in New York city, aged 70.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A See Hair Dressing, and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it has merits that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

G. W. WALLACE, Missouri Glass Co.

RUBBER BOOTS, OVERSHOES,

And SANDALS—best quality and cheap for cash, at 24 MARKET STREET. J. C. CARR.

Local.

PERSONAL.—Senator Hale was in town on Wednesday. Col. H. O. Kent of Lancaster, Assistant Adjutant General, and Hon. T. L. Tullock, Secretary of State, were also in town, making preparations for the reception of the Second Regiment.

Hon. Joseph Gilman of Tamworth, the newly appointed United States Marshal for this District, entered upon his official duties on the 1st inst. Mr. Gilman is one of the energetic business men of Carroll county, and will make an efficient officer.

☞ The Granite State Guards, Capt. Pearl, from Great Falls, accompanied by the Great Falls Brass Band,—and the Abbott Guards, Capt. Knowlton, from Manchester, arrived here Wednesday evening. They were received and escorted to their quarters at Jefferson Hall by the Portsmouth Volunteers.

HANG OUT YOUR BANNERS!—Mr. Chronicle:—As I walked to Fort Constitution yesterday, I was not a little surprised and vexed to see that our late candidate for Congress has no flag flying from his premises across Pleasant st., as he had last Fall. We think it due to the Democrats who stood by him, that he should raise the stars and stripes; and if he can't afford to, we will help him pay for one.

DOUGLAS MEN.

☞ The Maine and New Hampshire Regiments of Volunteers, which had hoped and expected to be en route for Washington ere this, have had orders to wait further advices before leaving. It is now expected that they will leave in a few days.

From the Extra Chronicle, Wednesday Afternoon.

MILITARY.—Active preparations are being made in this city, for the reception of the Second Regiment. The upper story of the Ropewalk at the South End is being fitted up as rapidly as possible, but two or three days more being required to complete those quarters. The non-commissioned officers are to occupy that end of the building next to South street, and the commissioned officers are to quarter in the dwelling-house on the corner of the alley leading to the soldiers' barracks.

Col. Wm. S. Hadley has been appointed Sutler to the Regiment, which renders it certain that their "inner man" will be well cared for.

The Granite State Guards of Great Falls, Capt. Ichabod Pearl, are to occupy Jefferson Hall, until accommodations can be found elsewhere.

Col. Pierce and Major Stevens of the Second Regiment, were in this city on Wednesday, making arrangements for the accommodation of their troops.

The First Regiment is encamped at Concord, where they will remain until ordered to Washington, which orders (it is expected) will be received in about a week.

The Portsmouth Volunteers are to join the Second Regiment.

Josiah Stevens, Jr., of Concord, has been appointed by the Governor and Council, as Major of the Second Regiment, New Hampshire, in place of Capt. Bowers of Nashua, who declined to accept.

The Kittery Artillery Company are the garrison at Fort McClary. They were posted there on Tuesday.

☞ We learn that the Pocket Testaments, presented to the Volunteers on Sabbath morning, by Rev. Mr. Medbery, were furnished by the City Bible Society, and that the same Society has furnished him with Bibles and Testaments with which to supply all the new ships which have left this port for several years past.

☞ We learn that T. B. Aldrich, Esq., the well-known author, has offered his services to Gov. Goodwin. Mr. Aldrich is a New Hampshire boy, and desires to serve under the colors of his native State.

☞ The two-story House with half an acre of land, near M. Fisher & Co.'s Brewery, at the Creek, belonging to Mr. Wm. H. Cate, was sold at Auction by Geo. W. Towle, Esq., on Wednesday, to Mr. George Bilbrook, for $1200.

☞ On account of the high wind in that lofty location, the flag-raising on the top of the Portsmouth Steam Mill, was postponed from Wednesday afternoon to some more favorable time.

☞ The force now employed on the Navy Yard at this Station, embraces nearly 1100 (eleven hundred) men.

THE GRANITE STATE.—Although the New Hampshire quota has not yet marched through to Washington, we are assured that every rank is full and will soon be equipped. As an evidence of the spirit prevailing in New Hampshire, we notice that a large number of Fletcher Webster's regiment are from that State, both officers and men. Expressing our surprise at seeing so many old acquaintances, we were told by them that there was no chance for them at all in New Hampshire, as the quota was filled up so rapidly they feared a refusal; they had therefore come to Boston to make sure of a chance.—Transcript.

From the Extra Chronicle, Wednesday Afternoon.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS.—In the Philadelphia Press of Monday morning we find the following letter:

WASHINGTON, April 26, 1861.

It is stated, by the best authority, that Lord Lyons, the British Minister, sent a special messenger to detain the steamer Persia at New York, until full dispatches could be forwarded by him to the Home government. Lord Lyons is advised, I understand, to proffer to the United States government, for the suppression of the Slave State Rebellion, arms, ammunition and troops from England and Canada. By the Persia he sent out orders for 300,000 stand of the improved Minie musket, and for a vast number of the celebrated rifle cannon. Orders, in future, are not to be filled in England for the Rebel government for arms, ammunition, or ships of war.

It is believed that an English and French fleet will be sent to the southern ports at an early day, to co-operate with the United States fleet in the blockade of secession ports.

Louis Napoleon has joined with Victoria to suppress the slave State rebellion. It is stated that his offers of service to President Lincoln are now on their way to Washington.

It is hoped here that Yancey and his confederate traitors will be seized by France and England and sent to the United States to be tried and hung under the extradition treaties.

Orders have been issued, it is reported, to the Governor General of Canada to offer to the United States men and arms.

FORT PICKENS.—Our item from Fort Pickens, via Cincinnati and Exeter, is confirmed as follows. The Hartford Press says:—

We are informed by a gentleman who left Mobile on the 23d, that 300 rebels were killed at Fort Pickens on or about the 17th, and others wounded. He says there is no doubt of this at Mobile. The fort was not attacked, but the commander opened his guns on some new batteries that were being set up, bearing on it. The attempt to reduce the fort is abandoned, and the troops are moving north. The only thing that Jeff. Davis' army lacks is food, and that they want badly.

Our informant was in Charleston the week after the evacuation of Fort Sumter, and was told there that 36 secessionists were killed and about 100 wounded. Near Charleston he heard some fears expressed of slave risings, but he neither heard nor saw any signs of them anywhere else at the South.

BOSTON, May 1—2 P. M.—The Confederate Congress met yesterday at Montgomery.

Jeff. Davis' message says:—"The crooked paths of diplomacy scarcely furnish a parallel so wanting in courtesy, candor and directness as was the course of the United States Government to the Southern Commissioners."

He speaks hopefully of recognition by foreign governments, and says most of the Executive Departments are in successful operation.

Governor Pickens has made a speech to the South Carolina troops, urging them to be in readiness to possess and protect the tomb of Washington from Northern hordes of Goths and Vandals.

Governor Pickens wishes the Confederacy to be let alone, in which case they will sheathe the sword.

Federal officers are to take possession of the Custom House, Post Office, &c., at Baltimore, to-day, and raise the American flag.

Steamer Atlantic arrived at New York to-day. She reinforced Fort Pickens.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate, worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the long and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reckoning man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

NEW TEAS.

An invoice of New Teas received and for sale by [apr8] A. A. PAYNE.

Are you sick, bilious, or dyspeptic? Are your bowels costive? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings generally miserable? If these symptoms are the result of the primary stages of disease, they are warning signs you should be advised of, timely remedied. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the vitiated humors—purify the blood and let the free blood circulate unobstructed to health again. They stimulate the functions of the liver into healthy activity, purify the system from the obstructions which cause disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general congestion, and finally fatal disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the despondent and dangerous diseases, for which purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are equally, and more decisively cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been greatly afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purgs. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Dyer, Baltimore.

DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you other compliment than I have cured with your Pills better than to my all that in every great malady a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Respectfully, Yours, &c.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to echo from a foul stomach which they cleanse so clean.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Charles.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the public.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1859.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice wherever you made them, and cheerfully bear testimony to the fact that they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease to obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Professionally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I have been enabled to rely on them in the severest maladies I have found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious complaints and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the best medicine for dyspepsia I ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

You cannot be said to know your Pills for the cure of sufferings. If others of our fraternity knew their extensive efficacy as I have, they would join me in proclaiming the benefit of the world. I have met those who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe we have reason to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mr. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion which usually or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and second bowels. I feel are so much the best physic we have that I recommend them to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

PULASKI Hawley, Jr., Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. I settled in my lower extremities, brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which confined me to my room. Nevertheless, I had the best of physicians, the choicest prescriptions and most unremitting attentions, but the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried Ayer's Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering, in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SYDNEY CHESNEY, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Feb., 1854.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of the worst form of a painful disease that I ever suffered so for years. SIDNEY SLIDELL.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills in market contain Mercury which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the direction usually given that frequently follow its injudicious use. This contains no mercury, or any injurious drug.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,

AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic and stimulant so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and strengthen the digestive organs, and lay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is novel of fiction or intoxicating or depressing in spirits it is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will effectually prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial—she will pass the remedy with perfect ease and safety.

There is no mistake about it!

THE ORDITAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than trifle with conditions be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your heart-thrilling affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and calms the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Pyrche was once sent to a pleasant marine (this is the West Indies), to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the top of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial proves the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in cases of debility, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Fevers, &c., will find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating powers. We have been confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects so common to those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the first article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

Dyspepsia Remedy

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT

This medicine has been used in the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other disorderly conditions of the Stomach and Bowels in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and life rendered a burthen, a curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One or two will stay the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few drops will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured of relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs and restore the bloom of youth and health to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

OLD KENTUCKY
BOURBON
"1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age having contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

ITEMS. — The Amoskeag Veterans, of Manchester, N. H., have voted to tender their services to the Governor.

The Bell and Everett papers at the North and West, express themselves astounded at John Bell's taking sides with the cotton confederacy.

A new company is being formed in Worcester, to be composed of the heavy weights, each man to weigh over two hundred pounds. The roll is nearly completed.

Maj. Cobb's Flying Artillery, of Boston, has 150 picked men, strong and able-bodied, none below 5 feet 7 inches high. Their battery will consist of four rifled cannon, to be drawn by six horses each, and two howitzers.

SUMNER HENRY NEEDHAM, the brave Massachusetts volunteer, who was stricken down by the mob at Baltimore, was a member of the Universalist Church in Lawrence, which Society, on hearing of his death, on Sunday, passed resolutions of sympathy, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for appropriate funeral services.

☞ In Pennsylvania, on Saturday, an additional requisition was made for twenty-five regiments of infantry or cavalry. On Tuesday, there had been more companies tendered than will make the entire complement. The Governor communicates the fact that the banks have tendered any amount of money necessary.

☞ The Rev. John Pierpont of Medford, Mass., has tendered his services as chaplain to one of the Massachusetts regiments. This veteran clergyman, in his letter, says:—"If, sir, this my proffer of service is accepted by your Excellency, I have only one stipulation to make in connection with it, namely, this—that on our way to Washington, we are not to go around Baltimore."

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that an understanding has been entered into between the Governors of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, by which those States shall act in conjunction to throw troops and provisions into Washington, or elsewhere South, upon the order of the War Department.

☞ Among the letters recently received at the Post Office Department, was one from a South Carolina Postmaster, countermanding orders for stamps, and refusing to make his returns, saying he will attend to this business when Postmaster General Reagan shall reach Washington.

☞ On Sunday the Jersey City and Hoboken police seized two suspicious sloops, the Fox and Time, on Jersey Flats, and found them loaded with munitions of war. They had on board 150 barrels and 4000 kegs of powder, besides thousands of rifle and cannon cartridges.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.
TO THE LADIES.
CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MAUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will not rip if the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without winding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but some part or give way at the seams, they cannot, they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

BELLINGHAM'S
Celebrated Stimulating Onguent!
For the Whiskers and Hair.
The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article.
THE STIMULATING ONGUENT
is prepared by Dr. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of
in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.
It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound acting as it by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn GREY or rusty hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.
The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.
Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent," (warranted to have the desired effect,) will be sent to any one who desires it, by mail (direct,) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.13. Apply to or address

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1861.

NEWS ITEMS.

By Thursday Morning's Mail, we learn that the navigation of the Potomac for loyal craft is still open. A despatch from Frederick W. Seward (Assistant Secretary of State) declares that there is no truth in the report of an armistice, and that "that sort of thing ended on the 4th of March."

The report of the slaughter of rebels by the fire from Fort Sumter, finds strong confirmation. Capt. Carson, of the schooner B. D. Pitts, at New York, from Charleston, states that he was at the wharf near Fort Moultrie during the bombardment of Fort Sumter, and that on Sunday night sixty dead bodies were carried across his deck to the land, and on Monday night forty more were carried out at one time, and sixty at another. Capt. Carson and mate saw and counted the bodies, and say that all the soldiers were sworn to deny any loss of life.

A soldier from that fort, who was wounded, and who is now in this vicinity, says two men were killed in that fort, by the first shot from Fort Sumter.

All the accounts together make it probable that 300 lives, or more, were lost.

There are no fortifications on either side of the Potomac or Chesapeake Bay in the hands of the secessionists.

Five thousand troops were to be thrown into Alexandria, on Tuesday, by order of the Secretary of War. The secession flag was flying there May 1.

Baltimore took a step forward on Wednesday. Union flags were raised upon the Custom House and Post Office, and though one of them was cut down, a creditable show of indignation was made against the rebel who did the deed. Moreover, a judge charged the Grand Jury to investigate the 19th of April massacre, and to bring the guilty to punishment. The Legislature also took a stand upon the right side.

Mr. Botts has written an earnest letter to Mr. Bates,—in which he looks forward to the success of the immense United States army now rising and moving, in putting down the rebellion,—and in anxiety, he asks, What then? He urges an armistice, and wishes the United States to consent to a peaceable secession, and an acknowledgement of independence of the cotton confederacy,—as there never, in his view, can be any real union with the rebel States, till they have tried their hands at self-government out of the Union. He proposes that the United States offer an armistice, and call a convention to let the disaffected States go. His proposal is not very popular just now.

The government has instructed Manager Talcott to rebuild the telegraph lines between Baltimore and Washington.

A letter from Fort Monroe states that there is no danger of an attack, as there are two thousand men in the fort, and sentinels are placed at every point connecting with the land. They are much annoyed by fugitive slaves seeking refuge there, but in all cases they are returned. No batteries will be allowed to be erected within range.

A Washington dispatch of May 1 says:

It is reliably ascertained that martial law will not be proclaimed unless there shall be a reason for it, which certainly does not exist now.

Among the unfounded reports to-day was one that the War Department had received a dispatch stating that Confederate troops were concentrating in Virginia for an immediate raid in Washington. Military men have no fears on that subject.

Government is promptly providing for the equipment and comfort of the volunteers who hastily left their various employments for the defence of the Capital.

When Governor Sprague's regiment, from Rhode Island, left Annapolis for Washington, three negro men belonging to the Hon. George W. Hughes, residing some ten miles from the city, attempted to follow and escape. As soon as the Governor, who was in command, was apprised of the fact, he had them arrested and conducted to their master.

This case, with that of Fort Monroe, shows that there are some negro slaves who would like to be free;—and it is quite likely that others may slip off in a more promising direction than toward the army; the U. G. R. is still open.

The bodies of the three Massachusetts Volunteers who fell by the hands of the Baltimore mob, were received in Boston Wednesday,—and placed in a vault beneath the Stone Chapel, with military honors.

The Rebel Army.—Commander-in-Chief, General Brag. Rank and file, mis-guided men.

REPORTS OF THE SHOOTING OF SECESSIONISTS AND TRAITORS AT THE WEST. The papers received by the last mails state that a man has been hanged by the citizens of Bloomington, Ill., for placing obstructions on the track of the Illinois Central Railroad, to throw off the train bringing troops South.

The Louisville Journal of the 25th says considerable excitement prevailed among the troops at Indianapolis yesterday, at the discovery of an attempt upon the part of two members of the Morrison Guards to poison the wells at Camp Morton. They were strangers in Indianapolis, but had volunteered under the government, no doubt with the design to do mischief. They were court-martialed and shot. It is said they were both Tennesseeans, but we could not learn their names.

THE NAVY.—The Boston Board of Trade recommends to the administration an immediate increase of the naval force of the nation, by the purchase of ten or more first class clipper ships and ocean steamers, "to be equipped, armed and commissioned forthwith, and employed on our coast, especially for the protection of merchant vessels from the attacks of privateers or piratical cruisers." The government, we dare say, have already had this matter under advisement. Still it cannot be deemed obtrusive on the part of commercial associations to urge it, and every other plan of defence, upon the attention of the administration.

The Boston Courier suggests that "one hundred ships of the class indicated ought to be employed, for it would be a mortifying scandal if a commissioned cruiser of the South should be permitted to interrupt the commerce of this nation for one moment."

MANUFACTURING AT MANCHESTER.—A Manchester paper states that the Amoskeag Mills have curtailed operations to a small degree, by suspending mainly on Saturday of each week. The Stark Mills are working on contract, and are doing a brisk business in the manufacture of seamless bags. The Amoskeag Mills have orders for the manufacture of tent cloth, which is a new business in that place. The Manchester Mills are manufacturing bunting, which is to receive the impress of the Stars and Stripes at the Print Works.

INSURANCE ON VESSELS.—The Marine Insurance Companies in New York have decided to make an advance of one per cent. upon the ordinary rates of insurance, owing to the danger of assault by privateers. Most of the vessels now going to sea prepare themselves for resisting any attack. In some cases the British flag is hoisted instead of the Stars and Stripes.—This transfer is effected by a very simple process on the part of the owners and the British Consul, which challenges the insolence of the piratical gentry, and makes them stand aside.

It is understood that the Virginia Convention has passed an ordinance placing the whole military force and military operations in the State under the control of the President of the Confederate States, in the same manner as if Virginia were now a member of the Confederacy.

This is done, before her people have voted on the question of secession; though it is said by some that the secessionists there, will have 100,000 majority. Virginia, then, resolves to bring the seat of war into her own bosom.

At the Naval Hospital at Nortolk, one thousand Georgia troops are quartered, and are hard at work throwing up breastworks with cotton bales.

At Fort Norfolk the Virginia forces are doing a similar thing, as well as at Craney Island. Several more vessels have been sunk between Fort Monroe and the city of Norfolk.

And all this, we suppose is not any offence against the United States, by Virginia.

☞ A style of head dress for our soldiers combining several suggestions of practical men who have seen service in warm latitudes, has been prepared and offered to the Massachusetts authorities by Gen. B. F. Edmands. It is in appearance a combination of the old continental, the army and the Kossuth hats, and is designed to afford the best means of protecting the head from the sun's rays, and consequent sun-stroke.

☞ Three Hartford mechanics arrived home from Richmond, a day or two since having been driven out of Virginia, because they would not take sides with the rebels. They state that the chivalry of the Old Dominion are loud in their threats against the North, expressing great anxiety "to cut out the livers of the Yankees, and fill the streets and gutters with northern blood." They consider the northerners cowards, and declare that one Virginian can whip five Yankees.

The letter of our regular Pensacola correspondent contains the very latest news from that important point. Matters look squally enough. The summons to surrender, it appears, comes from the other side this time.—Savannah Republican, 22d.

On the Homeopathic Principle.—Blockades for blockheads.

☞ One paper speaks of Fletcher Webster as raising a regiment to defend the administration, &c.—This is a great mistake: Mr. Webster means to defend the Government and the Country: these are permanent. He will probably oppose the administration, which can last only four years. But he does not oppose it in arms,—nor will he embarrass it in any way, in its efforts to sustain the government and save the country from anarchy.

The rebellion is against the government,—and the Government must either be defended or destroyed.—Webster understands this.

☞ All that Virginia directly owes, and all that she is liable for, amounts to about $46,000,000. The whole can not now be estimated to be worth above $15,000,000, and if it were to be sold on the instant probably wouldn't bring above $10,000,000. Quite likely not a dollar of the interest will be paid for years to come, and not half the principal for half a century, if ever. Secession is a Serbonian bog, which may swallow up armies of men, and will swallow up mountains of gold.

SENATOR DOUGLAS is making fiery war speeches at the West. In an address before the Illinois Legislature on the 25th inst., he said:—

We are called upon to fold our arms and see our capital seized, our archives carried away by those who glory in trampling the American flag in the dust. Illinois and my native State would say to-day that if I had committed an error in my political career, it has consisted in leaning too far towards the South. I have never pandered to the prejudices of the North against the minority section. While I will never invade the constitutional rights of the South, nor sanction their invasion by others, I want them distinctly to understand that they must not invade my constitutional rights. (Loud cheers.)

It is a prodigious crime against the freedom of the world, to blot the United States out of the map of Christendom. What do we see? Washington to be bombarded! The President of the United States and his Cabinet—elected and appointed to their places by the same authority as George Washington and his constitutional advisers—to be carried off as hostages! The very demon of destruction to be let loose in the land! How long do you think it will be ere the guillotine is in operation? Allow me to say to my former political enemies, you will not be true to your country if you seek to make political capital out of these disasters. (Applause.) And to my old friends, you will be false and unworthy of your principles if you allow political defeat to convert you into traitors to your national land! The shortest way now to peace consists in the most stupendous and unanimous preparations for war. (Vociferous cheering.)

ELOPEMENT.—A few days since, Prof. H. W. Barton, who has resided at Sanbornton Bridge, N. H., acting at times as a teacher of vocal music, and chorister in several churches in that village, left his wife and eight children, and eloped with the wife of the man who lived in the same house. He stole a horse to get on the railroad,—but is arrested and in jail.

☞ The Evansville Journal is informed, by a person just from the South, that a negro insurrection was discovered in San Atobia, Northern Mississippi, on Sunday, April 14. The ringleader was hung, and on the scaffold told his executioner that "they thought the niggers didn't know what was going on, but they all did, and that his death would be revenged."

ANOTHER MILITARY NECESSITY.—The N. Y. Tribune urges, as a "military necessity," that the commander at Fort McHenry be allowed to destroy with his guns the foundries of the Messrs. Winans, the Baltimore millionaires, who are busily engaged in turning out shot, shell, cannon, and the murderous steam guns for the use of the rebels.

LOSS OF LIFE AT CHARLESTON.—The evidence accumulates of a considerable loss of life on the part of the Southern Rebels during the bombardment of Fort Sumter. A gentleman at Charleston writes to a friend in Boston, as a certain fact that hundreds of soldiers lost their lives, and that a large number were buried in a deep hole made for that purpose. Another gentleman from the South states that on the Sunday after the bombardment, one hundred and forty funerals took place at Charleston.—Traveller.

PAY OF THE MILITIA WHILE IN SERVICE.—In answer to inquiries made concerning the pay to which the military force is entitled while in the service of the Government, we give the following information: Colonel, $218 per month; Lieut. Colonel, $194; Major, $175; Captain, $118,50;—First Lieutenant, $108,50; Second Lieutenant, $103,50; Orderly Sergeant, $29; other Sergeants, $27; Corporals, $13;—Musicians, $12; Privates, $11. Officers are required to provide their own uniforms and equipments, but the men are clothed, armed and provisioned by the Government.—Independent Democrat.

This needs explanation. The money pay of a Captain is only $60 per month; First Lieutenant $50; Colonel $95. The rations, allowance for servants, horses, horse feed, &c., when commuted, make up the larger sums named. The ration is valued at 30 cents per day. So a private gets $11 pay, and $9 in rations, making the $20 of some tables.

☞ Among churches and other places from which are flying the stars and stripes,—is the Portsmouth Jail. Gov. Dorr and other prisoners, having been kindly furnished with material for making a flag, by the lady of the Sheriff—they constructed a very creditable one themselves, and thrust the staff from their grating. Many felons, less faithful and patriotic, ought to be behind the bars, and may get there yet.

☞ A schooner from Portland, bringing oil for Government use—was brought to in our harbor Thursday afternoon, by a gun from the garrison at Fort Constitution.—She carried no flag, and hesitated to send a boat ashore: but seeing preparations for more firing, concluded to hoist the stars and stripes, and sent her boat, as ordered.

☞ A company from Claremont, arrived in this city on Thursday evening. They are a good looking set of fellows, numbering eighty-five, and commanded by Capt. Austin. They occupied Jefferson Hall last night, the Great Falls company changing their quarters to Rechab Hall.

The Mason of Virginia.—He should be tried by a plumb line.

From the Extra Chronicle, Thursday Afternoon.

☞ It will be seen that Commissary General Sides, having been appointed Captain in the New Hampshire Volunteer Regiment, and to be ordered on service out of the State—has authorized Mr. Charles H. Sides of this city as Deputy Commissary for the balance of the term.

☞ Portsmouth seems quite like a camp,—with the three full Companies of Volunteers marching and countermarching in our streets, and the frequent roll of the drum and the whistle of the fife; the multitude of flags flying almost everywhere, and the general excitement of the people.

☞ The Barracks for the troops, at the Ropewalk, are being rapidly fitted up. A large cook-house is being erected adjacent,—and the Volunteers will find very comfortable quarters there. One Company is to occupy Rechab Hall to-night. One Company now dines at the Franklin House, and another at the City Hotel. Several others from abroad are impatient to be in camp here and in active service.

☞ A horse harnessed to a wagon, left standing in Vaughan street, early on Thursday morning, ran to Congress street, at the corner of which he upset, smashed and left the body of the carriage; and with the front wheels made the best time he could to Newcastle Bridge—where he was secured without having injured any person, or himself harmed in the least. Hitch your horses—that is, unless you are sure they will stand; and even then, "safe bind, safe find."

THE WAR.—New York, May 1.—A special dispatch to the Post says Gen. Patterson holds military possession of the road between Washington and Perryville.

Gen. Scott will soon change his headquarters to Philadelphia.

Thirty thousand troops are to be concentrated in Washington.

Gen. Bonham is reported to be in command of the Federal troops in Virginia.

The 69th N. Y. Regiment arrived at Washington this morning.

Lord Lyons denies the report that he has solicited an armistice.

A letter from a member of the 7th N. Y. regiment says six Secessionists were caught on the 27th, two of whom were shot on the morning of the 28th, and another was to be shot next morning. Several Rebels have been arrested for tearing up the railroad track.

A private letter from Annapolis says the brig Caledonia has two men hanging from the yard-arm, one for smuggling powder and provisions to Charleston, and the other for pilloting the 7th N. Y. regiment on to the Chesapeake Bar with the intention that the Baltimore rebels should capture Annapolis before the regiment could reach there.

BOSTON, May 2—2 30 P. M.—Steamer Cambridge sailed to-day with detachments of volunteers, including Major Dodd's battalion. Her destination is supposed to be Fort Monroe and Annapolis.

Evidences of Lieut. Maury's treachery are daily more apparent.

Commodore Armstrong, who surrendered Pensacola Navy Yard, has been suspended for three years without pay.

It is announced that the Norfolk Navy Yard is to be retaken at once.

Minister Faulkner at Paris presented the Southern Commissioners to the French Emperor.

Mr. Dallas, Minister at London, declined presenting them to the Queen of England, until instructed by the United States government.

GEORGIA REPUDIATES.—Milledgeville, Ga., April 26.—Governor Brown has issued a proclamation prohibiting the payment of all debts due to Northern creditors until the end of hostilities, and directing the payment of the money which was to meet those debts into the State treasury, to be refunded with interest at the end of the war, to the depositors.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP A POWDER HOUSE.—Portland, Me., May 1.—An attempt was made to-day to blow up the State Powder House on Bramhall Hill, containing 1000 kegs of powder, by building a fire at the air hole outside. Fortunately it was discovered and extinguished.

☞ Thursday, May 2, was suggestive of overcoats and mittens, rather than birds and flowers. The glass was down to 29° and below, and the ground was considerably frozen in low, damp spots, and ice formed of the thickness of window glass.—Ugh! "charming May."

☞ Have you secured tickets for the Volunteer Benefit Concert next week?—One-half the entire receipts goes into the Fund for the aid of the families of the Portsmouth Company. If either the object or the performances are not worth a quarter, even in these war times—we don't know what would be.

☞ "Burnett's superior Writing Fluid" is for sale at J. H. Foster's Bookstore.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Judge Campbell of Alabama, a native of Georgia, has resigned his seat on the Bench of the Supreme Court.

The weather is so cool as to render overcoats acceptable. The Rhode Island regiment is on parade wearing scarlet blankets, in the Mexican style, with the head through a hole in the middle.

Government trains run regularly between here and Annapolis, connecting with steam boats for Perrysville. The Baltimore train connects at the junction.

Sick Headache, Debility and Indigestion. Where, among all the remedies for these complaints, is there one which so quickly, so effectually, and so permanently removes them, as the Oxygenated Bitters?

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND,
is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from suffering of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 90 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

Testimony of Judge Kitteredge of Vermont.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTEREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. Hagan & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "Heimstreet's Hair Restorative," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

St. Louis, Mo., June, 1859.

Mr. Henry Reynolds,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, Heimstreet's Immortale Hair Restorative, (prepared by W. E. Hagan & Co., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it h s merits that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that soreness of ability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.
PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.
The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and security when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.
The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.
No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!

FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,

IS THE DEMAND FOR

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEBRE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes: "I find they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with dyspepsia and debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends the Bitters as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has never contracted and dullness, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones have brought out the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had bought some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are worthless. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied verbatim, word for word, several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, weak hair, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1920, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from testimonials in proof of which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbian Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of this last section, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article, as it will restore the hair to its original color, and prevent its falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and he is not the man to speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess all the efficacy claimed for it, when hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this remedy has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attending to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its components are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '59.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use for the purpose. It cleansed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other annoyances. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands as an eminence as chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality, he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be revitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he used he now gives to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

[From the Evening Post.]

TO THE MEN OF THE NORTH AND WEST.

Men of the North and West,
Wake in your might!
Prepare, as the rebels have done,
For the fight;
You cannot shrink from the test!
Rise! Men of the North and West!

They have torn down your banner of stars;
They have trampled the laws;
They have stilled the freedom they hate,
For no cause!
Do you love it, or slavery best!
Speak! Men of the North and West.

They strike at the life of the state—
Shall the murder be done?
They cry, "We are two!" And you?
"We are one!"
You must meet them, then, breast to breast,
On! Men of the North and West!

Not with words—they laugh them to scorn,
And tears they despise;
But with swords in your hands, and death
In your eyes!
Strike home! leave to God all the rest,
Strike! Men of the North and West!

R. H. STODDARD.

NEW YORK, April 17, 1861.

A NEW KNIGHT OF THE GARTER.—While the Seventh Regiment was in Philadelphia, a fine old Quaker lady, observing that one of the band was in a state of great embarrassment for the lack of a string with which to secure the mouth of his bag of pretzels, observed quietly: "Friend, I would not give thee an implement of war, but thee shall have a string to preserve thy food"—Then she turned partly away for an instant, and stooped down to the hear shoe, apparently, but when she rose up she handed to the blushing blower of brass—neat green band, that a moment before had been doing duty as a garter.

NON-RESISTANCE.—The Providence Journal says—"One of our non-resistance friends was lately asked how he got on with his principles in these days. 'O, finally' said he; 'I am so strongly attached to them, that I did not even resist my son, when he wanted to enlist.'"

LEWIS CASS, who was a hero in the war of 1812, is a hero now. In his late speech at Detroit, he said: "He who is not for his country is against her. There is no neutral position to be occupied."

IS WASHINGTON SAFE?

On Saturday a gentleman called on us, who, on account of ill health, was recently a sojourner in Florida, and has just come through Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi. He says that the people of the rest of the country have no conception of the rush which the people of all those States have for some days past been making and are now making for Richmond, the headquarters of the southern army destined for the conquest of Washington City and the District of Columbia. He says that in all his journey, he did not see a solitary railroad train, going in the direction of Richmond, that was not loaded with troops and munitions. From Charleston alone, during the two days he was there, 4000 armed men started for the Virginia rendezvous. He says that these general and rapid movements are not reported in the papers of the Confederate States, but he has no doubt that the army at Richmond will prove tremendous in its strength of numbers. He tells us that all the men he met with, military and others, spoke of the conquest of Washington as a settled thing, just as well settled as if already accomplished, and that the avowed determination is not to preserve the public buildings of the capital for the uses of the Southern Confederacy, but to demolish them utterly, not leaving one stone upon another.

We do not believe that the administration or any of its friends in the North have any adequate or faint idea of the extent and formidableness of the preparations made for the attack upon Washington. No obstacle whatever has been in the way of the rapid concentration of troops at Richmond from twenty or thirty southern railroads, and we are well convinced that, whatever the North may think, the army at Richmond this day, if it has not moved upon Washington, doubly numbers the army in the latter city, and is made up of as good fighting men as there are in the world.—Louisville Journal.

PLAN OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Boston Courier gives the following statements of plans and facts:

It is asserted that President Lincoln's policy, now and henceforth, is war, and to this conclusion he has urged his Cabinet for ten days past. Messrs. Chase, Blair and Cameron entered heart and soul into the plan, and but for the wavering of Messrs. Seward and Welles on this point, the Cabinet would have been a unit. Mr. Welles has received such letters, petitions and appeals from his own State, as have insured his conversion to an anti-peace doctrine; and finally Mr. Seward has added his undoubting assent to the necessity of such a course. The administration have been vigorously at work for a fortnight back. We have published the reinforcement of Fort Pickens. Fort McHenry, which covers Baltimore, has been further reinforced.

From the secession country we learn that a large army is concentrating at Richmond; but while this is going on, there is a committee in Washington of gentlemen from Western Virginia, who are calling upon the President, and assuring him that their section of the State would remain loyal to the Union if the people were furnished with arms. The committee claimed to represent the popular sentiment west of the mountains, and brought with them, to enforce their petition, a roll signed by several thousands of the first men of Western Virginia. Here we have Virginia divided.

And Mr. Jefferson Davis, as if he had not troubles enough, has received a protest from the English and French Ministers at Washington against the issue on his part of letters of marque. The blockade of Southern ports will be complete before the 15th of May. We learn that the Government of the United States has purchased twenty-five additional vessels, to be employed in the Southern blockade.

NOT TOO MANY WEAPONS.—In the New York City Council, the other night, Capt. Lovell said:

"Don't make a man a walking arsenal.—The mounted troops might have pistols. But it was enough for a man to carry a musket and 40 rounds of ammunion, and four days' provisions, without the pistol, which weighs 1½ pounds in the morning and 25 pounds at night. Besides, any weight around the loins, after two or three hours' marching, begins to tell very oppressively. The great difficulty was to make men take good care of one weapon. A musket was enough for a man. The lighter a soldier goes the better, for if he is loaded down too heavily he will throw away his extras. The provisions he carries in his haversack are four pounds of bread and three of meat."

☞ A man named Watson was hung at Fairfax Court House in Virginia, on Tuesday last. His crime was a refusal to take the oath of allegiance to the State, and the act that be declared for the Union.

☞ We have before us, a letter from a seaman of this city, on board the U. S. ship Cumberland, who was one of the detachment that burnt the Navy Yard at Portsmouth, Virginia. He gives a graphic account of the affair, in general accordance with the accounts already published.

He adds some curious items about the blockade which is now kept up by the Cumberland, of the harbors of Richmond and Norfolk. He says:—

We stop every vessel that comes in here, and search them. Yesterday we took the schooner Louisa Weed as a prize; she was from Annapolis, bound to Richmond with supplies for the Southern army. She was loaded with artillery pieces, small arms of all sorts, and soldiers' clothing; so we sent her to Washington with a prize crew.—Then the harbor-masters of Norfolk and Richmond came down to our ship to see the Commodore, and wanted him to explain why he would not let the vessels come up unmolested; and we took them prisoners for allowing the harbors to be blockaded.—They came down in a tow-boat; and our Commodore just took the tow-boat, captain and all, for aiding in a blockade against Government vessels.

☞ The Times Washington dispatch says that a person in the employ of the government was imprisoned by the police of Baltimore on Sunday, and his watch and other personal effects taken. His silver-mounted revolvers were appropriated by Marshal Kane. He was subsequently released, but was again arrested by marauders, and with a rope around his neck he was taken to the Relay House, where his captors indulged in carousing, during which he escaped and reached Annapolis Junction in safety. At Baltimore he was arrested as a spy, and his subsequent arrest was because he looked like a Northern abolitionist.

☞ The Portland papers report that Dr. Lord of that city has for a blanket, or shawl, a part of a blue check coverlid made by his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Rowell, wife of Samuel Rowell, of Chester, N. H., during the revolutionary war. She raised the wool and spun and wove it. She was the grand-daughter of Hannah Duston, of Haverhill, to whose memory a monument is being erected for the bravery she displayed in escaping from the Indians, in which she killed nine of the enemy. Dr. Lord intends, if ordered to the war, to make the blanket do as good service as it did in the revolutionary war.

CAPT. NATHANIEL SMITH, one of the oldest, if not the oldest citizen of Newburyport, and one of the best, if not the very best man in the world, died at his residence on Thursday morning. Everybody in the city knew him, and none knew but to love. It is enough to say that he was respected—he was reverenced by old and young. They thought of him yesterday, as the good man—kind, tender, benevolent, ripening in the mellow sunset for heaven; they think of him now only as the sainted dead—resting, sleeping physically on the earth, living and loving in the heavens. No words will over-state the sympathy that all felt for him. As in weakness and almost blindness he has tottered along the streets, men and women have felt themselves honored and privileged if they might support his steps; and we have often seen the children run as gladly to lead him by the hand as they would to a mother's embrace. His life was a sort of golden cord hung down from heaven, and in his acts he pointed up continually to the great fountain of goodness.—Herald.

☞ The three dead bodies of the Massachusetts Volunteers are all recognized.—Sumner H. Needham, of Lawrence, who died last, was the first known with certainty. The other two bodies were found to be these of Addison G. Whitney and Luther Ladd, who were both of Lowell, and members of the Mechanic Phalanx.

☞ A letter in the Cleveland Herald from Youngstown, Ohio, dated April 28th, says that John Brown, Jr., is encamped on Beaver river, about midway between New Castle, Pa., and the Ohio river, with four hundred negroes, principally from Canada, whom he is practicing in military drill.—The camp is not more than a day's march from the Virginia line.

VIRGINIA NOT YET OUT.—Virginia is not yet out of the Union. The secession ordinance does not yet take effect unless ratified by a majoritiy of the votes of the people of the State to be taken on the 4th Thursday of May, the 23d.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

Of what conceivable consequence can it be whether Virginia adobts the secession ordinance or not, so long as she maintains an army in the field, in hostile array against the national government?—Boston Courier.

According to the Norfolk correspondent of the Petersburg (Va.) Express, the destruction of vessels and munitions of war at the Norfolk Navy Yard was far from complete, and the rebels are obtaining much useful material to assist their treasonable designs.

If possible, the Yard should be retaken, forthwith.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 2.—Families from the South are still flying to the North via Hagarstown, Chambersburg and Harrisburg.

CHANGE OF DYNASTY.—The overthrow of Southern King Cotton by Northern General Wool.

From the Extra Chronicle, Friday Afternoon.

☞ By Friday morning's mail, we have contradictory accounts from the Maryland legislature, some favorable and others unfavorable. Such also are the accounts from all the border slave States. They waver, as well they may, between the two fires of slavery and freedom.

A great United States army is to be concentrated in Maryland, near the Virginia line, with the view, ultimately, perhaps, of pushing on to Harper's Ferry and Richmond. A new Military Department, to be called the Department of Annapolis, head quarters at that city, has been established. It will include the country for twenty miles on each side of the railroad from Annapolis to Washington, as far as Bladensburgh, Md. Brigadier General B. F. Butler, Massachusetts Volunteers, is assigned to the command.

It is understood that Gen. Patterson is to march two corps d'armee through Maryland, each ten thousand strong. One body is to go from Harrisburg by the Northern Central Railroad, and the other by the Wilmington and Baltimore road, through the city of Baltimore. The army of ten thousand men at Annapolis will march on Baltimore in case of resistance. The New Jersey troops, three thousand strong, will go to Annapolis, to form part of this corps d'armee. This movement will effectually settle the question of free travel to the national capital.

ANNAPOLIS, May 1,—4 P. M.—The Baltic with the Fire Zouaves, arrived to-day. The Kedar is here with the 5th Regiment aboard.

A steamer has arrived with provisions.

The Baltic reports that the gun boats are constantly crusing in the Bay. The Rhode Island Artillery have not yet landed. They are destined for important duty below Washington.

Locomotives, cars, etc., have just arrived from Perryvillle. The 69th N. Y. Regiment is stationed in squads along the road to Washington, within hailing distance of each other.

The spy arrested two nights ago will probably be hung. Another spy is under arrest. The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun left suddenly, fearing an arrest; the populace were about to lynch him.

It is reported that the Legislature will pass a convention bill; the convention to be held on the 30th.

A gentleman from the interior of Maryland says that one week of secession rule has disgusted its former advocates, and the Union feeling is strengthening.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The Diplomatic corps have been furnished with two proclamations of the blockade, against which they make no unfriendly manifestations, but show every disposition to respect the blockading force of Commodore Stringham, which will consist of at least fifty war vessels, accompanied by a sufficient number of steam transports for the accommodation of a land force of twenty thousand.

This will prove sufficient to make an efficient blockade of every inlet on the southern coast into which a vessel drawing six feet of water might otherwise enter.

The President himself to-day, at the Interior Department, seized the halyards to which the flag was attached and hoisted it to the peak.

WHEELING, Va., May 2.—At the adjourned meeting of the merchants of this city to-day, resolutions were unanimously adopted, that we are good and loyal citizens of Virginia, but at the same time hold ourselves loyal citizens of the United States; that we will maintain our allegiance the same as heretofore; that we are willing to pay the license tax so long as Virginia is a portion of the United States, but are not willing to pay revenue to the present usurped government at Richmond, which, without the consent of the people of Virginia, has assumed to absolve us from our allegiance to the United States; recommending the merchants of Wheeling and the Ohio counties to withhold the payment of taxes for the present. The proceedings of the meeting are approved on all sides.

BOSTON, Friday, May 3—2:30 P. M.—Information from Virginia is to the effect that she does not meditate making war on the Federal Government, but the concentration of troops is in anticipation of a declaration of war by the Southern Congress, also for fear of invasion by Northern troops.

The Maryland legislature has appointed a committee to have an interview with President Lincoln in regard to the occupation of the State by federal troops.

The North Carolina Legislature met yesterday at Raleigh The rebel flag is floating from the State House. The Governor, in his message, recommends energetic action to defend Maryland and Virginia, intimating that if those States are overrun, North Carolina will next become the prey of invasion.

He recommends a military camp of instruction at Raleigh, and the immediate raising of ten regiments to serve during the war.

The Charleston Courier states that Jeff Davis will take command in person of the Southern troops now concentrating in Virginia.

Western troops are rapidly concentrating on the frontiers of Virginia.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The steamer Star of the South, with the 28th Regiment and recruits for the 13th, sailed for Annapolis this afternoon, convoyed by the Harriet Lane.

It is reliably stated from Annapolis Junction, that the 69th Regiment caught a man attempting to draw spikes from the rails, and shot him in obedience to orders; they also arrested two spies, and also by order stopped two trains from Baltimore and obliged them to return.

NEW YORK, May 3.—A special dispatch from Washington to the World, says that the blockade of the ports of Virginia will be effected on Monday, by a fleet between Capes Charles and Henry. Numbers of Union men have arrived, being driven out of Virginia.

NEW ORLEANS, May 2.—Advices from Galveston of the 26th state that active military preparations were being made throughout Texas. McCulloch's regiment was being mustered into service on the frontier. Batteries are being erected at Forts Bliss and Quitman. Fifteen hundred volunteers had been enrolled at Galveston, and a thousand more offer their services.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—Advices from Pensacola, 24th ult., say that the confederate troops are working night and day, erecting batteries. Three gun batteries are being erected by New Orleans troops, for the defence of the city.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 2.—The steamer Union, repairing at New Albany, was burned this morning. Her engineers are supposed to have perished in the flames.

☞ Have you secured tickets for the Volunteer Benefit Concert next week?—One-half the entire receipts goes into the Fund for the aid of the families of the Portsmouth Company. If either the object or the performances are not worth a quarter, even in these war times—we don't know what would be.

From the Extra Chronicle, Friday Afternoon.

2d REGIMENT, N. H. V.—There are now in this city four Companies of this Regiment—the Portsmouth, Great Falls, Manchester, and Claremont Companies. Another is expected from Laconia this Friday afternoon. They will have good accommodations at the new Barracks in the Ropewalk, where the bunks are now being put up. We learn that another Company, from Nashua, went to Concord on Thursday, but returned home again, as their quarters at Portsmouth are not ready.

☞ We learn that the new and extensive Barracks at the Ropewalk, will be so far completed that the Volunteers will take supper there to-day, and take up their regular quarters for the night. With Col. W. S. Hadley for Sutler, there need be no fear for good rations.

☞ Not a little grumbling is heard from some of the ardent Republicans in Portsmouth—because some (they say most) of the State patronage consequent upon forming the Volunteer Regiment here, goes to old Democrats—to some even who were secession sympathizers, till very recently. While we would be sure that all in power or pay are of the right stamp—yet in these days, old party ties are not and should not be taken into account. The best man for the place, we have no doubt, is the motto of our State authorities—as it should always be everywhere.

☞ The subject of furnishing each of the Portsmouth Volunteers with Revolvers, has been under consideration in our Board of Mayor and Aldermen—and if, after due examination and consideration, it shall be decided that they are more of an advantage than an encumbrance, (the opposite of which is held to be the case by some of the best authorities,) they will be furnished.

☞ It is understood that the First Regiment, N. H. V., will be ordered to the seat of rebellion soon; but the Second will probably remain in Camp at Portsmouth for drill for several weeks.

NURSES.—Friend Chronicle:—Amidst the various preparations for the defence of our country and the preservation of our Constitution, can there not be formed a band of volunteer nurses, who may go forth with our Regiments, and administer to them in their hour of need? We feel that this call will meet immediate response; may the names of the applicants be placed in the hand of our devoted Governor, who can send such number with each Regiment as he may deem most fitting.

A FRIEND TO THE VOLUNTEERS.

☞ The Maryland legislature, Senate and House, have passed resolutions, in substance, that railroad facilities will not be re-established without guaranties from government. The report animadverts on the course of the federal government in stationing troops at Annapolis, and considers such a course as being treated as a conquered province.

[If they wish to be a conquered province, they can easily have it so. If they behave themselves, nobody will hurt them.]

The private secretary of Gov. Hicks thinks the secessionists in the Legislature will hardly dare to use the power suddenly acquired; they consider all as lost, and that the State has been sold by Gov. Hicks.

A requisition will soon be made for federal troops.

NEW YORK, May 3.—A dispatch to the Times says 1500 secession troops left Alexandria yesterday for a point 50 miles in the interior, leaving only 60 there. The people are anxious for federal troops to appear, as the rebels seize all kinds of property, giving Virginia scrip in payment.

It is said Wilson's shoulder-hitting regiment and Ellsworth's Zouaves will be detailed for active duty in Virginia next week.

The War Department has contracted for rifled cannon under James's patent.

The Providence Artillery has arrived, and with the Rhode Island regiment will be stationed at Arlington Heights.

PETERSBURG, Va, May 3.—The Express of yesterday says it is positive that a Kentucky regiment of 400 are en route for Lynchburg.

The Governor is determined to station a large number of troops in Petersburg.

A private letter says the concentration of troops at Dunfries, 45 miles from Washington, is determined on.

THE "OLD GUARD" OF KITTERY.—Mr. Editor:—While the columns of your excellent paper have been sounding forth the names of military companies in your own and other States, the old men of our town, (Kittery) have not been idle, but the same patriotic fires have been burning in their breasts, that have awakened both old and young, throughout the North. They have considered the matter, and have concluded to throw in their fortunes, and if need be their lives, to be offered on the altar of their country. They have had no meetings, neither made loud speeches, but quietly organized and gone to work. Hon. Chas. G. Bellamy, together with others, have sounded the slogan in the ears of the old men, and a noble response has been the result. Nearly fifty, some over eighty years of age, and none less than forty-five, have come up to the work bravely, and enrolled their names, for the purpose of forming a "Coast Guard," which shall, when a sufficient number is procured, offer their services to the Governor of Maine, to defend the soil of the Pine Tree State, against enemies and opposers.

Among the number who have enlisted, is Richard F. Dunn, Gunner U. S. N., the same man who lost a leg on board "Old Ironsides," in a memorable engagement;—Rev. Dr. Woods, Chaplain U. S. N., who is ready to consecrate the guns to the service of his country; Lewis Hayes, an old veteran of 1812, who is Major Drummer;—Isaiah Hanscom, Esq., who is prepared to construct the crafts, while Capt. John F. Paul, (everybody knows him, or ought to,) Supt. of Floating Dry Dock has grown tired of waiting to dock Fort Sumter, and is now bound to dock the first craft, flat boat, or anything else that comes within hailing distance with evil intent;—and many more, old men and true, men of long and large experience, have come in with us, determined to live a little longer under the "Stars and Stripes." Capt. George F. Pearson, Commodore of the Navy Yard, has kindly interested himself in behalf of the Guard, and gave orders to have as many guns as necessary placed in any position thought proper by Capt. Bellamy.—Accordingly, last Saturday, about fifty yokes of oxen proceeded to the Yard, adorned with flags and banners, and received four cannon, with carriages, and at 9 o'clock on Sunday morning, had them mounted on the heights, back of Fort McClary, at Kittery Point, in a position that can rake the harbor, and from their brazen throats send fire and death to whatever dares approach our harbor with hostile intent.

So when the signal gun shall send forth its warning note, the "Old Guard" are ready, from their ramparts, which overlook the blue Atlantic, to stand by and repel boarders—and in the name of the God of battles, defend the rights of the citizens and nation. On Wednesday, Gunner Dunn scaled and sighted the guns; and amid their roaring, the martial sounds of Major Drummer Hayes' drum, and the wild buzzas of the multitude, the hero of "Old Ironsides" pronounced them all right, and the "Old Guard" ready for action.

Yours truly, P.

☞ Col. Colt has offered to furnish a full regiment of Connecticut volunteers with his improved revolving rifles, and this liberal offer has been accepted by the Governor. The value of the gift is not less than $50,000.

FLORA TEMPLE AND PRINCESS MATCHED.—These famous mares are matched to trot again on the third Tuesday in May.—The race is to be mile-heats, to wagons, best three in five, for a stake of $500 a side. It has not yet been decided on what course the old competitors will join issue.

John Forsyth, in a recent speech at Mobile, said the Confederate commissioners to Washington succeeded perfectly in their great object, viz.: "To gain time for perfecting our (the South) military operations, and rendering ourselves invincible."

ATWOOD'S QUININE TONIC BITTERS.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the preparation above named, because we are satisfied it is good, and will benefit all invalids who need a tonic. It is prepared by Mr. Charles H. Atwood, Importer of Select Medicines and Chemicals, 19 Central street. Mr. A. has submitted his formula to many of our leading physicians, several of whom have voluntarily given him certificates, which he will exhibit to all who require such testimonials in favor of his Bitters. The doctors approve of the article, and say "it is a good combination," and a mild tonic to the stomach, when debilitated and out of tone, assisting digestion, good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating the system after prostrating diseases and the loss of blood. It is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, carefully compounded, and containing all the peculiar virtues of Peruvian Bark. It does not tighten a cough, constipate the bowels, or affect the breathing. In fact it is the choicest combination of tonics, stomachics and carminatives, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated. It is put up in neat bottles, labelled in a style to prevent counterfeits. It is now extensively used, and is a popular prescription in thousands of cases where a tonic is required.—Boston Transcript.

UNION ENVELOPES

For sale by JOSEPH H. FOSTER

From the Journal

NEW HAMPSHIRE PERFORMS HER DUTY.

Under the wise, prudent and decisive movements of Gov. Goodwin, New Hampshire holds a position not behind any state in this important crisis. Avoiding the expense of a term of the Legislature, which would have been enough to fit out one Regiment, in a quiet way two Regiments have in a fortnight been raised, and the ranks of a third are nearly filled up—making about 2000 soldiers from New Hampshire, when only one Regiment was asked. And this was done at a time when there were scarcely any military organizations in the state. Without legislative appropriations, our banks and individuals have, without solicitation, tendered to Gov. Goodwin the sum of $598,000 for the use of the State. This is coming up nobly to the cause of the country.]

The 1st Regiment, at Concord, is already mustered into the service of the United States, awaiting the order of the Secretary of War.

Four companies of the 2d Regiment are at Portsmouth, the fifth will come from Concord on Friday afternoon, and more Companies to-morrow. The Barracks fitted up at the South part of the town are very comfortable, and will accommodate the whole Regiment.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE TROOPS.

According to the returns to the adjutant General up to Monday, the number of volunteers enlisted at the several recruiting stations in this State, says the Concord Patriot, was as follows:

Concord, 200; Salem, 40; Bradford, 10; Portsmouth, 100; Dover, 230; Manchester, 180; Newport, 40; New London, 12; Lancaster, 49; Laconia, 62; Claremont, 78; Conway, 2; Hampton, 47; Peterboro, 13; Littleton, 42; Plymouth, 11; Keene, 112; Lebanon, 11; Contoocookville, 14; Nashua, 70; Total, 1,263. [Several hundred have since been added.]

The Abbot Guards of Manchester, and the Goodwin Guards of Portsmouth, are included in the above.

In addition to these, the following organized Companies have tendered their services to the Governor and been accepted, viz:—Granite State Cadets, Great Falls; Cheshire Light Infantry, Keene; Mechanics Phalanx, Manchester; Winnicunet Guards, Hampton. We are not informed whether these companies are full. If they are, they constitute two full regiments. Other companies have been tendered which have not been accepted, and others are being formed for the purpose.

The troops are all to be uniformed and dressed as follows: Grey coat and pants, grey overcoat, grey fatigue cap, two flannel shirts, one pair flannel drawers, one extra pair of socks, one pair of shoes and one large camp blanket. They will probably be armed with the plain percussion musket. The other equipments to be furnished them are cartridge-box, scabbard, cap box, and India rubber knapsack, haversack and canteen, and utensils for cooking and eating.

There were in camp, on the County Fair Ground in this city on Tuesday, about 800 men, and other companies are to arrive soon. They are subject to regular army dicipline, and are drilled daily; the camp is now under the command of Col. John H. Gage of Nashua.

Major Seth Eastman of the U. S. Army, (a Concord boy,) is now here to inspect the troops and muster them into the service of the General Government.

The troops are ordered to be ready to leave for the seat of war by the 20th of May. It is expected that one regiment will be got off by the 10th.

Although the President's requisition called for but one regiment (780 men and officers of all grades) from this State, the state authorities very properly concluded to accept and organize two, as there is no doubt that they will be required. Accordingly the chief Regimental officers for two have been appointed as follows:

First Regiment.—Colonel, Mason W. Tappan of Bradford; Lieut. Colonel, Thomas J. Whipple of Laconia; Major, Aaron F. Stevens of Nashua.

Second Regiment.—Colonel, Thomas P. Pierce of Manchester; Lieut. Colonel, Frank S. Fisk of Keene; Major, Josiah Stevens, Jr. of Concord.

THE MILITARY IN PORTSMOUTH.—The Portsmouth company under Capt. Sides numbers 81. The Granite State Guards, Capt. Pearl, from Great Falls, accompanied by the Great Falls Brass Band, numbers 80.—The Abbot Guard, Capt. Knowlton, from Manchester, of about 80; and the company from Claremont, under Capt. Austin, numbering 85—are on daily drill in our streets and suburbs. The good order that prevails shows that they are men who will do honor to our state wherever called.

From the Gazette.

——The old Custom House, on the corner of Daniel and Penhallow streets, is now occupied as the Quartermaster's Office of the Second New Hampshire Regiment. A large number of blankets, &c., intended for the use of the volunteers, are stored in the rooms formerly occupied by the postmaster. Col. H. O. Kent, Assistant Adjutant General is in charge of the property.

——A detachment of marines, under command of a Sergeant, left the Navy Yard on Tuesday afternoon, for Boston. They are to be placed on board one of the steamers fitting out at Charlestown for the purpose of aiding in the blockade of the Southern ports.

PATRIOTISM AMONG THE CATHOLICS.—Rev. Mr. Canovan, the Catholic Priest of this city, preached a powerful and patriotic sermon on Sunday the 21st inst., and another on the 28th, and in the course of his remarks, strongly urged his parishioners to organize a company to aid the government. No arrangements, that we have heard of, have yet been made to carry his advice into practical operation.

☞ On Tuesday last twenty-eight cases of muskets arrived in this city, directed to Governor Goodwin, from the Springfield Armory. We understand they are the first installment of a requisition for 2000 smooth bore muskets with which the New Hampshire Regiments are to be armed.

——Ex-Gov. Haile has enrolled himself in a volunteer company now forming in Hinsdale.

——Gen. George Stark, late Democratic candidate for Governor of this State, has tendered his services to the government.

ALIKE IN FINANCE AND MORALS.—The rebels' lie-abilities. In both cases unrivalled.

A MOVEMENT IN WESTERN VIRGINIA. Wheeling about right.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OGLESBY, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & CO. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was troubled with a Scrofulous Humor, which showed itself in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in the hands and arms; sometimes it turned toward and disfigured me at the sickness. Two years ago it broke out on my hand and covered my wrist and arm with one sore, which was painful and loathsome to look at. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing, in fact, the disease grew worse. At length I was recommended to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for I knew from your reputation for what you made must be good. I said to myself, if it is good for anything it will cure this. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin grew upon the sore, and healed it, while other parts of the body fell. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You are at liberty to use this letter as you please, and if you think I can do any good by saying what I tell you, that I have you to be one of the greatest of the benefactors of the age, I shall remember your kindness gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1857, that he has cured a severe case of Erysipelas, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Multiplied Dropsy; he believes that our Sarsaparilla never fails to cure the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured my wife of a large and old goiter swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most efficacious alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The vital action seemed to be wonderfully stimulated by it, and in some ☞ Private John M. Ewin, of the Newburyport Cushing Guard, is Southern born;—a brave man and a soldier true to the Union. He found his father and family—from whom he had been separated several years—residing near Annapolis junction.—His father and brother met him as he was aiding to rebuild the railroad, and with them he went home to spend the night with his mother and sisters.

SUPERSTITIOUS.—"Excelsior" Steam Fire Engine, built for New York by the Amoskeag Co., Manchester, did not arrive there until about 10 o'clock Thursday night. Before reaching the metropolis, word arrived that the engine would not be received on Friday, as it was an unlucky day!

IN LUCK.—We learn that one of our popular steamboat captains, (who, by the way, is a Prince of good fellows,) with his lady, passing from the Togus House to Augusta a few days ago, discovered a bundle in the road, which, upon examination, was found to contain a small baby; and, having been married a number of years without any, the finder deliberately refused to divide the prize, but accepted it as a providential interposition in his behalf.—Portland Advertiser.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND;

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well."—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1855, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

MOBS.

MOB LAW, says Uncle Toby, is wonderfully unsafe and uncertain. To day it cries, Hosanna, Hosanna! To-morrow it yells, Crucify him, Crucify him!. At our neighbor's door, it may make sport for us, as well as for the rabble: but at our own doors, it is danger and death.

The events of last week, call upon us to repeat the condemnation and rebuke of mobs, which we have felt constrained to administer many times within the last 35 or 40 years.

In doing this, we quote a few words from Wendell Phillips' late speech on the War. He says:—

Let us show, to-day, a Christian spirit as sincere and fearless. No mobs in this hour of victory, to silence those whom events have not converted. We are strong enough to tolerate dissent. That flag which floats over press or mansion at the bidding of a mob, disgraces both victor and victim.

These are noble sentences. We would not give much for the sincerity or the value of a patriot who is converted from rebellion or treason by force or fear.

We rejoice in the great and unexampled unanimity of feeling and action in all the free States, not only because it seems to us to be right in itself,—but also because it appears to be spontaneous and simultaneous.

We are fully aware that in times of national danger and distress, of invasion or rebellion, the public safety may demand care and caution in the expression of private opinion: and every man of good sense, will know when to keep silence, as well as when to speak.

And so, on the other hand, the loyal and patriotic citizens, numbering as they do, nineteen-twentieths, and we believe ninety-nine hundredths of the people of this city and State, are, in our view, too strong and too much in the right, to make or countenance rebellion.

If any one proceed to overt acts of treason and rebellion—arrest, prosecute, and punish by the law:—but for mere words, let public opinion, indignation, or contempt, suffice.

Such are our views,—and such they have been, for many years, and plainly expressed many times.

The scenes in our streets last Saturday, when an elderly man, a public officer, was hustled by a crowd of youngsters through the streets, and caused to wave a borrowed American flag,—were pitiable in our view. We saw some men doing what they could to appease and intimidate and disperse that mob,—who to our certain knowledge have abetted, defended, and approved other mobs, which have plotted and actually inflicted personal injury and outrage, on peaceful and worthy citizens.

It is worthy of remark, here, by way of warning, that in some States, a city is liable to pay for the damage done to property by a mob. The city of Baltimore, some years ago, had to pay a large sum for an elegant dwelling, destroyed in that way.

☞ Some of our treaties provide that in case we are at war with a foreign power, and decide upon blockading its ports, we must give a certain number of days' notice to the other party to the treaty. But this has nothing to do with our domestic affairs. Our government can blockade the ports of a rebellious State with just no more notice to foreign powers than it would give if it were to declare a rebellious city under martial law. A government's right to self-protection is paramount to everything else.

☞ There are indications, by Saturday evening's mails, that Missouri and Kentucky will not secede.

Gov. Morgan of New York, writes to Secretary Seward, to ask if they don't require more troops, as 100 regiments wish to go. Seward answers, that no more 3 months men will be wanted, but they will take 40,000 volunteers during the war.

The Newburyport City Council has voted to furnish Capt. Wescott's company with seventy-five Colt's revolving breech rifles with sabre bayonets, which are valued at $45 each.

☞ One of the Lieutenants of the Bradford, Vt., military company having, through a disinclination to fight, resigned his office, his fellow citizens had made to order a wooden sword ten feet in length, and presented it to him.

DEFENCE OF WASHINGTON.

The city of Washington is now guarded and surrounded by a force of 25,000 men in the Capitol and its vicinity, all within three hours' march of the city. But a still further reinforcement is contemplated, and it is decided that within a few days there shall be an army of 40,000 men in and around Washington, to secure the control of the Potomac and the Chesapeake. At same time, a force of from 10,000 to 15,000 men will be concentrated at Cairo, and the same number at St. Louis, to protect the Mississippi river, and repel any attacks which may be made upon exposed points in Southern Illinois, and suppress secession movements in Missouri and Arkansas. A force of 20,000 is to be shipped on transports, under the convoy of men-of-war, at the earliest possible moment, to harass the rebel forces in the Gulf States, and exhaust their energies by compelling them to move from point to point, and thus prevent their advance to the North. It is designed, also, to further reinforce Fort Pickens from this fleet.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES IN CANADA.—Fears for the Welland Canal.—The Montreal Gazette of Thursday says that detachments of troops were very suddenly dispatched from the garrison in that city on Wednesday, to Cornwall and Beauharnois. They were fully equipped for active service, and took with them tents and camp equipage in order to camp out, should it be requisite. Many rumors were afloat in regard to this unexpected movement, one of which says that the troops will be employed in patrolling the St. Lawrence Canal, as the Provincial Government has received information that an attempt will likely be made to injure it in such a way as to cause a temporary suspension of the traffic flowing through it, and so drive away the great stream of Western produce expected to take place by the St. Lawrence route in consequence of the intestine war in the United States. It is understood that the Governor General has made a requisition upon the military authorities at home for an addition of 5000 men to the force in Canada, and that these troops may be expected from England during the summer.

The traitors of the Floyd and Cobb school, who contrive this detestable scheme, —are likely to wake up the wrong passenger in this interference with John Bull, who will promptly send an order to his ships in the Gulf.

The Springfield Republican is confident the government understands itself. It says: "Let us not infer from the fact that they do not publish the plans of the campaign, that they do not see the whole ground, and are not preparing to meet the whole exigency in the strongest and best way. We have not a particle of doubt that the complete overthrow of the rebellion and the re-establishment of the Union, is the determination of the government, as it most certainly is of the people."

NORTH CAROLINA.—A letter received in Boston on Thursday from a lady in Wilmington, N. C., gives a melancholy view of affairs. She said the people there did not fear war as much as they did famine. Salt pork was selling at 25 cents a lb. and butter at 50 cents, and other articles of food in proportion.

☞ The Troy Whig says that Hon. I. Blood of Ballston has received an order from Boston for a large number of hunting axes, to be furnished to a Massachusetts company of flying artillery. They are to weigh about two pounds, to be well made, ground sharp, well polished, and stamped "Yankee Doodle."

Bankruptcy at the North has been among the pleasant things prophesied by the rebels. Well, if they come this way, they may comfort themselves with evidence at every step that a good deal of our business is flagging.

☞ On the route South, into the secession States, travellers' baggage is not examined directly upon crossing the line between North Carolina and South Carolina, but at Florence, S. C., which is the inspection point.

MAJOR ANDERSON AT PHILADELPHIA.—Philadelphia, May 3.—Major Anderson passed through this city to-day, en route to Washington, and was greeted with intense enthusiasm.

☞ The new Minot's light stood the test of the recent gales in the most satisfactory manner. Not a tremor was perceptible.

☞ Business in England is quite as much depressed by the troubles in the United States as it is in this country.

☞ The Nashville papers complain that gunpowder is seventy-five cents per pound in that city, and very little to be had at that.

Fast horses win cups by the use of their legs. Fast men lose their legs by the use of cups.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The North is fighting for the peace of the country, the rebels for a piece of it.

In the game of life, men most frequently play the knave, and women the deuce.

If twenty men make a score, how many will it take to pay one?

NEW YORK, May 4.—A million percussion caps were seized yesterday which had been shipped for Charleston. A case of revolvers was also seized at the American Express Office.

The Government yesterday purchased two fast tugs to be converted into gun-boats for service in the Chesapeake Bay.

The Navy Department is to charter ten more steamers at New York, five at Philadelphia and five at Boston, to be added to the Navy.

CAIRO, Ill., May 3.—Capt. Theodore Fink, of the U. S. army, died this morning.

Passengers from below confirm the report of the assembling of armed men. It is said, however, that they lack arms.

The Union feeling is gaining ground in Western Kentucky, where disunion has been most marked.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 3.—The Governor has called for 1000 rifles, which, with the 800 or 900 already here, will make Delaware ready for the defence of the Union. A Union meeting is to be held at Georgetown, at the secession end of the State. The loyalty of the Secretary of State is suspected.

KENTUCKY.—Louisville, Ky., May 3.—Gov. Magoffin has issued a proclamation, ordering the election of Kentucky Representatives to Congress on the 30th of June.

This is the some Gov. Magoffin, who peremptorily refused to obey the President's requisition for soldiers.

Kentucky occupies a doubtful position.

LIEUT. MAURY.—This charlatan in science has turned out tobe a rascal in morals. He did not resign but deserted his post.—His successor finds a large amount of unfinished work at the Observatory, proving that Maury has not even attended to his business. To cap the climax of his baseness, he has removed buoys placed to indicate sunken rocks, in order that there may be a chance of wrecking the vessels of the Government he served.—Transcript.

From the Extra Chronicle, Saturday Afternoon.

BALTIMORE.

There is some reason to apprehend a new reign of the mob at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 3.—The act to create a Committee of Safety will pass, and the Governor has no veto power. The Union men are without arms, and already feel the reign of terror upon them. Their only hope is in the Federal Government.

Evening.—The latest accounts from Frederick leave the Senate still debating the Public Safety bill. The Union members are battling it with various amendments. There is a prospect of an all night session.

Later.—The Senate adjourned without a final action.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

NEW YORK, May 3.—A despatch from Washington to the Commercial says that Southern camps will be formed at Lynchburg, Richmond, Norfolk, and near Alexandria.

Roger A. Pryor has organized a regiment.

The Post says dissensions in the rebel camp-are frequent. Troops from the Gulf States are demanding an attack on Washington, while Virginia opposes such movement.

A dispatch to the Times says that fifteen hundred secession troops left Alexandria yesterday for a point some fifty miles in the interior, leaving only sixty there. The people are anxious for the Federal troops to make their appearance, as the rebels seize all kinds of property, giving Virginia scrip in payment.

H. Crawford and A. H. Horn were yesterday arrested, charged with complicity in fitting out the steamer City of Norfolk for the slave trade some time since.

A special Washington dispatch to the Post says it is confidently asserted that Government will commence active operations against the rebels on Monday night.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Gen. Butler arrived here this morning, from Annapolis, on a brief official visit. The right wing of the New York 69th Regiment came with him.

One of the daughters of the Rhode Island Regiment, Sarah Beasley, was married to Charles Tibbets of the same regiment, last night, by Chaplain Woodbury! The bride wore a vivandiere uniform of white satin.

Ellsworth's New York Zouaves, who arrived here last night, will take the oath to serve for three years.

The New York Seventh Regiment is permanently encamped at Meridian Hill, commanding the Harper's Ferry route.

The Rhode Island Artillery, with six pieces of cannon, will be stationed upon Georgetown Heights, commanding the Potomac and the Virginia shore.

There are now twenty thousand troops in the District.

Dispatches from the Commandant of Fort Monroe and the Commander of the Squadron in that vicinity state that the mouth of James River and Hampton Roads are already under strict and impassable blockade.

BOSTON, Saturday, May 4—2:30 P. M. Despatches state that Harper's Ferry will be retaken, and that Richmond will be invested shortly.

A corps of telegraph operators will be attached to the army.

An alleged plot has been discovered, to burn Boston, New York and Philadelphia, by rebel emissaries.

It is rumored that a conference of the Governors of all the rebel States has been called to meet at Montgomery.

Fourteen companies of Kentuckians have offered their services to the federal government, and ten have been accepted.

In Western Virginia twenty-six hundred men have enrolled under the American flag.

A special session of the Massachusetts Legislature is to convene on the 14th of May.

ADVICE THAT SHOULD BE FOLLOWED.—A writer in the Boston Transcript says:

What shall we be most deficient in, if the war which we deprecate should come, as compared with the South? Not in men or money,—but for one thing, in artillery practice. They have been exercising all the guns at their command, both great and small, for months. We have mostly been acquainted with small arms. Let our volunteers now forming for the "army of the reserve" look to this.

But more particularly they have the advantage of us in mounted men. Cavalry are to the rest of the army as steam frigates are to the heavy sail of the line. They can act while the others are thinking, and are equally necessary to cover a weak point, or to follow up a victory.

Every man at the South is a horseman from his infancy; a very large share of their volunteer companies are mounted;—and if the standard of rebellion is raised in the border States, it will be carried on in the saddle.

All over New England, then, wherever there are good horses and bold riders, let mounted corps be formed for cavalry drill.

Let those who own horses, and can't ride, loan them to those who can and will.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.—We learn that the reports circulated some time since as to the disaffection of this gentleman toward the administration in its present course, do him much injustice. Mr. Pierce is for sustaining the government and preserving the Union, unconditionally and unreservedly So far from having had a good understanding with Jeff. Davis, the last letter of that individual to him, written when he left the Senate, still remains unanswered. If there were plotters of treason under Mr. Pierce and in his Cabinet, he was not aware of the fact. In common with a large and loyal party at the North, he was for treating the South with the utmost indulgence and lenity; but he now sees that the forbearance of the North has been grossly abused, and that its failure to put forth its power has been misconstrued into lack of spirit and of courage; a mistake which will be most disastrous to our Southern friends, unless they retrieve it in season.—Boston Transcript.

Local.

From the Extra Chronicle, Saturday Afternoon.

☞ It has been reported about town, that Augustus Jenkins, Esq., Collector at this port, was not so strongly in favor of the Union now it means liberty, as formerly, when it meant something else. The U. S. flag was not raised on the Custom House until "requested" by a meeting of citizens; and Mr. J. has not hesitated to express himself as opposed to crushing the Southern rebellion.

On Friday, as common report has it, Mr. Jenkins was at the Camp, at the South End, and complained that so much expense should be incurred to fit up the Volunteers quarters—and used what is now termed, in this region, treasonable language. The Commander-in-Chief, who was present, reprimanded him severely, and advised him, for his own safety, to abstain from expressing such sentiments; and considerable excitement ensued—which resulted, on Friday evening, in a visit of a large delegation of the "Vigilance Committee" and "the people" to Mr. Jenkins' house in High street. Here he was called out, and in reply to inquiries, stated that he was "in favor of the Union and the defence of the capital," and denied that he had said that he wished Anderson shot, &c. After considerable parley with the crowd, he agreed to their demand to raise the stars and stripes from his residence on the morrow; and with three cheers for the flag, all dispersed.

But on Saturday forenoon, no flag having appeared there, an earnest and fearless crowd of patriots rushed into the Custom House, seized Collector Jenkins, and despite the efforts of the Police, and the remonstrance of the Mayor, hustled him up to his home, and obliged him to wave from his steps, the star-spangled banner, which was furnished from the crowd. A very large crowd collected, and the Mayor read the riot act; but no further violence was designed—and after more cheers for the banner of the free, the Mayor, and the City Marshal,—all was quiet again.

P. S. A very small pattern of the stars and stripes was raised on Mr. J's premises in the afternoon.

☞ There was quite an excitement on Market Square, Friday evening—caused by a young man of this city accusing another (a stranger, said to be from Boston) of insulting a young lady friend of the former. A great crowd collected, and so strong was the indignation, that the accused took refuge in a store, where he was guarded and the excited crowd kept at bay for a while by the Police; and he was finally taken out by a back way and placed in the lock up. We did not see the prisoner, but we are told that he is a young man of respectable appearance, and utterly denies the charge,—for which some say there was no foundation but rum. We know nothing of the merits of the case,—if, indeed, it has any.

☞ The encampment of the First Regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers at Concord has very appropriately been dubbed "Camp Union."

The Camp of the 2d Regiment in Portsmouth, is styled "Camp Constitution."—Brigadier General George Stark has command, with Col. O. W. Lull as Aide.

☞ Another Company of Volunteers—making the fifth now here—arrived in Portsmouth on Saturday forenoon. They are from Laconia, and were accompanied by the Laconia Band. As they were not expected in that morning train, no Company was at the Depot to receive and escort them to Camp. Other Companies are expected this, Saturday evening.

☞ The Volunteers in Camp here, are eager to be on active service. They complain loudly at the long delay in furnishing their uniforms. All are wearing out their own clothing, and many who came from a distance to enlist in Portsmouth, absolutely need clean underclothing. If uniforms can't readily be procured elsewhere, why not let Portsmouth tailors make them?—and we have no doubt the entire Regiment can be clothed in one week here.

☞ Work on the three U. S. Ships at the Navy Yard, is progressing rapidly.—The Santee is being rigged. The Marion has been in dock, examined and repaired—and was taken out on Saturday morning. She has her lower masts in, and is also in the riggers' hands; and it is expected that she will be ready for sea in a very few days. The Dale was taken into dock on Saturday morning.

☞ We learn on good authority, that a full Company was readily formed of the young Irishmen resident in Portsmouth, agreeably to the suggestion of Rev. Mr. Canovan, the Catholic Priest here—and their services tendered to the Governor; but having already more men offered than were needed or could be provided for at present, the Commander-in-Chief was obliged to decline their brave and patriotic offer.

☞ We regret to learn that Mr. Emery A. Dresser, painter, of this city, fell from a staging on one of the U. S. Ships at the Navy Yard here, on Friday,—badly bruising one leg, and otherwise injuring him.

LATEST NEWS!

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE CHRONICLE.

BOSTON, Sunday, P. M.—Committee of the Maryland Legislature, at an interview with President Lincoln, urged that Maryland might be spared the evils of military occupation or more revengeful chastisement for former transgression.

The President replied that their suggestions and representations would be considered, but he should now say no more than that the public interest, and not the desire of revenge, would actuate his measures.

In the Maryland Legislature, the Public Safety Bill has been recommitted and probably defeated, which causes great rejoicing among Union men in Maryland.

A dispatch states that Pennsylvania troops marched through Baltimore last night.

General Pillow with strong rebel force is reported at Memphis, Tenn.

Col. Prentiss commands at Cairo, Ill., and received the following dispatch, which was dated Cincinnati, Ohio:—"G. F. Pillow has several steamers ready at Memphis; he meditates an immediate attack on Cairo, Ill." Colonel Prentiss replied:—"Let him come; he will learn to dig his ditch on the right side. I am ready."

The 6th Massachusetts Regiment with other troops were to leave Washington today for Annapolis.

A forward movement on Virginia was anticipated.

Alexandria was to be taken possession of to-day.

There are 30,000 troops in Washington.

Western counties of Virginia are moving for separation. They openly denounce the rebels and declare their determination to live and die under the American flag.

☞ However much mobs and riots are to be deprecated—we don't see that it is any better, for men to oppose and denounce or even to sneer at, the very Government which they have sworn to support, and which does "support" them. If any one cannot honestly and heartily endorse, or at any rate obey, all the acts of his superior officer,—let him resign at once.

☞ The seventh Drawing (politely called the "award") of the Cosmopolitan Art Association, took place on the evening of April 18th, in New York. The only Paintings we notice in the list, drawn in this vicinity, are a "Fishing Scene" to Mr. Charles W. Gardner of Portsmouth, and a "Landscape" to Capt. Wm. F. Parrott of Greenland. The number of subscribers was 15,147. No Art Journal will be issued in June or September, but a double Number about August 1st, instead.

COMING AGAIN.—Sam Sharpley will be here again Tuesday night. "If," as Sam would say, "thou hadst not have heard his minstrels before thou hadst better have had,"—but any rate you can hear them now.

☞ The large gang of workmen at the Navy Yard here, were employed on Sunday. War knows no Sabbaths.

☞ We understand that Dr. Mark F. Wentworth of Kittery, on Saturday received the appointment of Naval Store Keeper, at this Station, vice Virgil D. Parris, removed.

☞ A handsome flag, on a good sized staff, has been raised on the roof of the Rockingham Bank.

☞ Have you secured tickets for the Volunteer Benefit Concert to-morrow?—One-half the entire receipts goes into the Fund for the aid of the families of the Portsmouth Company. If either the object or the performances are not worth a quarter, even in these war times—we don't know what would be.

PLANT CORN! PLANT CORN!—The New Hampshire Journal of Agriculture say "there were raised in this State in 1850 not quite two million bushels of corn, not enough by a million bushels to supply our own wants."

FORT PICKENS SAFE FOR SIX MONTHS. Washington, May 3.—Capt. Meigs, who has returned here to-day from a recent expedition to Fort Pickens, says it is so reinforced and strengthened as to make its reduction utterly impossible for six months, for which time it is well provisioned.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 60, 65 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of his provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Tenn., 8th Mo., 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous inheritance, I have suffered much from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it formed inward and distressed me at the stomach. I have spent much money in doctoring and have received my scalp cut out with one saw, which was painful and burdensome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), that I hear people say, proves to them that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now as clear as any child's, and my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the benefactors of the right sort, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED R. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 1st Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Erysipelas which threatened to become fatal, by so preserving use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a case of Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same, and he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a bad case of the goitre swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Saunders, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous diseases for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some others for which no plant was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female diseases."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes: "A dropsy ovarian tumor on one of the females by my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the cures I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Secondary or Tertiary Syphilitic Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic sores in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the roof of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla steadily subdued, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, and I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla. The ulcers healed, and he is well again, and showed me the same disfigurement in his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from that poison in her system. Her bones ached, she was sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy, consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 4th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been using your Sarsaparilla in my Rheumatic Alternative for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I read your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FRASE.

Jules V. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been as much benefited by your Sarsaparilla from no other cause than disorganization of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew of cures from using this medicine when all else failed. I tried it, and it cured me. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel like a new man. The best God can be said of you is not half good enough."

Scirrhus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit of more than one of these cases to be published in our Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, Neurasthenia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the sufferers of the people, and we are confident that this will be found all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of the diseases of the throat and lungs, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its wonderful excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly fatal results of colds settling on the throat and lungs, are known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Every community, or even families, among them scarcely have not some personal experience of its effects—some lingering sufferer in their midst of its victory over the most dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not, in view thus in store, them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won it so firmly upon the confidence of mankind.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late date, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have published them, and exhibiting its effects for the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects from my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box N. 1826, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs, and in the vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums; but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its primitive color. Where the hair has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which are so injurious to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin have been cured by it. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it fail to produce the desired improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '59.

PROF. WOOD: Sir, Your advertisement was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had tried in vain, all to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and was surprised to see how it cleansed it to a universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from dandruff and other uncleanliness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, it has restored it to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I always have my gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, also! I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever been reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached forscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own remedy—his most bald and gray at 57—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The immense practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its native state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rater, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

A READY VOLUNTEER.—The Littleton Journal says that as soon as news of the threatened attack on Washington reached that town, Mr. Benj. W. Dillburn took his rifle and started for the nation's capital to aid in its defence. He is said to be an excellent marksman, and anxious to cover a fighting secessionist with the sights of his gun. He bears his own expenses in the service of his country. Such promptitude equals that of John Stark of Revolutionary memory.

☞ William B. Lawrence, of Newport, R. I., has an "orchard house" three hundred feet in length, and divided into eight compartments. In it have been gathered during the past winter, new potatoes, strawberries, pine-apples and cucumbers. Peaches, pears and other kinds of fruit are grown in pots and graceful hanging baskets, much to the wonder of the beholder.

☞ The once Mrs. Forrest lives in good style in St. Mark's place, New York, seems to enjoy her condition, has troops of friends, and is as attractive as ever. Her unfaithful husband is by a decree of the court obliged to pay her the snug sum of $4000 per annum.

☞ The Harrisburg Telegraph is informed by persons who profess to know, that the peaches in that vicinity are uninjured, and that the fruit, generally, is in such a condition as to warrant abundant crops.

Good-temper measures how a man is acted upon by others; good-nature measures how he acts for others. There are many men of inviolable temper, who never exert themselves to do a good-natured thing, from one end of the year to the other; and many in the highest degree irritable who are perpetually employed in little acts of good-nature.

The first organ ever heard in public worship in this country, was sent from London to the King's Chapel, in 1714. The organist came out with the instrument, as no person in the colony was to be found able to assume its charge.

COMPOUND;

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from suffering of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., procured me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH,
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

IMPORTANT STATE PAPER.

Monday morning's papers contain an important State paper, furnished by the State Department at Washington, viz. a digest of the official correspondence relative to the interview of the United States Minister at Paris with M. Thouvenal, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, on the subject of American affairs, together with Secretary Seward's instructions to our new Minister to France, on the same subject.

President Lincoln's inaugural was presented to M. Thouvenal as an exposition of the policy of the government. On the request of Minister Faulkner that no proposition recognizing the permanent dismemberment of the American Union should be considered by the French government until the reception of the new Minister,—

M. Thouvenal answered that no hasty step would be taken, but added, that according to the usages of the present century, de facto governments are entitled to recognition when a proper case is made out.

Minister Faulkner gave it as his opinion that the employment of force would not be tolerated towards the seceding States, and that the only solution of the difficulties would be in a modification of our constitution or a peaceable acquiescence to the claims of a separate sovereignty.

Secretary Seward's instructions to our new Minister possess a manly and statesmanlike tone, and nobly sustain the dignity of the government. He desires M. Thouvenal to be assured that no difference of opinion whatever exists between President Lincoln and his Cabinet concerning the policy of the administration in the present crisis, and that nothing but loyalty and patriotism guide their counsels, the impressions left by Minister Faulkner to the contrary notwithstanding.

Moreover, he desires the French government explicitly to understand that the time for settling difficulties by a modification of the constitution has passed; that the authority of government has been defied, conciliation scoffed at, and a revolution instituted, so that civil war is accepted as an inevitable necessity.

So strenuous is the administration on this point that the charge to Minister Dayton is reiterated, that no idea is entertained of suffering a dissolution of this Union, but on the other hand the utmost confidence in its perpetuity is expressed; and Secretary Seward closes by adjuring European statesmen to dismiss from their minds the idea of such a dissolution,—an idea which, he says, has never entered the mind of any candid American statesman.

The Boston Advertiser remarks, that "the noble and dignified character of this State paper is an authoritative indication of that policy which has already revealed itself in the vigorous course of government, not less than a proof of the patriotism and statesmanship of the public officer from whom it emanates."

☞ The 1st Maine Regiment was mustered into the U. S. service Friday, at Portland. The several companies marched in turn into the corridor of the new City building. The roll of the company was called, and each man presented himself.—Out of the 740 privates, only two were set aside for physical infirmities. As fast as the companies were mustered into the U. S. service, the Paymaster paid each man his bounty, $22, and from one to five days' pay, according as the companies were ordered to rendezvous.

Pay rolls were made up to and including the 26th ult., after which time the troops are to be paid by the United States. The amount paid out was about $18,000.

☞ The twenty days which President Lincoln allotted for the dispersion of those who had taken up arms against the Government, have expired. He now has full power to punish those who, in defiance of his warning, still continue in arms against the Government.

☞ Major Anderson is to be promoted to be Brigadier General.

The grog-shops in Washington are closed at half-past 9, by order of the Mayor.—Some distinguished men recommend closing them entirely. They are more dangerous than batteries.

BALTIMORE—MARYLAND.

Gen. Butler has been placed over a newly created military department, embracing Annapolis and the railroad to Bladensburg, (six miles northeast of Washington) with 21 miles each side of the track and including Baltimore. He was on Saturday ordered to take possession of the Relay House, at the junction of the Baltimore and Ohio and Washington Branch Railroads, and only nine miles from Baltimore. Such confidence had he in his ability to do so that he promised to hold religious services there Sunday, and at noon the federal troops took possession of the place and invested the entire neighborhood, thus gaining full control of the road to the West.

The Union feeling is fast gaining ground in Maryland, and the convention at Baltimore has protested against the proposed despotic military bill. The bridges in the neighborhood of Baltimore will be completely rebuilt in a few days.

Telegraphic communications with Harper's Ferry is cut off, and it is rumored that no more trains West are to be allowed to leave. It is understood that this sudden movement is the basis of operations to retake Harper's Ferry.

THE SOUTHERN ARMY.—According to Southern authority, the troops which have recently joined the camp before Fort Pickens are "in most distressing want of military equipments," and have to carry their powder in their pockets, and their provisions in their stomachs, for they have neither haversacks nor canteens. The Pensacola correspondent of the Charleston Mercury writes as follows concerning the seige of Fort Pickens:—

"There are now between six and seven thousand troops here. We shall have a long seige here, probably of six months' duration. The enemy have the advantage of us. They have more guns, and the advantage of position. They have command of the sea, and can reinforce and supply themselves without hindrance. We are in a barren country, without railroad or water communication. It will be very laborious and expensive to feed the army thus circumstanced."

VIRGINIA, &c.—Reliable authority from Virginia states that representatives to Congress will be elected on the fourth Monday in May from the Wheeling and Parkersburg districts, and perhaps others.

It is ascertained that the test vote in the Virginia Convention was 80 yeas to 55 nays, and the people of different counties are very indignant at having been hurried out of the Union without a popular vote. A strong reaction has taken place, and a Union spirit is fast gaining ground.

There are rebel troops at many points in Virginia;—but their numbers seem to have been overstated.

A letter from a gentleman in the interior of South Carolina says that, while absent at the Charleston fight, the negroes in his town burned four dwellings and eight stores in the town, and four more in the vicinity; eight negroes were hung, and a dozen more would soon be hung.

CONNECTICUT.—The Hartford Press chronicles the following glorious evidence of public spirit and patriotism in the Connecticut Legislature:—

"A bill was reported yesterday appropriating $2,000,000 and authorizing the Governor to call out 10,000 men for the defense of the Union. It was passed unanimously this morning, by both houses. All parties joined in urging it through with a hearty good will."

By the bill the men are to receive $10 a month in addition to the government allowance.

THE TRUMPET SIGNAL.—The government has advised the commanding officers of regular regiments (and the advice applies to all others) to increase battalion and field drill, even were the small arms' exercise to be neglected thereby. "Soldiers must understand the trumpet. Human voices cannot be intelligible on the field of battle. There is a probability that in all cases open fighting will be announced exclusively by the brazen instrument. Gen. Scott is about to issue a general order on the subject.

THE BLOCKADING FLEET.—The fleet which will blockade the Southern ports will consist of no less than fifty war vessels, with steam transports sufficient to accommodate a land army of 20,000 men. This looks like business. It is expected that the main portion of the fleet will be at sea within a week; and if troops are sent with them, as is proposed, the rebels will have as much as they can do to defend their coast, without assuming the offensive either in Virginia or Maryland, as they have proposed.

☞ It is believed that one of the rascals concerned in the destruction of the bridges near Baltimore, has been discovered in Washington. He was entrapped by some Northerners who visited a secession drinking saloon for the purpose of spotting rebels. He was, till lately, an engineer on the Baltimore and Annapolis Railroad, and is an intimate friend of several well known Baltimore Plug Uglies. He is under arrest.

☞ Fifteen hundred free negroes have offered their military services to the Governor of Louisiana.

DESTRUCTIVE EARTHQUAKE.—Late advices from Valparaiso, give an account of the total destruction of the city of Mendoza, in the Argentine Republic, by which destruction there were nearly fifteen thousand lives lost.

The great shock occurred at 8 o'clock in the evening of Saturday, April 20.—The news was brought to Valparaiso by the mail carrier, who was an eye witness. He says:—

The Postmaster was buried beneath the ruins of the Post Office, the Governor was missing; and when asked why he brought no certificate that the mails were lost, the messenger replied, "There was no one left to write it, nor materials to write with." The aspect presented by the city after the first shock was terrific. Hoarse, subterranean thunders deafened the air, animals of all kinds rushed frantically through the open spaces, howling; the earth opened and vomited forth floods of water; while, to crown the scene of horror, flames burst from the ruins and consumed nearly the entire business portion of the city, with its dead, its dying and its wounded.

The prison was destroyed, and out of one hundred inmates, ninety-two perished.

In the Jesuit Church there was preaching that night. The services had just concluded, and the congregation was about dispersing, when the shock came. The few who had reached the plaza were saved, but the walls and roof of the building fell inward with a crash, and priest and penitent together were hurried into eternity.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Government has accepted Col. Terrel's and Guthrie's regiment from Kentucky.

The Tribune's correspondent states that while Capt. Pratt's company of regulars was on board a transport at Annapolis, a man rushed on with a jug of whiskey and gave it to the captain. His manner excited suspicion, and a chemical analysis discovered a large deposit of arsenic.

The Herald says the Maryland committee were told by the President that the government did not intend to retaliate for the attack by Baltimoreans on Northern troops, but it was determined to assert its right of way through Baltimore at all hazards.

☞ We are informed by a lady of Rochester N. H.—that Mrs. Anna Hanson of that place, now in her 94th year, lately offered her services as a seamstress, to the ladies there, who were at work on clothing for the volunteers. She got a bundle of half a dozen shirts, and made them well.—The old lady remembers the Revolution very well, and attends meeting regularly on Sunday. She is a member of the methodist church.

☞ The National Intelligencer states that, in order to render the safety of the Capital beyond a military doubt, it is proposed to garrison Washington city with forty thousand men. The soldiers will be in large camps, which will be at convenient distances.

WESTERN VIRGINIA still continues loyal to the Union. When Congress comes together in July we hope they will in convention form a new State west of the mountains and ask and obtain admission to the Union. That would be the shortest way to settle that controversy.—Newburyport Her.

COTTON NOT KING.—At the Manchester Mills a flag staff, some forty feet long, was raised on the portico of No. 1 Mill, surmounted by sa sheep with long horns, as large as life.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 4.—The vote of Louisville in favor of Union delegates to the Border State Convention, was six to eight thousand. The secession ticket was some time since withdrawn.

☞ Steamship Cahawba, arrived at New York, reports business at a stand-still at Havana on the 30th of April. Freights are given to foreign vessels, shippers fears depredations on American ships by privateers from the South.

Private advices from Lexington, Kentucky, state that the utmost alarm exists there for fear of a slave insurrection. Men patrol the streets night and day. Two weeks ago five negroes were shot on a plantation near that city.—Boston Post.

☞ The Boston Journal says Hon. Amos Tuck, Naval Officer at Boston, has forwarded a letter to President Lincoln, tendering his services in any position where they may be needed, and offering to resign the naval office to accept such position.

MARRIED,

In Kingston, April 27, Mr. WM. H. PERKINS of Salisbury, Mass., to Miss SARAH A. SWETT of Kingston.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to" But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.
GENTS:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

CARD FROM COLLECTOR JENKINS

To the Publisher of the Daily Chronicle:

Sir—In your Extra Chronicle of Saturday afternoon, in an article in reference to me you say "the U. S. flag was not raised on the Custom House until requested by a meeting of citizens"; this is not the case;—I have never been requested to hoist the U. S. flag by any of the citizens, or a committee from the citizens, but on the contrary, it was done by an order given by me on the day before the flag was hoisted.

You also say that "Mr. Jenkins was at the Camp, at the South End, and complained that so much expense should be incurred to fit up the Volunteers' quarters—and used what is now termed treasonable language. The Commander-in-Chief, who was present, reprimanded him severely, &c." The inference of this statement is, that I was conversing with others besides the Commander-in-Chief, which is not so, as my conversation was solely with Gov. Goodwin; nor was there a word uttered about the expense of fitting up the Volunteers' quarters, as I shall show by publishing a plain statement of the conversation which took place between us, in the next N. H. Gazette.

By publishing the above in your next issue, you will greatly oblige,

Yours, AUGUSTUS JENKINS.

ARE YOU GOING?—Going where?—to the war? Yes, by-and-bye, if need be, after those who are quicker got ready, and have less to sacrifice in going, are exhausted. But to-night we intend to atjend the pretentious Concert by Sharpley and his sharp troupe. The Temple is not big enough to hold half those who ought to be on hand. Why, the Concert is worth double the price of admission, sure—as anybody will tell yo, who heard them before. And one-half the entire receipts (not one-half the clear profits) goes to the Volunteer fund in this city. Get your tickets early and go—and if you can't go yourself, or don't want to, buy some tickets, and circulate them among your friends.

Messrs. Editors:—In the article published in Saturday's Chronicle, concerning the "Old Guards" of Kittery, the name of Mr. Antoni Lopez was unintentionally omitted. Mr. L. was present at the time the guns were scaled—and by his superior knowledge and skill in that particular branch of gunnery, was of great aid to the veteran Master Dunn.

Mr. L. is one of our most respected citizens, and much of the efficiency of the "Old Guard" is due to him. He is not the Lopez who invaded Cuba, and lost his head—but he is ready to invade any Cuba where the laws are not obeyed. Yours, P.

☞ It will be seen by their advertisement, that the Newsmen in this city, are obliged by the increase in the wholesale price of the popular Boston Daily Papers, to raise the price here to 3 cents.

The price of the Chronicle will remain at one cent for the present—but we shall print all transient sale papers on a half-sheet. Otherwise, we don't get sufficient money from the newsboys, to pay for the white paper we print their papers on.

☞ About 250 more N. H. Volunteers, under command of Lt. Col. Fiske, arrived in Portsmouth last evening,—comprising Capt. T. A. Barker's Independent Company, from Keene, and the Keene recruits, Capt. Henderson, with the Keene Band;—and the Mechanics' Phalanx, Capt. Bruce, from Manchester, with the Manchester Band.

☞ We learn that Capt. Geo. W. Towle of this city, has received a Captain's commission from Governor Goodwin, and is enlisting men under it, "for three years, or for less time if the war closes before."

☞ We understand that the new appointments of master workmen and some clerks, on the Navy Yard, were received on Monday.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

☞ The five Companies of N. H. Volunteers, now in quarters at Camp Constitution in this city, attended church on Sunday morning—one Company, by invitation, visiting at each of the several large churches; and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, all marched to the Temple, led by Brig. Gen. Stark, and accompanied by the Laconia Brass Band, to listen to an earnest and inspiriting discourse by Rev. Mr. Gage, of the North Church—from Luke 22 : 36:—"Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one."

☞ We learn that Doct. N. L. Folsom has not only tendered his professional services free to the families of the Volunteers, but is the volunteer Surgeon to the "Old Guard." The doctor's long practice in Portsmouth, has proved him to be an attentive and skillful surgeon and physician.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

☞ We learn that some of the patriotic Sons of Portsmouth, in Boston, are about to present the Portsmouth Company of Volunteers with an elegant Banner.

☞ We regret to learn that several of the Volunteers in Camp here, are unwell—but trust that with all due care and precautions taken, no serious sickness will occur.

☞ The Laconia Band, which came down with the Company of Volunteers from that place, on Saturday, returned home on Monday morning.

☞ More Companies of the 2d Regiment of N. H. V. are expected to arrive in Portsmouth this, Monday afternoon,—which will make the Regiment about full.

☞ The two editions of the Daily Chronicle have larger circulation in Portsmouth and vicinity, than any other Daily paper printed here! Advertisers will bear this in mind, no doubt.

☞ At the Supreme Judicial Court, at Ossipee, last week, Judge Doe presiding, Charles E. West was convicted for burning the buildings of Col. John T. Churchill of Brookfield, last December, and sentenced to twenty years hard labor in the State Prison; Theodore G. Allard for larceny, sentenced to State Prison one year; John W. Evens for larceny, six months in State Prison; and Jeremiah Wiggin for larceny, three months.

WASHINGTON, May 3—Evening.—Fourteen companies of Kentuckians from the border counties have tendered their services to the Secretary of War, through Col. T. V. Guthrie. Ten were accepted, with orders to encamp on the Ohio side of the river.

The Unionists in the Panhandle section of Virginia have enrolled 2600 men for the government, who will fight the tyrants of the "Tide Water" to the last.

BOSTON, Monday, May 6th—2:30 P. M. Martial law has been proclaimed in Washington

Gov. Sprague will remain in command of the Rhode Island regiment, in expectation of Southward movements.

Federal troops are to occupy advanced posts within a circuit of twenty miles from Washington, extending into Virginia.

It is reported that four hundred rebel troops have evacuated Alexandria, and fled towards Richmond.

Virginia rebels boast having nine thousand men at Harper's Ferry, but authentic accounts fix the number at 3500.

Large Union meetings have been held in Missouri, and secession is reported to be in a decline in that State.

The bodies of Whitney and Ladd, who were killed at Baltimore, were removed to Lowell to-day, where public obsequies will take place this afternoon. The Boston Cadets and other military companies accompanied their remains to Lowell.

FROM CHESAPEAKE BAY.—Annapolis, May 4.—Half a million of specie has just arrived, under convoy, for Washington in charge of 100 picket men.

A large number of troops are expected to leave here to-day, and trains are ready to convey them to Washington.

The Baltic sails to-day for Newport with the families of the Professors of the Naval Academy. A fleet steamer will also sail for Washington.

The frigate Alleghany has been towed from Fort McHenry and is to be heavily armed as a guard ship for Annapolis harbor.

The Cumberland, Montecello, Yankee, and several steam-tngs are strickly blockading Hampton Road and James River.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The Government yesterday purchased two fast tugs to be converted into gun-boats for service in the Chesapeake Bay.

The Navy Department is to charter ten more steamers at New York, five at Philadelphia and five at Boston, to be added to the Navy.

The Secretary of the Treasury has instructed the Collector to grant no more leave of absence to officers of the customs volunteering. They must either resign or not volunteer.

PERRYVILLE, May 4.—There are thirty thousand troops in Washington, including some Pennsylvania regiments just arrived. Our troops will take possession of Alexandria to morrow. There is a small force of secessionists there, but they keep concealed.

The New Jersey troops have arrived here. They consist of four regiments.—The troops and stores are in a fleet of fourteen propellers.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The assertion that the Secretaries of State and Navy differed from their colleagues, and that the President was wavering where others were firm, are without foundation. Equally untrue are the reports that the Secretary of the Treasury differs from the President and other members of the Cabinet. The above is from the highest authority.

The attempt to blow up the powder house to which we alluded on Wednesday, we have ascertained, originated by some very small boys setting fire near the building, and not from any traitorous or mischievous spirit.—Portland Courier.

☞ The Portland Courier says that Joseph Hobson, the great lumber dealer of Saco, has failed for $400,000.

A man's good fortune often turns his head; his bad fortune as often averts the heads of his friends.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, on annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

Also for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Swellings, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & CO. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. My child inherited a Scrofulous infection. I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it would break out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and afflicted me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head, and I thought I should be bald. Nothing would cure it. Last spring it broke out on my face, and I was disfigured to a fearful and loathsome degree. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was persuaded to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for purifying the blood, and that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Greenwood and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as advised, in small doses at first, lest it should excite a tumult, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now free from blemish, and I have by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the greatest benefactors of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TAILEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to refuse to yield to his care, by persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures most common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

DR. J. B. MARK, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the main complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulcer often itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had baffled all the skill we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he refused the trial of your Sarsaparilla at the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Secondary and Inherited Syphilitic Diseases. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, but his nose shows some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from tight pains in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy, and I have witnessed some truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, O. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 4th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family and among my neighbors for a long time, which has baffled the skill of physicians, and stands to me in spite of all the remedies we can find, and I feel my duty to inform you the bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked with what is a wonderful disease for Rheumatism.

John T. Gatchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a bedridden man for more years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to use your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel like a new man again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them were published in our Almanac. Absence, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into healthy action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the numerous sick people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its wonderful goodness for coughs and colds, and its unequalled cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Our own fellow-citizens, or even families among them who have not some personal experience of its efficacy, scarcely buy simply in their midst of its victory over the most dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As it is now the decided fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not say more than that we can now offer it with all the virtues that it did have when nothing the cases which have from time to time gone upon the confidence of mankind.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in a few weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued the use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects of my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have purchased two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will purchase, and be so credulous, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, been satisfied with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subjected to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living out of the city.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to my post box No. 1826, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own city it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receive the universal indorsement of all who have used it. We know of no instance in which any of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as possessing the utmost reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Ro-ton Obre Brand.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. When the hair has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for great numbers. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate as impurity to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear where it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the coiffeurs, if it does not benefit, it will do least improvement, incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, 50.

PROF. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had tried almost all else to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and was now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from scaling and other unpleasantness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, and I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. EITEK.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no shade, whose genius has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried the experiment and succeeded, and wholly gray at 57—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—*N. Y. BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies have become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the increasing demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is the opinion commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLEASANTER.

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEPERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite. It relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the m st severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND.

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 66 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1866, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—W. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they c nnot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them bangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

VIRGINIA TALK.—When old Virginia utters the decisive word, and formally renounces the Abolition faction at Washington, all will feel that the supreme moment has arrived, and will look about for their own safety. Virginia made the Union, and her fiat can unmake it.—Richmond Whig.

This makes the biblical student think of Nebuchadnezzar's famous soliloquy, "Is not this great Babylon, that I have built, by the might of my power, and for the honor of my majesty?"

It also reminds him of the Voice from heaven, saying to Nebuchadnezzar,—

"The kingdom is departed from thee: and they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws."

☞ A gentleman at Washington, from Richmond says:—

The poor people at Harper's Ferry and the Gosport Navy Yard are suffering very much from the destruction of the public property.

Virginia stocks are selling forty cents on a dollar, in purchasing provisions.

It is supposed that Harper's Ferry, and Portsmouth, and Norfolk, will soon be occupied by United States troops;—and the first battles may be fought at those points, or perhaps on the way from Washington to Richmond.

☞ In Newburyport, Mr. Charles W. Bayley advertises that he "continues the grocery business at the stand so long occupied by his ancestors." The Herald says this is an announcement that few persons in this country can make, for in the first place only a few families can say they have been long in the country; then fewer still have remained long on the same spot; and very few indeed in the same business. Not so in his case; Mr. Bayley is in the fifth generation of the same family that have done business where he now is, and in all they have probably there occupied for more than a century. Their old account books run back more than ninety years.

☞ Gov. Sprague and Staff, of R. I., go home, when he will return with provisions and comforts for his troops. When asked to draw a requisition on the Government for what was necessary, Col. Burnside said: "We need, nothing, sir, for their mouths from the Government; Rhode Island and her Government will attend to their wants." That was well said. It is not an easy task, however, to provide for all the wants of an army brought suddenly from the field, the workshop and the streets. As an illustration, look at this item, from a New York paper of Saturday:

The New York 2d Regiment was encamped on the Battery last night through a drenching rain storm, poorly clad, with no lights, without boards or mattresses—and Gov. Morgan has been notified of fact by Simeon Draper. They are State militia, numbering nearly 1000.

They might, no doubt, have been welcome to lodge in two or three churches—but what was everybody's business, and one man's in particular, seems to have been neglected.

PRINTERS IN THE BATTLE.—The Newburyport Herald says:—

Printers are usually patriots, and a goodly number of them find themselves in the army at this time. Four young men who have graduated at the Herald Office within half a dozen years, are already enlisted. We have before us a letter from one, Mr. Edwin T. Spofford, in a Lawrence company, in the 6th regiment. He was in the Baltimore fight and marched next to Needham, who was killed, falling wounded by his side. Mr. Spofford is a young man of truthful and Christian character, and he thus writes—"The man who shot him, fell dead by my rifle. I felt bad at first, when I saw what I had done; but it soon passed off, and as I had done my duty and was not the aggressor, I was soon able to fire again and again."

A PALPABLE HIT.—A Boston Volunteer at Washington, says, in a letter:

"At the time of my writing, with nearly 4000 troops quartered in the Capitol building, there is not so much noise as your Common Council would make in electing a city messenger."

☞ Gov. Letcher of Virginia, in a late proclamation, says, that the sovereignty of the Commonwealth of Virginia having been denied, her territorial rights assailed, her soil threatened with invasion by the authorities at Washington, and every artifice employed which could inflame the people of the northern States!!!—(They are pretty thoroughly inflamed, and much artifice would be required to cool them down.)—The governor calls on Virginia to prepare, and authorizes the commanding general to call out as many volunteers as he deems necessary.

The Concord, N. H. Democratic Standard disapproves of the blockade of Virginia,—and sticks to the old telegraphic error that President Lincoln called the militia only to defend Washington—though the proclamation itself says, to retake, hold, and occupy all forts, arsenals, and places, &c.

NORFOLK BLOCKADED.—Baltimore papers state that Norfolk and Portsmouth are most effectually blockaded, no vessel of any description being permitted to pass in or out of Elizabeth river. The only ship of war off the Point was the Cumberland, but the number of steamers, tugs, transports and small craft, all mounted with cannon and well manned, were almost innumerable, and they were darting along in every direction, and stopping and overhauling everything under way.

Several vessels have arrived in New York from Southern ports, with Northerners on board. A schooner from Wilmington, N. C., has on board fifty men from the Fayetteville arsenal, which was surrendered to a force of upwards of a thousand North Carolina militia. 40,000 stand of arms thus fell into the hands of the secessionists.

The first account of this Fayetteville seizure said the rebels had seized 70,000 stand of arms.

As a supply of shirts was wanted for the Roxbury Volunteer Company, Rev. Mr. Putnam of the Mt. Pleasant Church announced from his desk Sunday morning, that the ladies would please come to the afternoon service equipped with needles and thimbles, for at the close of that service an opportunity would be given them to make up at once a sufficient number of shirts for those soldiers. The boys had their shirts.

An enemy whose force is irresistible, whose march is ever onward, and in whose track nothing is seen but destruction, is at present invading two or more of the seceded States. We refer to the annual flood of the Mississippi river, which this year threatens to submerge a greater extent of coast than heretofore recorded. From all the accounts we have been able to gather, the "Father of Waters," as well as most of his tributaries, is "brimming-full," and although the rainy season in the upper country has not contributed its quota to the flood, yet the immense amount of snow which has fallen during the past winter has begun to show itself, and the danger of a general inundation is plainly apparent.—Boston Post.

A NEW BULLET FOR SMOOTH BORES. A new bullet has been proposed to the Ordnance Department, which, is said, will bring into use the old smooth-bored muskets. It has been approved by military men who have examined it, and is expected to bring into use about one million stand of arms. It has been patented by a Pennsylvanian.

☞ A young man from Rollinsford, went to Dover for the purpose of enlisting in one of the companies there, but was rejected, because he lacked about half an inch of the required height. He went home, and returned the next day, and was accepted, having in the mean time put a thick pair of taps to his boots.

☞ The Springfield Republican winds up some good advice to recruits as follows:

"Let whisky alone, except when prescribed by a physician, keep the skin clean and healthy as possible, and preserve self-respect on all occasions and under all circumstances. Do credit to your Northern breeding, and the civilization to whose defence you hasten."

REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONER DEAD.—Cornelius Bracey, a soldier of the Revolutionary war, and one of the participants in the battle of Bennington, died at Bennington 3d inst., at the advanced age of 97 years.

☞ We have a report that Tennessee has seceded secretly, not intending to have the fact known until they hear the result of the attack upon Washington, which they believe will take place on Saturday next!

☞ We learn that a Town Meeting in South Newmarket, have just voted to pay each volunteer from that town $9.—also $5 to the wife of such volunteer, and $3 to each child, per month.

☞ Gov. Sprague of Rhode Island, who is at the head of the troops of his gallant State is a calico printer by profession. It may be well for the rebels to bear in mind that he is warranted fast colors.

They do say that Virginia is sending all her State bonds to the N. Y. market to raise money on them at a sacrifice, as she intends to repudiate the whole of them, and would like to do it while they are in Northern hands!—Boston Post.

GEN. SCOTT.—Washington, May 6.—Gen. Scott to day, for the third time, voluntarily took the oath of allegiance to the constitution and laws of the United States. His staff followed his example.

Gen. Scott has published another card, begging correspondents to spare him, as he has no office within gift, and no power to accept individual volunteers or corps of volunteers; that he has no time to read applications for autographs, and cannot acknowledge one letter in fifty.

Much alarm has existed at Alexandria for the past few days, owing to the reports that the federal government contemplates taking early possession. Many persons have fled. The Virginia militia proceeded to the Culpepper Court House.

NEW YORK, May 6.—A special dispatch to the Times, from Baltimore, says the Legislature reassembled to-day. Since the failure of the committee of public safety bill, the secessionists, it is said, will not attempt to call a convention. If they do, the Union men will insist that the question of a convention or no convention shall be referred to the people at the election of delegates.

A Baltimorean had an interview with General Butler last night, who said that northern troops must march safely over the ground where Massachusetts blood was spilt, and that if they were attacked from any house, the house would be blown up.

ITEMS FROM THE POST.—In these stirring times many men are making up for a lack in their early training—by training day and night.

Mr. Jefferson Davis is about to concentrate ten thousand soldiers at Raleigh, N. C. We suppose this is for the purpose of entering into "treaties of amity and commerce, mutually beneficial."

People may talk about General Scott's age and infirmities, but we notice that by the help of his staff he gets over a good deal of ground, and that quite rapidly.

SENATOR DOUGLAS had a hearty popular welcome home, at Chicago, a few days ago. Republicans forgot all their old and bitter enmity, and rallied to do him honor for his bold and vigorous patriotism in this crisis. Ten thousand people gathered about him, and escorted him to the old Republican Wigwam, where Mr. Lincoln was nominated for President, but now rechristened National Hall. Here addresses were interchanged, and Mr. Douglas, in the course of a capital speech, congratulated Illinois upon her unity of sentiment, and again avowed himself for his country.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—A letter received by a friend of Senator Johnson of Tennessee gives assurance that Tennessee is for the Union.

It is rumored that the Administration does not feel authorized to accept the offer of volunteer naval forces, but will receive armed vessels for revenue service, to act as cutters, under the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury.

James Gordon Bennett, Jr., has tendered to the Government his new yacht "Henrietta." She carries a Dahlgreen twenty-four pounder and sixteen men.

The Maine Regiment will probably start to-day.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Secretary of War, in order to accommodate the travelling public, has opened a military route by way of Annapolis to Philadelphia, with two daily trains leaving Philadelphia at 10:30 in the forenoon and 11 at night.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 6.—Hon. John A. Dix has accepted the Major-Generalship of the New York forces tendered him by the Governor.

YORK, Pa., May 6.—Most of the companies here are quartered in the churches and hotels, on account of a severe rain storm.

NEW YORK, May 7.—A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says the Government has advices rendering it certain that there are from three to five thousand troops in the vicinity of Fairfax Court House, Va., and within two days' march of Richmond there are at least 20,000 available men.

☞ Among the donations to the Massachusetts relief fund, we notice those of Mrs. Robert Rice and Miss Arabella Rice of this city, for $1000 each.

A SLIGHT CHANGE.

"Observatory Mary" once, alas!
We called our nations glory:
But now with pitying shrug the word we pass—
Observe a-tory—Mary!"

—N. Y. Sunday Times.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

UNION SENTIMENT IN MARYLAND.—A MILITARY ROUTE.—New York, May 6.—Governor Olden of New Jersey has accepted the Brigade of Hudson county, and General Wright offers his services to the Governor for an indefinite period.

The Commercial's Washington correspondent says, it is expected that Baltimore will be occupied by government troops on Wednesday.

The Post's Washington dispatch says large numbers of exiles from Virginia are constantly arriving; also that advices from Tennessee state that Senator Johnson will make a speech in a day or two; also that the government is determined to retake the Harper's Ferry Arsenal; also that official permission has been granted for a continuance of the passenger and mail service by steamer between Baltimore and Norfolk.

Large amounts of military stores are constantly arriving in Washington.

Governor Buckingham is in Washington making arrangements for the accommodation of the Connecticut troops.

A special dispatch to the Post, from Philadelphia, says the steamer W. B. Rayney is to convey a force from Annapolis to retake the Smith's Point light ship. The Rayney has four guns and seventy men aboard, who will replace the light ship which has been removed by the rebels.

A war steamer is now stationed off Fort McHenry, Baltimore, to assist the garrison in case of exigency.

The city of Chicago alone furnishes $120 men for the war.

Sick Headache, Debility and Indigestion. Where, among all the remedies for these complaints, is there one which so quickly, so effectually, and so permanently removes them, as the Oxygenated Bitters?

MARRIED,

In Dublin, N. H., by Rev. Dr. Leonard, of Exeter, assisted by Rev. W. F. Bridge, W. S. LEONARD, M. D., of Hinsdale, son of the officiating clergyman, to Miss MARTHA E. GREENWOOD, daughter of Jackson Greenwood, Esq., of Dublin.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. Harry Danielson of this city, on Tuesday presented a bowie-knife to Capt. Sides of the Volunteers, with the following remarks:—

Capt. Sides:—To you, as Commander of the Volunteers of Portsmouth, your friends present this weapon. It was made in Portsmouth, by Portsmouth workmen; and it is an exact pattern of one carried in the Texan war by one of our fellow-citizens who has now deceased.

It is given to you by your fellow-citizens to enable you to defend yourself against the enemies of your country. Upon its blade you will find inscribed the warnings: "Do not draw me without a cause," "Do not return me without honor."

In your hands we have no doubt this weapon will be wielded in such a manner as will do credit to yourself, and to your native city. The cause is just; and the hearts and hands of your townsmen will sustain you while you are absent, and we hope will welcome your return.

Captain Sides replied:

Mr. Danielson:—Sir:—I make this acknowledgement of receiving at your hands a weapon which shows the interest you have in the welfare of our country; and relying on Him who has sustained our Country for eighty years, and by his Supreme help, I will endeavor to do my duty as a man and a soldier.

THE ABBOTT GUARDS.—We mentioned in our Extra of yesterday afternoon, an unfortunate occurrence in which this Company was concerned. All of our citizens must regret that there should exist any disatisfaction on the part of those who have so nobly stepped forward to defend the Stars and Stripes, and we therefore make the following statement of the facts of the case, which we derive from the best authority.

An order was issued recently that the side arms in the possession of the soldiers, should be delivered up. This order the Abbott Guards had failed to comply with. On Tuesday morning, the same Company complained—without reason, so far as we can ascertain—of the quality of the rations furnished, and returned them. Some members even threw them into the cook-room. They then forced their way through the guards, and marched to one of the hotels, under the command of the Orderly Sergeant.

For this offence they were placed under arrest and their arms taken from them.—We understand that they will be released this morning. We trust that harmony, which is so essential to a well disciplined corps, will be re-instated once more, and that the Abbott Guards will realize that, even were their action justifiable so far as the quality of rations could make it so—such conduct is unbecoming the soldier and the gentleman.

NEW APPOINTMENTS AT THE NAVY YARD.—The following appointments have been received at this Station:—Howard Cutts, Clerk; Joseph W. Neal, Dock Master; Samuel Rowell, Master Painter; Samuel French, Caulker; Benjamin F. Martin, Spar and Block Maker; Greenleaf J. Prescott, Machinist; Ephraim Otis, Blacksmith Charles W. Stimpson, Carpenter; Levi Remick, Joiner; Alex'r Dennett, Inspector of Timber.

HON. NATHANIEL S. BERRY, Governor elect of New Hampshire, was in this city on Tuesday, and visited Fort Constitution in the forenoon, and the Navy Yard in the afternoon.

☞ It will be seen by Mr. Leverton's Card, that he has employed two new and good workmen at his Shaving and Hair Dressing Saloon; and that special fixtures are supplied for each customer.

☞ Schooner Sea Bird, of and from Rockland, arrived in the lower harbor Monday, and on Monday night drove ashore near Kittery Point Bridge. On Tuesday, at noon, she took fire, and burnt rapidly to the water's edge. She was loaded with cotton waste.

MORE TROOPS.—About 250 more troops arrived in this city on Tuesday evening. They are from Littleton, Conway, and Coos county. These complete the 2d Regiment.

☞ A day or two since, an insolent fellow entered the house of a citizen living near the Plains, and demanded food. His demand was complied with by the lady of the house setting before him some flour biscuit; but the man refused it, saying it was not good enough, and ordering them to bring on something better. The ladies—mother and daughter—were very much frightened, and, leaving the man in the house, ran out, calling for help. A son-in-law who was at work in a field at no great distance, hearing their cries, ran into the house, and seizing the intruder, thrust him out of doors. When the man got into the street, he commenced heaping imprecations and threats upon the ejector. Hereupon, the latter ran up and dealt him such a vigorous blow as to straighten him upon the ground, and no doubt satisfied him, as he arose and made the best of his way off.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

☞ We hear rumors that some of the recruits at Camp Constitution in this city, complain of their fare. We know nothing of the particular merits of this case—but from what we do know of Col. W. S. Hadley, the Sutler, and his way of doing business, we are willing to leave the selection and preparation of our food to him, so long as we need any. Some folks are always bound to find fault—and, for instance, a gentleman who has boarded at a hotel in this city for six years, tells us that some of these same grumblers complained of the table spread there also.

☞ Mr. H. H. Champion, with the Hose Carriage, will start from City Hall, Dover, this (Wednesday) morning, via South Berwick, at 6 o'clock—to fulfil a wager.—He will probably arrive in this city at about 8 o'clock P. M. We understand he will be met at Portsmouth Bridge by the Atlantic Associates Ex. 6's, with the Portsmouth Cornet Band, together with the Portsmouth Company of Volunteers, the Goodwin Guards, and Laconia Engine Co. No. 2, who have tendered an escort to the Associates on the occasion. After meeting Mr. Champion, they will escort him to the Franklin House; and will have a grand Complimentary Dance in the evening, at Irving Hall. Tickets may be procured at the Door of the Hall.

☞ We learn that J. B. Upham, Esq., has received his commission as Collector of the Port of Portsmouth; and that he entered upon the duties of the office on Tuesday—vice Augustus Jenkins, Esq., superseded.

E. N. Mathes, Esq., Deputy Collector, at once tendered his resignation to Collector Upham, which was accepted; and we learn that J. M. Edmonds, Esq., the old incumbent, was forthwith reinstated as Deputy Collector.

Mr. Edmonds is widely known as one of the most faithful, experienced and efficient of public servants to be found anywhere;—and Mr. Mathes has proved himself equally courteous, prompt and attentive to business. So long as party politics shall render the tenure of public office so uncertain to everything but change—such men as they ought to be in some employ where skill, knowledge of business, and faithfulness count for something.

We understand that no other appointments at the Custom House have yet been made.

ANNAPOLIS, May 5, via Baltimore.—The Star of the South, convoyed by the Harriet Lane, touched here this morning, and left for Washington with the 28th New York Regiment.

At an enthusiastic Union meeting here last night, it was resolved to sustain the government. Ex-Collector Mason of Baltimore offered some secession resolves, which were hissed down.

DeGranville and Connor, arrested as spies, are still in the guard house. The former will probably be released. The latter confessed opening dispatches, and his case is under advisement by the War Department.

A large number of transports are being collected here.

It is believed that a large force will be in Baltimore by Thursday, and that aggressive operations may soon be expected in the direction of Richmond.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—Gen. Frost's brigade encamped to-day in the suburbs, in accordance with orders from the Adjutant General of the State.

Four full regiments have been mustered into the service of the federal government, and the fifth is being formed.

Heavy turf breastworks have been erected outside of the arsenal and pierced for four cannon.

The Legislature is in secret session.

BOSTON, Tuesday, May 7—2 1-2 P. M. A dispatch from the War Department informs Governor Andrew that no more Massachusetts troops are wanted, unless enlisting for three years.

A dispatch states that Governor Letcher has ordered the evacuation of Harper's Ferry by Virginia troops.

Federal troops have not yet occupied Alexandria, but will soon.

The Maryland commissioners appointed to visit the President, have reported to the Legislature. Their protest against the passage of troops through that State is considerably toned down, and they admit that federal troops would undoubtedly occupy a portion of the State.

Arms have been smuggled into Virginia in coffins.

Reports from Pensacola state that the proposed attack on Fort Pickens will be abandoned on the pretense that the troops will be wanted further North.

Five thousand rebels are reported at Halifax Court House, Virginia, and a total force of 20,000 in the vicinity of Richmond.

A gentleman from General Butler's camp this morning, says a rebel battery has been planted on the opposite side of the Patapsco river, and General Butler is preparing to take it.

☞ A vessel laden with rice at Savannah, destined for Boston, was obliged to unload at the command of a mob.

☞ A correspondent says that most of the shirts made for volunteers are from four to six inches too short!

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease:—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

We understand, from what we deem good authority, that John Ryan, Esq., Postmaster of Salem, is not to be removed, as has been heretofore reported, but will remain. PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known and really, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success; some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1820, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from testimonials and experience which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with marked decided results, receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they promise, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all who hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of Wood's application, and will be a speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this article, and if it does not do good it will be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are entirely innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '59.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your Hair Restorative, to give a clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other unpleasantness. I have also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now forty years old, and though I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance compare with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, should I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can do me any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual has reached maturity, and he believed that it could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—he succeeded, he did it well, and he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, to know and ignore, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy, pure in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is solido by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFFERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the m. st severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from the sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH.

FREE SPEECH, says Uncle Toby, is a great privilege, and it is secured, with the liberty of the press, from infringement by Congress, in an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. In the same article, full religious liberty is claimed, the right of peaceable assembling by the people, and their right of petition to Congress for redress of grievances. These items are all embraced in a single sentence of only five lines, and they are thus all placed on equal ground.

We have always defended these rights, for others,—and have exercised them with some freedom, for ourselves, believing with Jefferson, that error of opinion may be safely tolerated, if reason is left free to combat it.

But we have often seen them assailed.—We remember to have read of a mob of gentlemen of property and standing, who put the rope round the neck of a non resistant, and hustled him through the streets of a New England city.

We remember the Congressional Gag-law on the right of petition,—who moved it, who passed it,—what papers and what people approved and upheld it.

We remember the blows on the head of a Senator, for words spoken in debate,—blows struck by the besotted nephew of a more besotted uncle, and abetted by a crew of cowards, as craven as they were cruel.

We remember, too, that when 3,000 of the most loyal and earnest citizen ministers in the land, sent in a petition to Congress in the shape of a protest against the passage of a pending bill, they were treated with scorn, contumely and vituperation, by men and presses that now set up a dismal howl, because public opinion frowns upon their utterance of seditious sentiments, rebellious threats, and treacherous suggestions.

The Bath Times, in an article on this subject, says:—

For a long time past, when news has come north, of some outrage perpetrated upon our citizens by mob violence at the South; when our mechanics have been flogged, lynched or driven out of Southern cities by threats of violence, a certain class of persons and papers have been accustomed to exclaim.—"Good enough for the d—d abolitionists! if they don't know better than to show disrespect for popular opinion, let them take the consequences."—No indignity has been offered by Southern bullies to Northern citizens, that has not been defended, or at least apologized for, by such papers. They have had a remarkable reverence for popular sentiment. Mob violence at the South has invoked none of their displeasure. In their estimation, it has been a sin worthy of stripes, if not death, for a peaceful Northern man to refuse to fall down and worship and bless Southern institutions, though he might refrain ever so scrupulously from cursing them. It has not been enough that a Northern man should say nothing when in the South, but he must "blow" not only for the South, but publish his own shame by decrying the land of his birth—the soil holding the bones of his ancestors.

But turn the leaf and, presto! how changed. Public sentiment is of no account unless it smells pungently of the odor of the sweating African. Northern sentiment is only the opinions of free men, and therefore is of no account. Men at the North, while the very pillars of the federal government are tottering, and treason stalks at mid-day over a third of the Union, must be treated kindly though they sow the seeds of treason broadcast, and openly defend the cause of rebellion! Though it is a sin which hath no forgiveness to offend against Southern sentiment, on Southern soil, it is all right, and proper, and praiseworthy, to set at defiance Northern sentiment, on Northern soil, and that, too, when rebellion is trying to seize the very ark of our political covenant.

When men claim the right, as an exercise of free speech, to utter treason or to justify the acts of armed traitors, we are ready to confront them, and boldly deny such right. They have no right to utter a treasonable word; and if they persist in doing so, they but dare a public sentiment which is now suffering perhaps because of its past over-forbearance.

We would not be misunderstood. We go for law and order. We go for squelching rebellion everywhere. But when we cease to respect law, and openly endorse treason, and sympathize with rebels, we shall have no right to claim the protection of the law, or to expect any but the treatment due to a rebel. If we place ourself in sympathy with rebels, we shall expect loyal citizens to regard us as a rebel, to watch us as a rebel, to treat us as a rebel, and if we persist in our treasonable course, to hang us like a rebel. In times like the present no man is safe in rebelling against the highest law of the land, or in manifesting sympathy for those who do thus rebel. There is no safety but in loyalty—there should be none,—and from the core of our inmost heart we rejoice that the people of the free States have resolved that treason shall have no foothold among them, that traitors shall reap the traitor's reward, and that the glorious country erected by our fathers shall survive and flourish though all its enemies swing higher than Haman.

NEW JERSEY.—The bill in the New Jersey legislature to raise a loan of $1,000,000, and a State tax of $100,000, has been ordered to a third reading. Resolutions pledging the State for the support of the constitution and the laws have also been adopted.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate for the punishment of all persons furnishing arms, ammunition, vessels and money to the enemy, by imprisonment for a term of not less than five years, and a fine of $5000, and similar punishment is to be inflicted upon persons furnishing the enemy with intelligence or engaged in publishing treasonable matter. The bill also requires all soldiers to take an oath to support the constitution.

A RAILROAD BATTERY.—The determination to reconstruct the bridges on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, destroyed by a mob from Baltimore, has led to the construction of a railroad battery by the Federal Government, at the locomotive works of Baldwin & Co., in Philadelphia. One of the long platform cars has been fixed with sides having port-holes and loop-holes for musketry.—A turn-table has been arranged, on which a rifled cannon is to be placed. The carriage for the gun is so constructed, that it can be fired at any angle, and from any one of the port-holes in the side or end of the car. In place of shot or shell for the cannon, pieces of iron punched from locomotive boilers will be used as loads. This is to be placed in front of a locomotive, and with fifty men inside, armed with Minnie rifles, and seamen to work the cannon, there are but few more terrible instruments of destruction.

☞ Was any body killed at Charleston, is a question still unsatisfactorily answered. The son of a well known flour merchant in New York, who was an unwilling soldier in Fort Moultrie, says that thirty-three men were instantly killed, and many more wounded, at the very first shot from Sumter, and that he himself counted over two hundred dead bodies in the fort. He says their bodies were boxed up at night and buried in trenches in the negro burying ground. This agrees with other statements. A native of Vermont, residing in Charleston, wrote to his father in Windsor Co., that in one night after the attack on Fort Sumter, he assisted in carrying more than two hundred dead bodies away from the Floating Battery and from Cummings Point Battery.

☞ According to Virginia accounts, the destruction at Gosport Navy Yard was not as thorough as was intended, and the rebels find much worth moving. The battery of the Merrimack, comprising five very heavy guns, will, it is thought, be saved, as will also five hundred pounds of powder stored in her magazines, which are water-tight. The sloop-of-war Germantown was scuttled and can be saved without material injury. Preparations for raising her are now being made—her battery, a valuable one, was saved. The renowned old frigate United States, or as she is affectionately termed the "States," was unharmed—as it is said the marine to whom was confided the task of burning her became alarmed and fled. The most important acquisition which Virginia has gained by the possession of the Navy Yard consists of the large number of guns now at her command. It is estimated that upwards of 2000 cannon of the heaviest calibre, and of the most approved pattern, have thus been acquired. A very large number of these are nine and eleven-inch Dahlgreen guns, from which the spikes have already been removed. A number of heavy Columbiads are also among them. Light field pieces and carronades also without number. Scores of the heaviest guns have already been conveyed to the several harbor defences, and several have been shipped to North Carolina and other points.

UNEASINESS AMONG THE SLAVES.—A gentleman who has just returned from a journey through Louisiana says that in the up-river parishes of that State a general fear is entertained by the farmers and planters, of a rising of the slaves. Almost every plantation is doubly guarded; everywhere the slaves are watched with the utmost vigilance. Planters refuse to let any of their white employees enlist, but arm them and keep them as a private guard. One planter, the owner of 300 negroes, expressing his fears, said, "they know more about politics than most of the white men. They know everything that happens." In the interior of South Carolina fears of slave insurrections are exciting much alarm. Men sleep with guns at their bedsides; women refuse to be left alone on the plantations. In one neighborhood forty miles from Charleston it is certain that an attempt at insurrection was put down ten days ago, and seven negroes were hung.—Boston Courier.

BROTHER JONATHAN'S LAMENT FOR SISTER CAROLINE.

She has gone,—she has left us in passion and pride,—
Our stormy-browed sister, so long at our side!
She has torn her own star from our firmament's glow,
And dared on her brother the face of a foe!

O Caroline, Caroline, child of the sun,
We can never forget that our hearts have been one,—
Our foreheads both sprinkled in Liberty's name,
From the fountain of blood with the finger of flame!

You were always too ready to fire at a touch;
But we said, "She is hasty—she does not mean much."
We have scowled, when you uttered some turbulent threat;
But Friendship still whispered, "Forgive and forget!"

Has our love all died out? Have its altars grown cold?
Has the curse come at last, which the fathers foretold?
Then Nature must teach us the strength of the chain
That her petulant children would sever in vain.

They may fight till the buzzards are gorged with their spoil,
Till the harvest grows black as it rots in the soil,
Till the wolves and the catamounts troop from their caves,
And the shark tracks the pirate, the lord of the waves:

In vain is the strife! When its fury is past,
Their fortunes must flow in one channel at last,
As the torrents that rush from the mountains of snow
Roll mingled in peace through the valleys below.

Our Union is river, lake, ocean and sky:
Man breaks not the medal when God cuts the die!
Though darkened with sulphur, though cloven with steel,
The blue arch will brighten, the waters will heal!

O Caroline, Caroline, child of the sun,
There are battles with Fate that can never be won!
The star-spangled banner must never be furled,
For its blossoms of light are the hope of the world!

Go, then, our rash sister, afar and aloof.—
Run wild in the sunshine away from our roof;
But when your heart ashes and your feet have grown sore,
Remember the pathway that leads to our door!

GOV. PICKENS, acknowledging the gift of a rifled cannon used at the bombardment of Sumter, writes to the donor:

"You have aided to repel the aggression of an insolent foe, upon the soil of your ancestors, and upon the free institutions which are the dearest heritage of the people of South Carolina."

The Boston Transcript, says, "we should like to see the man who can get more lies into a single sentence than are packed in that one."

THE DIFFERENCE.—Major Anderson will soon be ordered to honorable duty, and probably promoted. Traitorous army officers, failing to get commissions in the rebel service, after resigning, are emphatically refused reinstatement in the United States service.

This is right:—these resigning officers, for this cause, ought to be placed on a black list, and declared by Congress incapable of holding any office under the United States, hereafter, whether civil or military.

MAINE.—At a large and enthusiastic meeting of ship-owners and commercial men, held at Augusta, Me., on Monday, the expediency of organizing a Coast Guard was considered and resolutions adopted, pledging prompt and efficient aid to the government."

BALTIMORE, May 7.—The troops at the Relay House are actively strengthing their position by throwing up breastworks and digging trenches. Parties are bringing lumber from a saw-mill up the river. Three hundred troops are stationed at the point where the trains stop. Rigid search is made for contraband articles.

Several Mississippi and Louisiana papers, which are alarmed at the blockade of the Mississippi river by the Illinois troops at Cairo, suggest, as the best means of routing them, that a small force of "confederates" be sent secretly to cut the levee above the city, and let in upon it the waters of the river. These humane editors ought to remember that they have themselves several hundred miles of levee—and if they begin the game of drowning out, they may find that two parties can play at that game. —Boston Post.

From our Extra of yesterday afternoon.

BOSTON, Wednesday, May 8—8 P. M'

A flag was presented yesterday to the Home Guard, by the ladies of Frederick, Md., and Reverdy Johnson made a telling speech for the Federal Union. Proceedings closed by the immense gathering singing Star Spangled Banner.

The rebel Congress have passed an act recognizing the existence of war with the United States. A proviso announces that free ships make free goods, and thirty days is allowed federal vessels now at the ports of the Confederacy, to return to their lawful homes. Five per cent. of the prizes will be reserved for a fund for the widows and orphans of those killed on private armed vessels. The Congress admitted Virginia as a member of the Confederated States.

Washington dispatches report extraordinary activity in the War and Navy Departments.

Forty thousand troops are to be concentrated in Washington.

Gen. Patterson will move troops through Baltimore as soon as railroads and bridges are repaired.

Twenty-five thousand rebel troops are in Virginia, five thousand being at Harper's Ferry.

Tennessee Legislature adopted a secession ordinance and alliance with the rebels, and passed a bill calling out 50,000 troops, and appropriating three million dollars.

Arkansas passed the secession ordinance by a vote of 69 against 1.

Three hundred letters of marque have been applied for.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, MASS., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

MILITARY OUTFITS.

The subscribers would respectfully inform the civil and military authorities of the State of New Hampshire that they have all the facilities for manufacturing, and furnishing at the shortest possible notice, Military Uniforms of every description, including Over-Coats.

They have also a large supply of Woolen Shirts, Drawers, Socks, Blankets, &c., &c., comprising every article of Clothing and Furnishing Goods requisite for a complete outfit. They have just completed an order from the City of Boston, for One Thousand Uniforms for the troops that are immediately to leave that city. The materials for those Uniforms were up on the shelves of their establishment on Saturday evening last. Yesterday Col. Cowdin's Regiment paraded, a large portion of which appeared in the above uniforms, which elicited universal commendation for their neatness and adaptation to severe service. We are prepared to execute all orders with promptness, and respectfully solicit contracts for any number of uniforms wanted.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to Grow with luxuriance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing;" and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.,) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it is a merit that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

G. W. WALLACE,

ARMY CHAPLAINS. — Messrs. Editors: I understand that Rev. Mr. Reed, of the Freewill Baptist Church in this city, offered his services some time ago, to Gov. Goodwin, as a Chaplain for one of the New Hampshire Regiments. The Freewill Baptist denomination is the third in the State, as to numbers;—and in devotion to the great principles of liberty, temperance and good order, it is second to none.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.---This Court commenced its regular May term in this city to-day (Wednesday) before Judge Harvey. Mr. Justice Clifford will not be present until Monday of next week. There seems to be but little business before the Court at this term, and probably few if any cases for trial by the jury.

☞ The Concert by Sharpley's Minstrels, Wednesday evening, was certainly excellent of its kind--and we commend the band and the gentlemanly managers to the favorable consideration of the press and public everywhere.

☞ The Benefit Concert, by Sharpley's Troupe, Tuesday evening, was more of a benefit for the Portsmouth Volunteer Relief Fund, than for Sharpley himself. The total receipts were $92.29—of which, by Sharpley's very liberal arrangement, one entire half ($46.14) goes to the Volunteer Fund; which leaves Mr. S. minus $17, his expenses in Portsmouth being $63. Not a very appreciative public, of benefit Concerts. The audience numbered about four hundred, (children and all,)—and one rare good thing about it was, there were actually no deadheads.

☞ We understand that John N. Frost, Esq., of this city, was appointed one of the Inspectors of Customs at this port by Collector Jenkins, at the request of Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury. He received his commission on the 7th inst.

SHUT YOUR MOUTH TILL YOU OPEN YOUR EYES.—Mr. John W. Grant, who lives near the Steam Mill in this city, drew from the aqueduct, Wednesday morning, a dark-colored lizard more than two inches long—as hateful in appearance, as is Jeff Davis to all Union-lovers.

The reptile may be seen at our Counting Room.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Major Anderson has accepted the command of the Kentucky Brigade, with the consent of the President.

The bridges on the Northern and Central Railroad will be finished to-morrow, and the cars running in a few days.

The War Department has purchased the steamship Atlantic for $350,000. The government has also purchased steamer Yankee.

The Post Office Department will make an effort to-morrow to establish a daily mail to Philadelphia through Baltimore.

About 2000 troops from Montgomery have arrived at Richmond.

The Treasury Department has information concerning four propellers at Baltimore, which are suspected of having been sold to the Confederated States.

The frigate Constitution sailed last night from New York for Newport, R. I.

A dispatch from Cairo, Ill., says it is believed that a body of Tennessee troops are marching on that place.

There will be at least three regiments raised in Baltimore and accepted by the government.

Gentlemen from Virginia report 7000 troops at Richmond on Saturday, 4000 at Lynchburg on Friday, 4000 at Culpepper Court House, 5000 at Dumfries on Sunday, and 5000 at Harper's Ferry on Monday.—Troops are rapidly coming North.

BALTIMORE, May 7.—Several arrests were made to-day of parties charged with participating in the attack on Massachusetts troops. There has been quite a stampede among the suspected.

A highly respectable gentleman from Frederick gives it as his opinion that the Legislature will not call a convention, but will adjourn over for a short period.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 7.—The Legislature adopted a resolution calling for the correspondence between Gov. Magoffin and Jeff. Davis' officials; also inquiring if there had been any requisition for Southern troops, and the Governor's reply thereto.

☞ The U. S. steam frigate Minnesota, the flag ship of the home fleet, sailed from Boston Wednesday forenoon. Commodore Stringham is the flag officer.

☞ 10,000 pounds of powder and a quantity of other war material were successfully removed from the St. Louis arsenal one night lately, and landed in Illinois.

The N. Y. Tribune says:—"Twenty-five thousand Minie rifles have been purchased in Canada for the United States Government, and more can be obtained it is said." Of course the United States can obtain for cash, every spare Minie rifle in Canada.—About forty thousand can be spared in all, it is said.

☞ It is estimated that already ten thousand Southern people have sought protection in the Northern States from the inundation of lawlessness which has broken down every social as well as political restriction in the disloyal States.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The steamer Keystone State arrived from Washington this afternoon.

A special dispatch to the Post says the government has received offers of 250,000 men from the West of the Alleghanies.

Arrivals of specie from the North make money matters easier. No further trouble is anticipated from lack of funds.

A special dispatch to the Post from Philadelphia says a resident of that city has just returned from Virginia. Three thousand dollars worth of his property was seized at Richmond, and he was compelled to flee for his life.

A dispatch to the World from Washington says Major Anderson contemplates addressing the people of Kentucky in behalf of the Union.

Several army officers, who failed to get commissions in the rebel service after resigning, have asked to be restored. They met with an emphatic refusal.

There are 60,000 stand of arms in the Washington Navy Yard.

☞ The advices by Wednesday morning's mail show an increased activity among the federal forces, the particular object of which in most cases is a matter of conjecture. Preparations are ordered for quartering a large additional force at Harrisburg. The troops at the Relay House, near Baltimore, are actively strengthening their position with breastworks, &c. A quarter of a million of men have been offered to the government from west of the Alleghanies. The Governors of the States have been instructed to muster the troops that have not yet marched, into the service for three years. It is stated that batteries are now planted on different points on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and that the forces in that neighborhood are in available position. Companies of Minnesota volunteers have been ordered to Forts Ripley, Ridgeley and Abercrombie. The first two forts are situated in the interior of Minnesota, and the last on the Western boundary.

CAIRO AND NEIGHBORHOOD.—St. Louis, May 7.—The House was in secret session all day yesterday.

The Cairo correspondent of the Republican says five batteries are now planted at different points on the Ohio and Mississippi, commanding both rivers at their confluence, and the force is so placed as to be able to concentrate in a few minutes.

Col. Wickliffe assured Col. Prentiss that no preparations hostile to Illinois are being made at any point near Cairo.

There is an encampment of several hundred troops at Corinth, Miss, the junction of the Mobile and Ohio and Memphis and Charleston Railroads.

Twelve hundred new recruits are encamped at Camp Jackson in this city, which will be augmented by the southwest expedition to-morrow.

☞ The Evening Argus, of Philadelphia, a Democratic paper, has been discontinued. There is not now a single Democratic paper published in that city.

NEW ORLEANS, May 6.—Three steamers have been burnt—loss $125,000. The schooner Horace, with Federal troops from Texas, passed the mouth of the river, for New York, to-day.

BALTIMORE, May 7.—Lieut. Fauntleroy, of the Federal Navy, was arrested this morning at Harper's Ferry by the Virginia troops while on his way to Washington.

☞ By a late arrival from England it appears that the Great Eastern has been seized on an execution.

A THOUSAND UNIFORMS MADE IN FOUR DAYS.—Geo. W. Simmons & Co. of Boston filled an order for a thousand uniforms, Wednesday, the cloth of most of which was in the piece the previous Saturday. Some of them were furnished to the First Regiment (Cowdin's.) Such rapid work, and at the same time good work, on the part of the contractors, is eminently creditable, and entitles the firm to the thanks not only of the military, but of citizens generally. 1t

It is becoming more and more evident every day that a terrible retribution awaits the manufacturers of the unhealthy compounds denominated Saleratus, Baking Powders, &c. Since Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has been introduced, we are happy to state he has and still is working great revolution for good. We would advise all our readers to try one paper, and they will say with us, the half has not been told. Our better half says, "Tell everybody to use it."—Ez. 3td&w

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representatives in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred Institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

TAX ON DOGS.—The Wisconsin Legislature has recently passed a law authorizing the assessment of dogs, at the specific value of fifty dollars each, in the general schedule with other farm stock or with real estate. No separate assessment being shown in the returns, the percentage—say two or more per cent. on the valuation—will be included in the total tax; and payment of the "dog tax" cannot, as heretofore, be longer evaded. This appears likely to be an effective statute.—American Stock Journal.

A Judiciary without any judgment; and, in fine, an Administration without head or tail.—Boston Post.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in two weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued the use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has now a natural healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in trying the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will imitate an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some nause in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1820, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been offered at half price, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quite worthless;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which accumulate injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a speedy beneficial improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '59.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had spent much time and to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other unpleasantness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation it has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, and allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now free from trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. EITER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, who has been attention to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is most laid and wholly gray at 27—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and hvalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen Pints and one dozen Quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.
They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.
Dr. JAMES L. LEPERERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."
E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."
Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.
THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Bloomville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."
GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."
J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.
D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND;
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 90 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MAUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.
Every Machine Warranted.
PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT
is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1861.

THE POWER OF THE PRESIDENT TO PROTECT COMMERCE AGAINST SOUTHERN PIRACY.—Much doubt has been expressed whether the President of the United States has power, without an act of Congress, to blockade Southern ports in the Seceding States. Blockade is an incident to War, and the seceded States being still in the United States, war cannot be declared against them. Hence a belligerent blockade could not be exercised by the President under the war-making power, which belongs only to Congress. But there is an existing law,—says the Boston Post,—which we have not seen referred to, that wholly covers the case, and gives ample power to the President. It is the Act of March 3, 1819, "to protect the commerce of the United States." That act was passed to continue in force only until the next session of Congress; but by an additional act of Jan. 30, 1823, it was made perpetual, and is therefore now in force. By that act, "The President of the United States is authorized and requested to employ as many of the public armed vessels as in his judgment the service may require, with suitable instructions to the commanders, in protecting the merchant vessels of the United States and their crews from piratical aggressions and depredations."

He is also authorized to instruct the commanders of all the public armed vessels to subdue, seize, take and send into port, any armed vessel or boat, or any vessel or boat with an armed crew, which shall have attempted or committed any piratical aggression, search, restraint, depredation or seizure upon any vessel of the United States, or upon any other vessel, and to retake any vessel of the United States which shall have been unlawfully captured on the high seas.

The third section provides that any merchant vessel of the United States, may oppose and defend against any aggression, search, restraint, depredation or seizure which shall be attempted upon such vessel, or upon any other vessel owned by citizens of the United States, by the commander or crew of any armed vessel whatsoever, not being a public armed vessel of some nation in amity with the United States, and may subdue and capture her, and retake any vessel that has been so captured, and send her into port.

And every vessel or boat, by which any such aggression shall have been attempted on American commerce, if captured and brought into port, shall be condemned to the use of the captors.

These powers are very ample to meet the case raised by the proclamation of Mr. Jefferson Davis to grant letters of marque to piratical vessels under the confederate flag. In his Message to the Congress at Montgomery, he has called upon that body to give their sanction to this piracy, so that the commerce of the United States is now exposed to depredations from piratical vessels that may be fitted out from the ports of the seceded States, or be found hovering on the coast to plunder our merchantmen. It is consequently the manifest duty of the President of the United States, under the act above cited, to employ all the public armed vessels, and to watch these piratical ports, and guard the coast, so that it shall be impossible for any such vessel to plunder any vessel of the United States.

The Post adds:

The merchants also have full power, under this act, to arm vessels with sufficient force to resist all aggressions, and to capture every Southern privateer that shall attempt to plunder any vessel of the United States. It is therefore unnecessary to discuss the law of blockades, touching the Southern ports. The Proclamation of Mr. Davis has made them all piratical ports, and the right of protecting the commerce of the United States carries with it full power to shut up such ports and guard every inlet and outlet against piratical depredations. This duty the Executive cannot too speedily and efficiently exercise, and it is of much higher importance than retaking captured places or marching into any territory of a seceded State. The law further provides that any person committing piracy shall be tried in the district to which he is brought, and if convicted shall suffer death. We must and will have a free commerce, and let not the Government be one hour longer than is indispensable, in effectually protecting our vessels against the possibility of capture by these maraiders.

Let every merchant vessel be armed,—and arm the richest vessels heavily.

Kindness is the very spirit and soul of religion.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

BOSTON, Thursday, May 9—2:30 P. M. Southern dispatches are voluminous but mainly speculative.

It is reported that by Saturday 15,000 federal troops will be concentrated at Cairo.

4,000 rebels have been despatched North from New Orleans.

General Butler has fortified heights near the Relay House, and in a general order alludes to attempts to poison members of the Massachusetts 6th Regiment, by unauthorized venders of supplies. The order forbids all purchases of provisions from such persons.

Gen. Butler says: "Are our few insane enemies among the loyal men of Maryland prepared to wage war upon us in this manner? Do they know the terrible lesson of warfare they are teaching us? Can they realize the fact that we can put an agent with a sword into every household, armed with this terrible weapon? In view of the terrible consequences of this mode of warfare, if adopted by us, with every sentiment of devotional prayer, may we not exclaim, 'Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do?' Certain it is that another such attempt reasonably authenticated as to the person committing it, will be followed by the swiftest, surest and most condign punishment."

The message of Governor Magoffin to the Kentucky Legislature assumes that the federal government initiated civil war, and is otherwise of a rebellious tone.

General Beauregard is among the missing, and heavy bets are made that he was killed at Fort Sumter.

No official report of the bombardment of Fort Sumter has yet been given.

It is rumored that Pennsylvania troops, with Sherman's battery, will pass through Baltimore to-day; but as the government wisely declines to foreshadow military movements, the report is mere supposition.

ANNAPOLIS, May 8.—The 20th New York Regiment arrived from Perryville this morning. They will proceed to Washington shortly.

The entire line to the Relay House is in possession of our troops.

Gen. Butler is expected here to-day.

Lieut. Crosby of the Navy has arrived here with the light boat formerly stationed off Windmill Point. It was found 12 miles up Great Wyconico river. Her crew escaped, leaving a warm breakfast behind them. Her log showed that three armed Virginia schooners took possession of her three months ago. Lieut. Crosby reports that he saw 200 cavalry on shore, and that the country was arming. The boiler of the tug which towed the light-boat exploded at the mouth of the Petuxent, severely scalding one man. Her crew was transferred to the Thomas Sparks.

The importance of Annapolis as a military depot is daily becoming more apparent, from the immense quantities of stores being received and distributed.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Commercial's Washington dispatches say it is reported that the troops now at Perryville will soon arrive in that city. These reinforcements include Sherman's battery. It is understood they will land on the Baltimore side, when they will be joined by the troops from Harrisburg, and proceed through Baltimore.

A special dispatch from Philadelphia to the Post states that Virginia troops are concentrating in force at Harper's Ferry, and evidently intend to resist the attempt of the Government to repossess itself of that post. A fight is imminent there.

Isaac Moore, who went to Washington as bearer of despatches, had an interview with Secretary Seward, in which he informed him (Seward) of the determined feeling in New York, and of the energetic action expected.

Mr. Seward replied: The people should not be disappointed, and he thought they would be very well satisfied with what would take place in a very few days.

Mr. Moore also had an interview with Postmaster-General Blair, who is represented to have said: Troops will, in all probability, be sent to New Orleans. He (Blair) thinks the war will be short, but it will be spirited and energetic.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—It is reported that ex-Governor Reeder of Kansas, and now of Pennsylvania, is to be appointed a Brigadier General in the army.

Lieut. Jones, who fired the Harper's Ferry arsenal, is to be appointed Assistant Quartermaster General with the rank of Captain.

Four companies of the U. S. Second Cavalry are expected to-morrow from Harrisburg via Gettysburg.

The Virginians are not ready for an attack on Washington. Gen. Lee insists that the State line shall not be crossed by Virginians until they are attacked.

Ross Winan's operations in the way of furnishing the rebels with munitions of war, have been stopped by the Baltimore people, and his establishment is closed.

RELAY HOUSE, Md., May 7.—The Union Committee of Baltimore, twelve in number, on their return from Frederick, where they were sent to protest against the Board of Safety bill, called on Gen. Butler at the Relay House this morning. Mr. Randolph, the Chairman, addressed the General, urging that such measures be adopted as shall enable them to maintain their ground against the rebels.

Gen. Butler replied that he did not like Mr. Lincoln's politics, but he is the official head of the Government, and must be sustained. After that had been accomplished, political differences may be settled; but there must be no American soil which cannot be safely trod by an American soldier.

The Committee appeared to be well satisfied with the result of the interview.

BALTIMORE, May 7.—The troops at the Relay House captured a quantity of grain on the way to mills on the Patapsco, compelling its delivery at Hoxley mills, close to the viaduct, where it can be ground.

Good men have fewest fears. He has but one who fears to do wrong. He has a thousand who has overcome that one.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Grand Jury came in this morning, and returned one bill of indictment. Foster Wight, Postmaster of Westmoreland, and his son, George F. Wight, were then arraigned upon a charge of tampering with a letter sent by a lady of that town to J. B. Starr of Cleveland, Ohio.

The trial commenced early this morning. The case was committed to the jury at half-past one. Wm. H. Y. Hackett for the respondents; Marshall, U.S. Attorney, for the prosecution. Verdict "Not Guilty."

Thos. Savage, Thos. Nelson, John McCafferty and Sam'l Sleeper were then put on trial for piratically serving on board the ship Erie.

The above named respondents convicted at the Court term of voluntarily serving on board the slave ship Erie, were sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and to one year's imprisonment; the term of their past imprisonment to be received as a part of the sentence. Hackett for respondent; Marshall for the prosecution.

THE AMOSKEAG VETERANS turned out on Monday to escort the Mechanics' Phalanx on their departure for Portsmouth. Both Manchester Bands tendered their services. The Veterans were perfectly drenched with rain, but felt fully recompensed by the enjoyment of a half hour in camp at Concord. A bountiful collation was furnished them by Hon. Joseph A. Gilmore, at the Phenix Hotel. After parading the streets of Concord, the Veterans took cars for Manchester, and the battalion marched home in the rain to the tune of "Yankee Doodle."

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The number of deaths in this city for the month of April, was only eight.

Males four—aged 3 months, 16 years, 73, 73.

Females four—aged 10 months, 34 years, 44, 48.

"GATHER THEM IN."—Mr. Robert Bell, the Superintendent of the City Hearse in Portsmouth, on Friday of this week, May 10th, completes his twenty-five years of service in that capacity, and is to resign the situation—to be succeeded, we believe, by Mr. John H. Wendell. What food for reflection does his record for the quarter of a century, present!

WHEELING, Va., May 8.—At a large Union meeting at Kingwood, Preston county, on the 4th inst., Union resolutions were adopted expressive of an unalterable opposition to secession, and favoring a division of the State. Delegates were appointed to the Wheeling Convention.

Nothing has been heard from the Kanawha region. There is a great increase in the Union sentiment of the Western counties. All necessary arrangements are being made for the Convention next Monday.—Fourteen counties have appointed delegates.

A great deal of enthusiasm is manifested over the receipts of 2000 stand good arms which reached here to-day.

DETROIT, Mich., May 8.—The Legislature met in extra session yesterday.

The Governor in his message recommends that the law providing for the raising of two regiments be amended so as to authorize four more, with power to raise ten if needed.

Also that all subsequent enlistments be for three years. He advocates a loan of a million dollars, the bonds to be issued in small amounts so as to enable all of it to be taken in the State. He recommends a law authorizing townships to levy a tax for the support of the families of volunteers. He says all the delusive pretence of the rebels about coercion and invasion of States must be thrown aside, and the full right of federal troops to march at pleasure over every inch of the territory of the United States be put beyond question, and that a State refusing aid is as much guilty of treason as one which makes war.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Several letters of complaint have reached the President from the owners of slaves at Key West against Capt. Meigs for employing slaves to assist him in reinforcing Fort Pickens.—Capt. Meigs has furnished the President with all the facts in the case, and the President fully exonerates him from all blame in the premises, and in his reply to several of them gives them a very severe and caustic reprimand for the positions assumed in their letters towards the government.

☞ A Washington dispatch of May 8th says that a schooner fully armed has been captured off the mouth of the Chesapeake, and taken to Annapolis, by a detachment of the 13th Brooklyn regiment. Two men were captured, the rest escaping in boats.

LOUISEILLE, Ky., May 8.—The Surveyor of Customs here has been instructed to prevent shipment of arms, munitions and provisions to the seceded States, including Tennessee, North Carolina and Arkansas, and to intercept such shipments passing through here.

☞ The Taunton Gazette gives a glowing account of a flag-raising mass meeting at Britannia'ville, Mass., at which Jeremy B. Dennett, Esq., from Portsmouth, presided, and made the speech; accompanied with music, an original ode, &c.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The Third Regiment U. S. Infantry, under Major Shepherd, left by railroad for Washington via Baltimore this morning.

☞ Senator Bayard of Delaware, narrowly escaped a mob in Philadelphia. He denies having been lately at Montgomery.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A gentleman from Richmond reports that the people there are in expectation of an invasion by Federal troops via York river. Every man and boy capable of bearing arms is under orders.

BALTIMORE, May 8.—Gen. Butler tried the range of his battery on the heights near the Relay House, taking for a target an unoccupied old shanty two-thirds of a mile distant, which was struck with great precision.

The City Council have voted to rebuild the bridge at Canton, on the Philadelphia road.

Gov. Hicks states that he neither authorized nor consented to the destruction of the bridges, but left the whole matter in the hands of the Mayor.

PROVIDENCE, May 8.—Mayor Jabez C. Knight and the other incumbents of municipal office were re-elected to-day, without opposition. They were nominated yesterday by a union of all political parties.—The vote was very large.

TRENTON, N. J., May 9.—The Senate amended the loan bill so as to make it read two million instead of one, and passed it.

A bill has been passed in the House authorizing the Governor to raise four regiments for State service, and to purchase 10,000 stand of the best muskets or rifles, and as many field pieces and as much munition of war as he may deem necessary, and to have all flint lock muskets altered to percussion.

☞ Dr. Frank Fuller of this city, has been appointed Quartermaster of the 2d Regiment, and will assume the duties of his post immediately. His successor in the Dental business is Dr. E. B. Goodall, who has been connected with the office for the last two years, and has given entire satisfaction as an operator and has made a favorable impression upon our citizens by his upright and gentlemanly behavior. We wish the highest success to both, in their new relations.

☞ The Mirror says a cow in Amoskeag, N. H., gave birth to a calf which weighed 124 pounds, and had three nostrils, and places for three horns! It died before giving to the world signs of its wind and horned power.

☞ Mr. Sam. R. Glen, special correspondent of the New York Herald, at Pensacola, was arrested in New Orleans on the 30th ult., as a suspicious character, but was released on producing evidence that he was a first class secessionist.

From our Extra of yesterday afternoon.

THE CHAMPION HOSE CARRIAGE MAN. At the commencement of South Carolina's secession, Mr. H. H. Champion, a member of Fountain Engine Co. in Dover, made a wager that if the U. S. flag did not float over Charleston custom house before a certain day, he would draw that Co.'s hose carriage to Portsmouth. Accordingly, on Wednesday last he did it—starting from Dover at five o'clock, and arriving in Portsmouth soon after 8 in the evening. The distance is about 17 miles, over a hilly and "hard road to travel," especially with a load like that. Mr. Champion had a harness made to draw in, and was pretty well tired out when he got through. The hose carriage, we are told, weighed 323 pounds.

Mr. Champion was met at Portsmouth Bridge by the Atlantic Associate Ex-6's, J. E. Rider Foreman, with the Portsmouth Cornet Band, together with the Portsmouth Company of Volunteers, the Goodwin Guards, and Laconia Engine Co., No. 2, who tendered an escort to the Associates on the occasion.

The plucky hero of the occasion was escorted to the Franklin House; and after due refreshment, the Ex-Sixes and their friends highly enjoyed a social dance at Irving Hall. The hall of the Associates was handsomely decorated, and a glory of flags ran across Market street, from which in the evening depended an arch of Chinese lanterns—all very tastefully designed and well carried out. The crowd which gathered to "see the conquring hero come," was immense; and on the whole it seemed quite like a gala day for the whole people, or an ovation to some chieftain returned from successful war or voyage of discovery. Mr. C. will be called the Champion Hoseman after this, sure.

☞ Second Lieutenant P. H. W. Fontane, U. S. M., has been ordered to the command of the Marine Guard on board the U. S. Ship Mississippi, now lying ready for sea at Charlestown, Mass., and is to report there on the 13th inst. Lt. F. has been stationed at the Portsmouth, N. H. Navy Yard only a few months: but his departure will be regretted by a host of friends here. He has devoted much time, of late, in drilling the Volunteer Company known as the Portsmouth Cadets—in this way rendering good service to the young men composing it, and perhaps to the country.

☞ We learn that the uniforms for the 2d Regiment, N. H. Volunteers, were received in this city on Wednesday morning, and that they will be distributed to the recruits forthwith. Hope it is so.

☞ The Concord Company of N. H. Volunteers, which has been quartered at Jefferson Hall in this city, is to be added to the garrison at Fort Constitution. We learn they will enter on duty there to-day.

"He remembered the forgotten," was beautifully said of Howard the philanthropist. It also applies to every man who brings the ameliorations, comforts and enjoyments of life within the reach of persons and classes who are otherwise deprived of their advantages. Especially it may be said of him who laboriously seeks and finds new means of preserving health, "the poor man's capital and rich man's power." We think this eulogium properly applied to J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, the renowned chemist of New England, who, spurning the trodden paths of fame, devotes his entire abilities and requirements to the discovery of Nature's most effective remedies for disease. When the hidden blessing has been revealed, he proceeds to supply it to all mankind alike, through our druggists, at such low prices that poor and rich may alike enjoy its benefits.—Journal and Enquirer, Portland Me.

It is becoming more and more evident every day that a terrible retribution awaits the manufacturers of the unhealthy compounds denominated Saleratus, Baking Powders, &c. Since Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has been introduced, we are happy to state he has and still is working great revolution for good. We would advise all our readers to try one paper, and they will say with us, the half has not been told. Our better half says, "Tell everybody to use it."—Ex. 3td&w

Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in the most distressing cases in all ages.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing, and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it is a merits that the Proprietors do not claim, for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them 'thro' a life policy.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications caused it to falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, this late day; as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occasion to see the travelling greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and my success in effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will persist in an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than a thousand persons who have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subjected to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1820, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by new articles, said to be as good, selling at about half the price. It has ever been vitally tested, and proved extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Bo'ton Olive Branch.

WOULD HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quackish nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin have disappeared by its use. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a beneficial improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1858.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '59.

PROF. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other annoyances. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 55 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, on one fine and very knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IS THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on no emissaries or chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His name is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or took half for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality, he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—his most bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is soldo by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

Morning Chronicle.

FOR THE VOLUNTEERS.—A correspondent suggests that light, square-top caps be made to wear in the South. Also that the habit be introduced, in all the churches, of passing round the contribution box twice or thrice every Sabbath, soliciting only a cent from each contributor, for a common relief fund. Means are now abundant, but there is a probability of a long-continued war;—and this little fund, slowly accumulating, may be the means of accomplishing much in time of need. None can possibly realize its loss—and if not required for the purpose for which it is raised, none will regret having contributed that mite from his weekly gain toward needful winter charities to the poor, to whom it may be transferred.

HOW THE BOSTON LADIES CARRY ON THE WAR.—A paragraph appeared in one of the evening papers inviting ladies to make up shirts for the soldiers. It was being read aloud in one of the family circles of that city, when the tea-bell rang. At the table one of the ladies said, addressing three or four gentlemen of the group, "Will you give us a piece of flannel if we will make it up?" "Yes, yes," was the quick reply; and before ten the next forenoon, scissors were cutting and needles flying. The next day a "bee" was summoned; a day or two more, and the family "bee" expanded into an organized sewing-circle. On May 2d, two weeks after, there had been cut, made, packed and sent off, the following garments: 2,124 flannel drawers, 876 flannel shirts, 2,500 cotton shirts.

In addition to the above, there went forth from the same company, partly made by them, and partly sent to them for distribution, the following articles:—2,526 handkerchiefs, 426 towels, 432 pairs of socks, 138 work-bags, 888 pin cushions, 156 needle books. A prodigious industry, truly! Are we as diligently caring for our boys?

☞ It having been reported on the arrival of the Concord company of Volunteers in this city, that they had been engaged in a fight with a Dover company in Concord—we deem it best to state the facts in the case, as reported to us on the best authority. The Concord company numbered D. in Camp, and the Dover company J.—the Companies taking their rations alphabetically, as is usual. Well, it was reported that the Concord Company was to be detached from the 1st Regiment, and ordered to join the 2d at Portsmouth; and before this was done, the Dover Company endeavored to crowd out the Concord Company, from obtaining rations in their turn—and a fight ensued. Now, although fighting is the legitimate business of soldiers, yet it seems better to refer to "the authorities" to settle all such domestic matters as this, rather than put them to the bull-dog test.

TO THE POINT.—At the late session of the Wyoming (N. Y.) Conference, the following substitute was offered and passed, instead of a resolution to adopt the report of last year on slavery:—

Whereas, Divine Providence has taken the work of emancipation into his own hands, therefore

Resolved, That we stand still and see the salvation of God.

THE "ISCARIOT GUARDS" is one of the names suggested for the company in Louisiana to be commanded by Senator Benjamin.

HOW MARYLAND HAS BEEN SAVED.—By troops of Northern friends.—Trans.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabric, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but some part or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 11.

☞ Late London papers express surprise that nobody was killed in the forts opposite to Fort Sumter, when the forts themselves were stove to pieces.

In reply to an inquiry, a day or two since, Major Anderson said that he thought the reports in the New York papers about the numbers killed at Morris Island by the Sumter fire are exaggerated; yet he also thinks that quite a number were killed, and deems it very likely that the South Carolina authorities would try to keep the fact from public knowledge.

Yes, indeed, quite likely, that the same powers which lied and swindled their friends into a dismal rebellion, and pressed some of their opponents into these posts of danger, would lie about their slain.

Their lie-abilities, however, in this case, turn out to be a little too big for belief;—like a bullet too big for the gun barrel,—they don't go down.

John Bull is surprised now, that nobody was killed: very well: when he gets the next papers he will see that some have been killed, beyond a doubt, and probably a great many. Then he will make up his mind to believe nothing that comes from the Confederacy, hereafter.

A WORD OF CAUTION.—Messrs. Editors:—In these days of public excitement, when the salvation of this country depends upon the unanimity of the North, it would be well for every Union-lover, to drop politics, for the present at least, and erase party lines, so to secure a united North.

The habit which some men have of throwing out insinuating remarks in reference to the causes which led to the present condition of national affairs, is bad in its tendency, and should not be practiced.—For example,—one man says that the democratic party is the sole cause of the War, to prove which assertion the corruption of the last Administration is cited. Another says the Abolitionists are the primary cause of all this trouble; and a third asserts that upon the Republican party rests the responsibility; for the triumph of the latter in the election of their candidate, sundered the Union.

Now, admitting the truth of either or all of these statements, and then we ask, what of it? What good would be accomplished, in the case of a party of persons who, in sailing a boat across our river, get capsized, and while struggling in the water, an assuming magi appears on the wharf and exclaims, "I knew it would upset; and your foolhardiness has met its reward!"—Would'nt it be wiser for the man to jump overboard and help rescue the drowning persons, instead of taunting them by this unnecessary reproof?

We trust that thinking, sensible men will "hang up" for a while, their old, bigoted partizan ideas, bury the political hatchet, and rally around the standard of the Union, with the determination to support and defend it to the last. Harmony, union of sentiment is what is to be desired, and should be considered paramount to every selfish political principle.

Remember! that with a united North the Union must and will stand; divided, it will surely fall. Strive, then, to perpetuate it. UNIONIST.

A BULLET STAYED.—A brother of ex-Mayor Saunders of Lawrence, a member of the Lawrence company, who was in the fight at Baltimore, on unbuttoning his coat at night, discovered a bullet to drop from his clothes on his left side. He had stowed away some towels and small articles of clothing under his coat, and to the protection thus afforded he probably owes the preservation of his life, from the bullet. He says that during the fight he saw a ruffian fire a carbine at one of the soldiers standing near him, who fell. He immediately took deliberate aim with his musket at the assailant, and brought him down at the first fire.

SENATOR MASON IN A "TIGHT PLACE." Senator Mason, the rebel Virginia Senator, possesses through his wife, a property of great value in Philadelphia; and in view of his treason toward the National Government, it is proposed in the Pennsylvania Legislature to confiscate the estate to the Commonwealth. The Senator may yet find rebellion a costly game in more ways than one.

UNION IN VIRGINIA.—There is much more of a disposition prevalent to distrust reports of a Union sentiment in Virginia, than there is to put confidence in them.—Yet it would not be difficult to believe that a Union feeling would be developed through the occupation of several important positions in that State by U. S. troops. A little of the Maryland process would remove much prejudice, and a great deal more restraint which the secession leaders now exercise over the people.

☞ The message of the Governor of Kentucky indicates the intention of that State to leave the Union. In Kentucky as in Missouri, it is not a question whether they shall refuse to act with the government at Washington, but whether they should unite with the cotton States. Those who have been Union men only ask for neutrality, and it is doubtful if they can obtain even that.

"A SOLDIER'S LIFE IS ALWAYS GAY." The companies who saved the glorious old frigate Constitution from the Virginia rebels and brought her to New York, enjoyed a furlough of forty-eight hours in the city, and are in the best of spirits. They are under command of Commodore Rogers, who commends them highly for their discipline and pluck.

☞ Young Morrill, the well-known stallion of Manchester, has been matched for three trots with Flyaway of Taunton. The first will take place at Saugus, Mass, on the 21st of May, to harness, for a purse of $500 a side: mile heats, best three in five.

☞ The Louisville Journal states that Governor Magoffin, the traitorous Chief Magistrate of Kentucky, has recently raised a large sum of money from private individuals and sent it South. The banks still refuse to let him have money.

☞ An article, from the Richmond Whig, seems to indicate that there are fears that Richmond cannot be defended, and that, therefore, it had better be burned by its own citizens.

THE FIST GUN.—An election was held in Washington county, in this State, to fill a vacancy in the Legislature, on last Saturday. The secession candidate very prudently declined to run, but the Union candidate received 4000 votes out of the whole number of the county, which was about 5000 at the last election. This is about a fair sample of the sentiment of Maryland.—Baltimore Patriot.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Sherman's battery of Flying Artillery, a Philadelphia regiment of volunteers, and five companies of U. S. Infantry, have arrived. They were cheered on their passage through Baltimore.

Capt. Engle and another officer have gone to Europe to purchase gunboats.

Forces in large numbers are concentrating at Alexandria, with heavy ordnance, with the intention of fortifying themselves as a systematic approach to this city.

The object of the concentration of troops at Harper's Ferry is to draw off a portion of the forces from Washington.

Wigfall, in a letter, says 100,000 Southerners are on the way to Washington, and Lincoln and his Cabinet will be captured before the middle of June, and Wigfall himself intends to winter in Philadelphia.

BALTIMORE, May 9.—This afternoon Washington Goodrich and Wm. H. Quincy, two prominent rioters, left for Virginia with 55 men in the Norfolk boat.

This morning the telegraph operators on the Northern Central Road were dismissed, and others acting under the government were placed in charge.

☞ Rev. O. J. Fernald, a Uniturian clergyman at Thomaston, landed at Rockland Tuesday morning from the Daniel Webster from Portland in a state of great exhaustion, having left Boston on Monday in apparent health. He was taken to a hotel and medical attendance secured, but all efforts to save his life were unavailing, and he died the same evening.

Occasional travellers from Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina, bring information that there is a fearful condition of things financially, socially in that quarter. Every effort is made to conceal the fact, but bankruptcy and beggary are inevitable.

☞ It is said that Queen Victoria has sunk into settled melancholy since the death of her mother, and that it is feared she will not recover her mind. In consequence, drawing-room receptions have been put off till the end of June.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Herald's New Orleans special dispatch says that 3000 applications for letters of marque have been received, many of them from foreign States.

One little item which North Carolina loses by her secession proclivities, is the sale of pitch pine kindlings to New York, which was worth a million of dollars to her.

RUTLAND, VT., May 9.—The Vermont Regiment of 850 men left to-day for the seat of war. They will arrive in New York late to-night.

Abstemiousness and frugality are the best bankers. They show a handsome interest, and never dishonor a draft that is drawn on them by their humblest customers.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Great urgency has been applied to the Secretary of State to publish the instructions to Mr. Adams, Minister to London, but he declines.

The recently published instructions to Mr. Dayton are understood to be an index to the entire European correspondence. The temper, spirit and purpose have been the same in all cases.

It is stated that the government has received from Mr. Dallas, minutes of his interview with the English Minister of Foreign Affairs, and on these the instructions to Mr. Adams are based. The result of careful inquiry justifies the assertion that there is no indication or prospect of a recognition of the Confederate States by any of the foreign powers, against the protest of the administration.

Mr. Preston's next dispatches from Spain, in reply to a demand for explanation relative to St. Domingo, also about the recognition of the Confederate States, are looked for with much interest. Mr. Preston, although a Kentuckian, is loyal, and is understood to be acting in such a manner as to meet the approbation of the administration.

All the foreign Ministers are daily making anxious enquiries about the blockade, but not a word of complaint has been uttered by any of them.

UNION SENTIMENT IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—GEN. BEAUREGARD HEARD FROM. We have reliable intelligence from Charleston to the 28th ult., from a staunch friend to the Union, who was obliged to conceal his sentiments while in that city, for fear of losing his life.

He states that he is acquainted with fifty men in that city who are equally strong Union men, but who would be hung in ten minutes were their real sentiments known. He allowed no one to know of his intended departure from Charleston.

There was a great scarcity of provisions. Butter sold at $1 per pound, and pork at 37 cents. Starvation was the enemy most dreaded.

He has seen General Beauregard at Charleston within two weeks.

The people are kept purposely in ignorance of the feelings and doings at the North. The South Carolinians rely upon anarchy in the northern States, and are extensively circulating stories of bread riots and similar troubles.

As regards the number killed by the fire from Fort Sumter, he thinks no doubt from fifteen to twenty-five persons lost their lives, but there was no actual knowledge that such was the fact.

When the Star of the West was fired on, he states that there was only a few rounds of ammunition at Cummings Point, and that she could probably have landed her troops and ammunition in safety, had she proceeded up the harbor.

As may be imagined, the gentleman from whom we obtained this information was perfectly astonished at the unanimity of feeling in the North, and the tremendous preparations for the conflict, this state of things being so directly opposite to what he had been led to believe while in Charleston.—Atlas.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 9.—A conference was held at Frankfort, yesterday, between Gov. Magoffin, J. C. Breckinridge and R. Harris, on the one part, and Hon. J. C. Crittenden, Hon. Archibald Dixon and Judge Nicholas on the other, who agreed to recommend the Legislature to make an appropriation to arm Kentucky under the direction of a military commission composed of the Governor and Inspector General, and another to be chosen by the Unionists. Three millions will be required to arm the State.

The House yesterday passed a resolution asking the Governor to communicate the names of the agents employed to purchase arms, the amount, character and number of such arms, and if received what disposition made thereof.

In the Senate Mr. Simpson introduced a resolution that the Governor be requested to issue a proclamation forthwith, prohibiting the passage of armed bodies from Tennessee or elsewhere through Kentucky to attack Cairo.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 9.—The House to-day unanimously passed the three millions loan bill.

It raises 15 regiments beyond both requisitions of the President, making a total of 55 regiments. Only eight members of the House were absent.

Four companies of cavalry, which marched from Carlisle Barracks on Monday, passed unmolested through Maryland, and have reached Gen. Scott's lines.

An act for the immediate relief of volunteers now in service, and to pay the bills contracted before the Quartermaster's department was organized, has passed and been signed by the Governor.

A gentleman sent from this State to South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky, reports that there are 25,000 troops in the radius of fifty miles of Richmond. About 15,000 troops were in Tennessee and Kentucky, whose supposed destination was Cairo.

WHEELING, Va., May 9.—To-day was strictly observed as fast day. Patriotic sermons in nine out of the twelve churches were delivered. The Methodist pulpit was decorated with the American flag, and the pastor said he would hold no fellowship with traitors, and if there was any secessionist in the congregation he wanted him to leave. Others prayed that the rebels might be subdued or wiped from the face of the earth.

One company of volunteers were sworn into the federal service to-day, and others will be to-morrow.

FREDERICK, Md., May 9.—Another company of Baltimore volunteers for Harper's Ferry passed through this place this evening.

Several steam transports from Perryville landed some two thousand troops at Locust Point this afternoon, and took the cars for the Relay House. The residents at Locust Point viewed the troops with evident satisfaction.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A third regiment from Kentucky has offered its services, and will form a part Col. Anderson's brigade.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, MASS., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the Oxygenated Bitters. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of rare merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine "Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, (HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE,) prepared by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y.,) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it to merit all the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

G. W. WALLACE,

SEWING MACHINE.

One of SINGER & CO'S. SEWING MACHINES, warranted perfect, will be Let or Sold cheap, on application at Exchange Hall, Chronicle Building, immediately.

Local.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

For $1.50 we will furnish the Daily Chronicle (either Edition) from this time to Jan. 1st, 1862.

☞ The friends of Lt. Fontane, in Portsmouth—chiefly members of the Company of Cadets, who appreciate his services as Captain,—have presented him with an elegant Revolver. The pistol is one of Whitney's improved, and was furnished by Mr. Charles T. Emery.

☞ The Dover Daily Union says, "persons travelling between that place and South Berwick, will do well to take a ride with friend Butler. A trip over this road is a luxury." He also attends to the Express business in all its branches." His office in Portsmouth is with Jackson & Co.'s Express. See his advertisement on the 4th page.

☞ Hon. Jeremiah S. Young, formerly Agent of the Portsmouth Steam Mill, died in Fall River April 29th, aged 52 years.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

☞ The Second Regiment of N. H. Volunteers, now in Camp Constitution at Portsmouth, consists of thirteen Companies; comprising 982 men, as follows:

From Milford	94	Lancaster	78
Laconia	73	Littleton	70
Claremont	83	Portsmouth	100
Conway	36	Great Falls	81
Concord	77

Keene, 2 Companies, 71 & 78.
Manchester, 2 Companies, 64 & 77.

The Great Falls, Concord and Conway Companies, 194 men, are at Fort Constitution,—most delightful summer quarters.—The main portion of the Regiment are in Barracks at the Ropewalk, and have good accommodations and the best of fare and attention. The officers occupy a house near, and "fare" with the men.

☞ Dr. Hubbard of Manchester, a physician of eminence, is Surgeon of the 2d Regiment N. H. V.; and Dr. Greeley of Hollis, Assistant Surgeon. The house owned and recently occupied by Mr. Joseph Holmes, on South street, is used as a Hospital, where there has been at one time as many as twenty soldiers on the sick list—though none seriously ill.

☞ The "Stars and Stripes" were hoisted on the Portsmouth Steam Factory, this day, (Friday, May 10,) at a quarter before 1 o'clock. The flag-pole is forty feet in height above the roof, and the flag is twenty-four feet in length. It is placed on the centre of the roof.

After the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by a choir composed of the operatives of the mill, brief and appropriate speeches were made by W. H. Y. Hackett, Esq., Dr. Hubbard of Manchester, Surgeon of the Second Regiment of N. H. Volunteers, and Major Fuller of the same Regiment.

☞ Among the exercises at the exhibition of Harvard College, May 7, we notice the following:—

A Disquisition. "The Statesman and the Politician." Frank Warren Hackett, of Portsmouth.

A Dissertation. "The Stability of English Institutions." Charles Christie Salter, of Portsmouth.

☞ Mr. U. Harvey Jenness of Rye, on Thursday dug out a nest of four young foxes, about as big as cats; which he gave in charge of Mr. Thomas Philbrick, who lives at the old Philbrick mansion near the Ocean House. Mr. P. had five before;—and now has a flock of nine foxes, which he is taming.

☞ Rev. Charles Nichols will preach at the Pearl street church to-morrow.

It is becoming more and more evident every day that a terrible retribution awaits the manufacturers of the unhealthy compounds denominated Saleratus, Baking Powders, &c. Since Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has been introduced, we are happy to state he has and still is working great revolution for good. We would advise all our readers to try one paper, and they will say with us, the half has not been told. Our better half says, "Tell everybody to use it."—Ex. 3td&w

EDWARD B. GOODALL,
DENTIST,
NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET, PORTSMOUTH.

DR. GOODALL, having purchased the extensive Dental Establishment of DR FRANK FULLER, announces to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity, that he is confident that he can give perfect satisfaction in all operations in Dentistry. Having become thoroughly acquainted with Dr. Fuller's method of practice, and having operated for a large number of Dr. Fuller's patrons, he respectfully solicits their further patronage.

I refer the public to the following testimonial from Dr. Fuller:

"I take pleasure in recommending Dr. E. B. Goodall as my successor in business, and can cheerfully recommend him to the public as a skillful operator and an honorable man, whose gentlemanly bearing cannot fail to surround him with friends, and whose professional qualifications will ensure him success.

feb2 J. & H. ELDREDGE

From our Extra of yesterday afternoon.

BOSTON, Friday, May 10—2:30 P. M. Steamship Niagara is blockading Charleston harbor.

Steamer Illinois, from Fort Pickens 2d inst., reports strong naval force off Pensacola, and Pickens impregnable to rebel forces which numbered 8000.

It is reported that St. Louis is invested by rebels, but there are in that city 8000 Union men, commanded by F. P. Blair, Jr.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued an order forbidding transportation of provisions and munitions of war down the Mississippi.

The Maryland legislative committee on federal relations have made a treasonable report.

Federal troops are concentrating around Baltimore.

Ninety-four members of the Baltimore City Guard have been arrested by the picket guard of the Massachusetts troops in attempting to join the Virginia rebels.—They will be tried for treason.

Railroad communication from Philadelphia to Washington will be completed to-night. Gen. Harney is acting in conjunction with Gen. Butler.

Gen. Beauregard is alive and has made official report of the capture of Fort Sumter, and denies that anybody was killed.

BLOCKADE.—The Norfolk Herald says the blockade of that harbor includes every conceivable avenue of approach to it—from the broad bosomed Chesapeake and its noble rivers, to the creeks and coves that form their tributaries. The Baltimore and James River boats have been stopped, and no steamer is permited to run between Norfolk and Hampton. The Herald is very desirous that some plan should be devised to waylay and sink the blockading squadron.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—An examination to-day resulted in the commitment of policeman Evans for killing Howard last night. The testimony showed the killing to have been deliberate and unprovoked.—The prompt action of Gen. Mansfield prevented a serious riot on the part of the indignant troops against the police.

James C. Sloo has been appointed Surveyor of Customs at Cairo; J. C. Havens Postmaster at Chicopee, and W. H. DeCosta Postmaster at Charleston, Mass.

Hundreds of ladies of character and refinement, and actuated by motives of charity and patriotism, have offered their services to the War Department as nurses, etc. Letters from such volunteers will be referred to acting Surveyor General Wood, who will direct the proper answers.

Ellsworth's Zouaves will to-morrow encamp on the Insame Asylum heights, overlooking the Potomac. Their popular commander speaks in commendation of their general conduct and improved discipline.—Only ten have been deemed unworthy to be members.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 9.—Military men from Cairo report that no apprehensions need be entertained for the safety of that place. Heavy ordnance is the only thing needed to make the place impregnable, and that is expected to arrive soon. There are five batteries, having a sweep of three miles on the Mississippi and two miles on the Ohio river. The heavy ordance when received will be planted so as to command Bird Point on the Missouri shore, the only practicable site for batteries offensive to Cairo.

FREDERICK, May 8.—Two companies of volunteers for the secession army, from Baltimore, passed through this place at 10 o'clock this morning, on their way to Virginia, under command of Captains Welmore and Price. They were unarmed. They stopped at Liberty last night; their approach created much alarm here.

The secessionists marched through the city protected by General Shriver and the Sheriff. The appearance of the men created deep excitement, but there was no outbreak on their way, their worn and tattered condition exciting rather more ridicule than indignation.

MONTGOMERY, via New Orleans, May 9. Congress is in secret session and is understood to be engaged in arranging vigorous prosecution of the war, and placing the Confederacy in the best possible condition of defence. It is also understood that they control sufficient arms, ordnance and ammunition of every description to put 150,000 men into the field for a year's campaign.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 9.—An officer from the Chambersburg camp brings intelligence that the Virginians seized, on Tuesday night, the heights on the Maryland side of the Potomac, and were engaged in fortifying them. The number of regular troops was nearly 6000, which was increased by the arrival of 1200 Kentuckians.

TORONTO, C. W., May 9.—Steamer Peerless has been bought by the United States government for $40,000. She will leave next week for New York, via Quebec and Halifax. She is an iron steamer, light draft.

NEW HAMPSHIRE VOLUNTEERS.

An appeal is hereby made to the Ladies of Portsmouth, and all friends of the Volunteers, to furnish Cotton Comforters, Sheets, (old or new,) and Pillow Cases, for the use of the Hospital.

A supply of these articles is much needed, and the benevolent citizens who are able to present them, are requested to leave their contributions at the Old Post Office Building, Daniel Street. HENRY O. KENT.

Adj. General's Office, May 8.

LIFE INSURANCE.
"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,
Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues
POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.
POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.
PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.
The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.
The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.
No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

The "Constitution" Safe.—That fine old frigate of 44 guns, built in Boston sixty-two or three years ago, when the elder Adams was President, was in more danger the other day at Annapolis, than the Capital. She has been kept alive for her name's sake, tho' perhaps now possessing scarcely a single stick or plank of the original. We remember the sensation at her launching, and the thousands present, amongst whom was the President, the elder Adams. And who does not either remember, or has not paused in reading the history of her first great exploit, the capture by her of the Java, in the war of 1812, and her second, the capture of the Cyane and Levant, two 20 gun ships. She was stationed at Annapolis for the accommodation of the naval school for midshipmen.—One of our powerful steam frigates took her in tow, and brought her safe into New York. She has since arrived at Newport, R. I. and will probably come to Portsmouth Navy Yard to take in her armament, if taken into sea service.

DANGEROUS CASUALTY.—On Friday afternoon of last week, the second son of Mr. William G. Cole, on Dennett street, about four years of age, when walking in the yard, whittling with a knife, stumbled and the blade entered his neck to the depth of two inches. The blood spirted out in a stream, and before medical assistance was obtained a large quantity had flowed away. The knife did not enter the jugular vein or the windpipe, and although the case at first looked hopeless, under the attention of Dr. Laighton he was restored to consciousness. The wound is healing, and he is now regarded out of danger.

N. Y. LEDGER.—This week's number of the New York Ledger contains the commencement of an Original Novellette, entitled "The Hunted Felon, or the Fortune Teller of Lynn." In New Hampshire we need scarcely say more than announce the name of Mrs. C. E. Gerry, but we believe that this Romance will far exceed in power and beauty the prize story which won her such laurels while yet in her teens.

BEAUTIFUL RAINBOW.—Since the arch which spanned the heavens after the flood, we doubt whether there has been a more magnificent display of the Rainbow than was seen in Portsmouth on Wednesday last, from half past six to seven P. M.

Sunday at sunrise the thermometer again fell below the freezing point in this city, the fourth morning in succession!—a series of cold mornings in May altogether unprecedented here within 37 years, and probably many more.

On Saturday forenoon snow fell on Cape Cod and at New Bedford to the depth of 2 inches, and in New York there was "a dreary, cold rain, accompanied by some snow and hail."

OCCULTATION OF THE PLANET MARS.—On Sunday evening next, 12th, at quarter before 8 o'clock, the Planet Mars will be eclipsed by the Moon, under very favorable circumstances here.

Jonathan Dearborn has been appointed Naval Officer.

Three of the following four gentlemen will be Inspectors: Joseph D. Pillow, John N. Frost, C. C. Whittemore, of Portsmouth, Aaron Young, of Dover.

Foxwell C. Staples has been appointed Porter and Watchman.

The Governor of California has commissioned Dr. GEORGE G. BREWSTER, of this city, Commissioner of deeds, administering oaths, etc., in New Hampshire, to be used or recorded in the State of California.

From the N. H. Gazette.

THE UNIFORM FOR THE 2D REGIMENT. The Quartermaster's department opposite our office, is now well supplied with clothing and equipments for the second Regiment, and they will soon be distributed to the troops. The articles to be furnished to each soldier are as follows: Grey coat and pants, grey overcoat, grey fatigue cap, two flannel shirts, one pair of flannel drawers, one extra pair of socks, one pair of shoes and one large camp blanket.—They will be armed with the plain percussion musket. The other equipments to be furnished them are cartridge box, scabbard, cap box, and india rubber knapsack, haversack and canteen, and utensils for cooking and eating.

The blankets have already been delivered, and to some companies the flannel shirts. When the men are clothed in uniform dress the general appearance of the Regiment will be greatly improved, and we feel confident that the honor of the State will be maintained with credit at the hands of these patriotic men who have so promptly answered their country's call. They already exhibit commendable proficiency in the performance of the duties of their new profession.

QUARTERMASTER.—Col. T. P. Pierce Commander of the Second Regiment N. H. Volunteers, has appointed Dr. Frank Fuller of this city, Quartermaster of the Regiment. The duties to be performed are complicated and numerous, and will call into active exercise all those energies which have rendered Dr. Fuller so successful in his business during his residence in Portsmouth. Among the duties devolving upon this office may be enumerated the following: "Providing the quarters and transportation of troops; storage and transportation of all supplies; horses for transportation of all kinds; clothing, camp and garrison equipage, fuel, forage, straw and stationery."

LIBERAL OFFER OF MONEY.—We are informed by Governor Goodwin, that the several sums offered by the different banks of this State to assist in preparing for service the troops required by the President, amount in the aggregate to $608,000. This sum does not include a conditional tender of $20,000 which was received from the Cashier of one of the State Banks.

THE PROPOSITIONS from neutral Statesmen and others to settle the issue between the rebels and the Government, by mediation and negotiation, have their precedent in the mild old gentleman, who, when a ball from one of the muskets fired by the British troops, at the massacre in State street, 1770, hit the side of the door where he was standing, "just above his head, gently remarked, "Really! those soldiers ought to be talked to!"—Boston Transcript.

☞ It is stated that one of the Massachusetts soldiers at Baltimore, who was mortally wounded and bled to death, while in the last struggles stood erect, raised his right hand toward heaven and exclaimed,—All hail the Stars and Stripes!" and expired instantly.

At the South the rebels hang loyal men. At the North we only make disloyal men hang—out the stars and stripes.—Trans.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OATLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & CO. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, my blood has been from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and disclosed itself in the vitals. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathesome to behold. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was reduced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Fredericksburgh and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the sores, which dried and fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel well when I say to you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 24th Sept., 1859, that he has used your Sarsaparilla in his Erysipelas, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Scaly Eruption by large doses of the same: says he cures the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured my wife from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Weakness.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla an excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I am saying what I tell scores of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 24th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were commencing to slough and eat the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and had already lost and eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But I yielded to my admiration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfigurement to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pains in her joints and limbs. She was cured entirely by your sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

FREDERICKSBURG, Spotsylvania Co., Va., 5th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than I was before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried your Sarsaparilla, which failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Dr. Post, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but we have not room to call attention to them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who may call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the physicians of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the virtues of the earth. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized world of the earth. For years the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its efficacy—some living trophy to their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs—are few indeed. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues it did when making the cures which have won it so strongly into the confidence of mankind.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks my scalp was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, as they are so far as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occasionally time to travel, visiting the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs, and it astonishes me that people will continue an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you now were living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care Box No. 1920, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal commendation of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities from the scalp, injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements could be cured anywhere wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be favorable; as the composition of it is such as not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '50.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff, which I succeeded from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and since using it the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used a great deal of hair oil, I have no more hair than I have had since I was a boy, a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My hair is now of the same color as it was in me keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IS THE TRUE.—Prof. Wood stands in an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His name is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he put up with he gave to the world. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring a pure Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy of the genuine Cognac and Alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a medicinal stimulant, which all other immedies fail, we are now bottling and selling responsible rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy,"

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character;—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever.—Persons who require Pure Liquors and Wines, in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite. It relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1859. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND.

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled
Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MAUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting]

POISONED WHISKEY.—The Boston Post says:

There is good evidence for the belief that a mean and cowardly attempt has been made to poison the members of Capt. Porter D. Tripp's company of volunteers. On Wednesday afternoon some person sent a bottle of whiskey into the quarters, and all the men that drank thereof, thirteen in number, were made quite sick, so that the services of a physician were required. The companies under the command of Capts. Allen and Gordon, of the same regiment, also received a bottle of liquor, and those who drank from it were made very sick.

We saw a couple of young men on Saturday, who had been poisoning themselves with whiskey, or something of that kind—and who will probably not live long—tho' naturally very healthy.

☞ The Missouri brigade of Militia, which have just surrendered, were nothing more nor less than a secession army, under a very thin disguise,—and had received at their camp, from the Cotton Confederacy, under its flag, large supplies and materials of war, most of which are known to be the property of the United States.

Such collisions, and much greater ones, may be expected in all the half-seceding States. Those who are not for the Union are against it. There are no neutrals now.

☞ The Baltimore Patriot is informed by a gentleman who came up from Richmond on Saturday, that there were 3000 soldiers quartered there, and that provisions were very scarce; that if he could be allowed to take a few thousand dollars' worth he could double his money easily. Coffee was selling at fifty cents per pound, and sugar at twenty-five cents, and other things in the same proportion.

☞ Thomas Winans, of Baltimore, has written a letter denying the statement that he had ever tendered the half-million loan reported to the insurgents; and declaring that the assertion in regard to manufacturing steam cannon for them is equally unfounded. With regard to the casting of cannon, balls and grape-shot, he adds, the assertion is so far true that the same establishment was, with others in Baltimore, employed by the city authorities to furnish these articles.

☞ Gov. Harris of Tennessee has ordered the seizure of $75,000 in Tennessee bonds, and $5000 in cash, belonging to the United States, of the Collector of Nashville. The property is to be held in trust until the Government restores the property of the State and its citizens, involved in the seizure of the steamer Hillman by troops of the Federal Government at Cairo.

TROOPS AT HARPER'S FERRY.—Harrisburg, Pa., May 18. A letter received by an officer in the U. S. Army, from a friend, formerly an officer in our army, and now an officer in the Confederate States, says that most of the troops at Harper's Ferry are provided with inferior arms, and badly provisioned by a mean commissariat.

Flour was selling at $25 per barrel. He thinks the chances for a successful issue in the contest, of the Confederate States with the federal government, are very bad, but is determined, however, to stick to their waning fortunes.

He believes that an attack by anything like an adequate amount of federal forces upon Harper's Ferry must be successful.—The writer has seen twenty years' service, and is considered an officer of great skill.—The letter is dated May 8th.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The Tribune has advices from Tennessee which indicate a terrible struggle on the question of secession, at the July election, and it may end in civil war between the Union men and the traitors.

There are 650 rebel troops in Alexandria, by actual count.

Intelligence has been received by the Government of an outbreak in Frederick, Md., and invoking, in behalf of Gov. Hicks, immediate aid from the government.

Another regiment is to be raised in Rhode Island.

The Cabinet has decided to sustain the Union men in Virginia, Tennessee and Missouri, with a prompt and efficient force.

Montgomery papers state that Jeff Davis' dinner in the White House at Washington, is postponed.

Some poet defines "beautiful extract" to be, helping a young lady out of a mud puddle. This is almost as bad as the wit of Hartley Coleridge, who being asked which of Wordsworth's productions he considered the best, answered—"His daughter Dora."

FLORIDA.—In the case of two Boston vessels in Florida, each of which had a fine colored crew, the crews were taken out and placed in prison. It was then falsely reported that the prison was broken open—the keepers showing the broken locks to the masters. But the men were chained and marched all night to plantations, where their keepers tried to sell them. The planters were afraid of the title, and refused. The poor fellows were then marched to a seaport and released.—Some of them have found means to return home, fortunate in their escape from slavery.—Boston Journal.

☞ The Committee on Federal Relations, in the Maryland Legislature, has made a miserable report, in favor of the peaceful secession,—and the lamblike men who have seceded;—but the report very wisely closing by saying that "under existing circumstances, it is inexpedient to call a sovereign convention, or to take measures for organizing the militia."

☞ The President by general order directs all officers of the army, except those who entered the service since the first of April, to take and subscribe anew the oath of allegiance to the United States. It is calculated that at least 300,000 volunteers have tendered their services to the government.

☞ A Union company is reported to be forming in Winchester, Va., Mason's district.—A letter from Tennessee says it is reported that five negroes were hung at Winchester on the 1st inst., for attempting to burn their masters' property.

☞ A rigger from New London, Ct., who was in Charleston during the assault on Fort Sumter, furnishes the New York Tribune with a statement that he saw not less than 150 bodies removed in the night, which came from the forts.

☞ There appears to be some trouble in New Orleans in getting the subscribers to the Confederate loan to pay up. The commissioners advertise in the papers of the 4th inst., requesting the takers to walk up to the captain's office and settle.

☞ A recent letter from Pensacola says Bragg's forces got a small installment of their pay last week, and they have been three-fourths drunk ever since.

☞ David H. Todd, Esq., of Kentucky, brother-in-law of President Lincoln, has received an appointment as First Lieutenant in the Confederate army.

☞ A cow belonging to James Dodge, of Bethel, one day last week, broke into his sugar orchard and drank nearly two pailsfull of syrup and other sweets. She died in a short time after.

☞ A fire is said to have swept through the woods in Cape May county, N. J., destroying about 30,000 acres of young and fine timber.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Major Beale, Captains Blair and Johnson, and Lieutenants Ramsom and Howard, of the federal army, have resigned.

The Belgian Consul denies having made a contract to supply the Confederate States with arms.

The entrance of the channel at Pensacola bay has been obstructed by sinking vessels entering.

The Herald's special Wheeling dispatch says thirty counties will be represented on Monday in the Convention.

Two companies have been mustered into the United States service at Wheeling. Two thousand Maynard rifles have been sent there by the Government. The Convention will probably elect a Governor, members of the Legislature, United States Senators and Representatives, and act in all respects as if a sovereign State. The secessionists will be invited to leave.

Washington dispatch reports much rejoicing at the peaceable passage of the troops through Baltimore yesterday.

Trains will commence running on the Northern and Central Railroad Monday.

The Baltimore Sun counsels the State to remain loyal.

The main blockading force will be stationed in the Gulf, another portion off Georgia, and a third off Virginia and the Carolinas.

Col. Fauntleroy of the Dragoons has resigned.

The Ohio troops have been ordered to Zanesville, opposite Wheeling.

Fort Washington, below Alexandria, on the Maryland shore, is to be additionally armed.

The Key West correspondent of the Express states that barque R. H. Gamble arr there 3d, from Mobile, reports she was fired at from Fort Morgan, below Mobile, and afterwards overhauled by a rebel propeller, when she was surrendered and taken to the fort. Subsequently, orders were issued for her release, and she sailed, after many annoyances.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.]—The government continues to be overwhelmed with offers of naval and land forces for service against the rebels. Prominent men from all parts of the country are constantly coming here for the purpose of tendering aid. Over fifty vessels have already been offered from the New England States, to be armed and equipped at the owners' expense. Parties representing the owners of propellers navigating the Northern lakes propose to bring their crafts down the St. Lawrence to the Atlantic shore, and assist in the blockade of the Southern ports.

To prevent domestics breaking anything—keep a cat in the house, and you will never hear of anything being broken by the servants.

LATEST NEWS!

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE CHRONICLE.

California dates are to May 1. Great excitement in San Francisco about the war news; secession flags were torn down, and secessionists few and quiet. An immense Union demonstration is to be made.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The President has issued a proclamation setting forth that an insurrection exists, by which the lives, liberty and property of loyal citizens are endangered; and as it is deemed proper that all needful measures should be taken for the protection of such citizens, all officers of the United States in the discharge of their duties in that State, the President directs the commander of the U. S. forces on the Florida coast to permit no person to exercise any office or authority on the islands of Key West, the Tortugas and Santa Rosa, which may be inconsistent to the laws and constitution of the United States, and authorizing him at the same time, if he shall find it necessary, to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and remove from the vicinity of the U. S. fortresses all dangerous and suspected persons.

This may be preliminary to an attack upon the rebel force besieging Fort Pickens.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Steamer Illinois has arrived. She left Fort Pickens on the evening of the 2d, and Key West on the morning of the 6th. The Powhatan, Brooklyn, Sabine, Supply, Wyandotte and Water Witch were off Fort Pickens. The Mohawk left on the 1st for the coast of Texas. Sch Eliza Atwater, of New Haven, arrived on the 27th ult.

A partial blockade exists at Pensacola.—No munitions of war are allowed to enter. Fort Pickens was prepared to repel any attack. The rebels have a new battery at Deer Point. They have also commenced unroofing the buildings of the Navy Yard preparatory to an attack. The forces are rumored to be 6000 men.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 10.—An application from private parties in the eastern States to Gov. Curtin, to allow free armed blacks to pass through the State, met with an unconditional refusal.

Troops from New York city will hereafter pass through here, and go to Baltimore over the Northern Central road, thus reaching Washington quicker than by any of the other routes.

Fifteen regiments were uniformed to-day

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—Mr. Harris' military bill, which passed the Senate last session, is under discussion in the House. Every able bodied man between 18 and 48, is compelled to do duty or pay a fine of $150.

It also provides that anybody speaking disrespectfully of the Governor or Legislature is to be subjected to a court martial, and every citizen is required to take the oath of allegiance to the State of Missouri only.

RISING SUN, Ind., May 12.—It is reported that the insurrection in Owen and Gallatin Counties, Ky., originated as follows: An old lady met two negroes armed. She told her minister that the negroes were arming.

DETROIT, Mich., May 10.—Both Houses passed unanimously the relief and volunteer bills to-day. They provide for raising ten regiments, and a loan of a million dollars.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday.

BOSTON, Saturday, May 11—2 1-2 P. M. General Frost's brigade of Missouri militia, under arms against the federal government, surrendered yesterday to Capt. Lyon at Camp Jackson, near St. Louis. The rebels were 800 strong and the surrender was unconditional. After the surrender, a large crowd, who had gathered to witness the proceedings, commenced to throw stones and fire pistols at the federal troops, wounding a captain, who gave orders to fire.

Two or three companies fired, killing upwards of twenty persons, including two women and several children, and wounding many. Intense excitement exists in St. Louis.

Orders have been issued for the arrest of Winans, the Baltimore millionaire.

The Oxygenated Bitters.
Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the
DYSPEPSIA!
With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.
TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.
Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.
Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.
Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

HAIR RESTORATIVE.
The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cleanest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced into our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:
ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.
MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it is a merits that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,
G. W. WALLACE,

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

For $1,50 we will furnish the Daily Chronicle (either Edition) from this time to Jan. 1st, 1862.

☞ We have copied Mr. Jenkins's statement from the N. H. Gazette, and placed it on the 4th page of this day's paper. It will be seen, by comparing it with what we gave as a report last week, that Mr. J.'s remarks about expense, as he now gives them, were much more offensive than as we stated them: he applied them to all the defences,—our report only to the barracks.

Gov. Goodwin is so favorably and so widely known, as a gentleman with whom no one ever need to have an unpleasant word, that no defence of him whatever is called for against the statement.

The tone and manner of a speaker do not get on paper; and conversations reported ex parte are hardly ever accurate: but the great public will be very slow to believe that Gov. G. reproved any man without some adequate cause. He is one of those who, while very earnest in attending to their own business, never meddle with anybody's else.

JOHNNY TILTON'S TRIP TO EXETER.—Messrs. Editors:—It was quite a feat for the Champion Hoseman, to haul the hose carriage from Dover here, in a day. But something like it, only more so, was done here many years ago, by Johnny Tilton, our old and well known idiotic town-charge.

I have heard my father tell the story repeatedly, which was this for substance:—The keeper of the old alms-house loaded the hand-cart one day with eight bushels of corn in bags, and bade Johnny take it to Walker's mills

Obedient, as he always was, Johnny started; but did not return as quick as usual. Wonder where he is. Dinner time came; but Johnny didn't. Somebody went to the mill to inquire, but nothing had been seen of Johnny. Many persons were questioned to no purpose; but last one gentleman from the country had met him on the road to Exeter, where he had formerly lived, and where, by some error, he thought he was sent.

He put his load through by daylight, hauling his loaded cart 15 miles in about 7 hours, and delivering it safely at the mill.

The meal and Johnny, cart and all, had a ride back, I believe. Y.

From our Extra of yesterday afternoon.

☞ We regret to learn that Mr. John A. Harraden has resigned the leadership of the Portsmouth Cornet Band, on account of the business not agreeing with his health. He has taken charge of the Band, from its formation,—about five years ago, we think; and has spared no effort to promote its social and professional advancement. He is a skillful performer, of exquisite taste, but it is a tax on his physical powers to lead so heavy a Band.

We understand that the Band is in communication with Mr. Charles H. Thompson, of South Berwick, well known as a fine musician, to become their leader. We hope they may be fortunate enough to secure his services.

☞ The Dover Daily Union says, "persons travelling between that place and South Berwick, will do well to take a ride with friend Butler. A trip over this road is a luxury. He also attends to the Express business in all its branches." His office in Portsmouth is with Jackson & Co.'s Express. See his advertisement on the 4th page.

CONCORD, May 10.—The friends of Mr. Fogg, our new Minister to Switzerland, gave him a parting dinner this afternoon.—Hon. A. H. Bellows presided, and remarked that this was the first time New Hampshire had had a Foreign Minister, and thought it was a happy coincidence that a citizen of the Switzerland of the new world should represent this country in the Switzerland of the old world.

Mr. Fogg, in reply to a complimentary sentiment, said he regretted leaving this country now as the soldier does the battle before the victory is won. Yet he saw a better state of things than existed a month ago.

Addresses were made by Hon. N. B. Bryant, Hon. N. S. Berry, Hon. Amos Tuck, Ass McFarland and others. Mr. Fogg leaves for Boston to-morrow, and will sail in the Adriatic from New York on Tuesday.

☞ A Volunteer from Keene, named Ruffles, accidentally shot himself with his revolver, at the Phenix Hotel, Concord, Friday evening. He was fingering the trigger, as the loaded weapon hung in his belt, when a bullet entered his leg, making a wound ten inches long. Surgeon Crosby quickly extracted the ball, and the ruffled man is doing well.

☞ It is said that Queen Victoria has sunk into settled melancholy since the death of her mother, and that it is feared she will not recover her mind. In consequence, drawing-room receptions have been put off till the end of June.

RUTLAND, VT., May 9.—The Vermont Regiment of 850 men left to-day for the seat of war. They will arrive in New York late to-night.

Abstemiousness and frugality are the best bankers. They show a handsome interest, and never dishonor a draft that is drawn on them by their humblest customers.

From the Extra Chronicle of yesterday,

SLAVE INSURRECTION IN KENTUCKY. Rising Sun, Ind., May 10.—The telegraph operator at Patriot, Ind., telegraphs that he has been called upon to aid in quelling a negro insurrection which broke out, last night, in Owen and Gallatin counties, Ky. Great fears are felt, as it is supposed the negroes are led on by two or three white citizens of Kentucky. The people are gathering all their forces to put down the insurrection, and runners have been sent to Indiana for assistance.

Capt. Wills, who has a company here for our own State service, has telegraphed that he will come to their assistance. The telegraph line is down between Patriot and Vevary. It is thought it has been cut by the rebels to prevent news of the insurrection being transmitted.

The black rebels are here spoken of,—not the white ones.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 10.—Messengers have arrived from Owen county, saying that three or four hundred negroes, armed and formed into a company, were committing depredations. The whites undertook to disarm them, when several were killed. The Governor has sent General Buckner to ascertain the truth. The military are in readiness.

BALTIMORE, May 10.—This morning a wagon containing a suspicious looking box and three men was observed going out on the Frederick road from Baltimore. Gen. Butler dispatched a scouting party in pursuit, who overtook it six miles beyond the Relay House. The box contained a Dickinson's steam gun, which was being taken to Harper's Ferry. The gun and the men were brought into camp. One of the men is Dickinson, the inventor of the machine. The prisoners were sent to Annapolis.

The Massachusetts regiment at the Relay House received their tents to-day.

The special correspondent of the American, at Frederick, says the train going west this morning was stopped at Point of Rocks, three miles west of Frederick, by Major Ashley, commander of the Virginia forces, and subjected to examination. All westward trains will be stopped there in future. There are about 400 troops stationed there, comprising two companies of artillery and two companies of cavalry, together with the Baltimore and Frederick volunteers.

A train from the West, containing 10 horses and 1000 beeves, bound to Baltimore, was seized this morning at Harper's Ferry.

ANNAPOLIS, May 10.—About midnight a squad of some fifty mounted rebels fired on the picket guard at Camp Butler across the Severn, and the guard returned the fire. About twenty shots were exchanged. The garrison regret that the marauders did not dismount and give an account of themselves. Similar squads are roving about, but their acts are disavowed by the citizens.

A sentinel in the Navy Yard was stabbed by a person in citizen's dress.

A million of dollars in specie passed through here for Washington to-day.

Steamer Kill von Kull, just from Fort Monroe, reports several prizes at Point Comfort. A Lieutenant in the federal army was found on board of one of them.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Private advices from Charleston state that butter is selling at 75 cts., no bacon in market. Cattle suffering for want of hay.

Private advices from North Carolina state that southern troops are better armed with knives, revolvers and dirks than northern troops, and feel confident of success, anticipating the first encounter at Harper's Ferry. There were about 4000 troops at Richmond who had not been paid. Flour at Richmond $10 per barrel and pork $50 per barrel. People poor, and the banks broken. Business prostrated, no money to be had. Virginia and North Carolina bonds 20 cents on the dollar.

A dispatch from Baltimore says the New York and Massachusetts troops at the Relay House are in fine condition; 2000 visitors were present from Baltimore to-day. Massachusetts officers assured the Baltimoreans they perfectly understood the responsibility of the recent attack rested on the mobites.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS—A BATTLE EXPECTED.—Harrisburg, May 10.—Five thousand troops from Western New York are concentrated at Elmira, and will reach here by regiments, arrivals beginning on Monday.

Twenty-seven unattached companies are lying in camp Curtin. About twenty of the companies have accepted three years service.

Confident expectation prevails in high circles here, that a battle will be fought between Richmond and Washington within ten days.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Major Rhett of South Carolina, has seceded, leaving a balance of $40,000 against him.

Lewis Clephane has been appointed Postmaster of Washington.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

Of New York,

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon.

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

Camp Constitution.

By recent orders from the War Department, these men will probably be obliged to re-enlist for three years, or be discharged, as the government have decided to receive no more three months men. The large surplus over the number requisite for a regular regiment will probably be sifted out by refusals to serve for the longer period, and by the rejection of unsuitable men. The camp at present is under the command of Brig. Gen. Stark of Nashua, who is devoting all his energies to the proper organization of the regiment. When the work is thoroughly performed, the company officers commissioned, and the men uniformed, the command will be turned over to the proper officers of the regiment.

The officers appointed by the Governor and who are now on duty assisting Gen. Stark, are Thomas P. Pierce, Colonel.

Frank S. Fisk, Lieut. Colonel.
Josiah Stevens, Jr., Major.
Samuel G. Langley, Adjutant.
Frank Fuller, Quartermaster.

The Commissary Department is under the superintendence of Col. Wm. S. Hadley, and is now in good working order. The food prepared for the men is good in quality and liberal in quantity, and gives general satisfaction. On Tuesday, however, the Abbott Guards of Manchester made some complaint as to the quality of their food, and in violation of the rules of the camp, marched up to one of the hotels and procured breakfast. For this, in connection with other acts of insubordination, the company was promptly and justly put under arrest by Gen. Stark. After a confinement of 24 hours they were released. It is understood that these acts of insubordination were more the result of bad advice, than from any disposition on the part of the men to rebel against the proper restraints of military discipline. The Abbott Guard, we doubt not, under judicious officers, will do their part in sustaining the honor of the State, and acquire renown for themselves in the campaign in which they are about to engage.

On Thursday afternoon, a flagstaff having been erected in front of the head quarters, the regiment was paraded in solid column, and the United States flag run up with military honors. The flag was hoisted by Col. Thomas P. Pierce, and as its graceful folds spread to the breeze it was greeted with three times three rousing cheers from the throats of the nine hundred stalwart men who thus testified their devotion to the loved emblem of our nation's greatness, and their determination to sustain its honor untarnished even through the fire and smoke of battle.

FORT CONSTITUTION.—We are informed that His Excellency Governor Goodwin, has received permission from the Secretary of the Navy to call upon Com. Pearson for any munitions of war that may be needed to increase the efficiency of Fort Constitution, and that the Commandant of the Navy Yard has been directed to co-operate with the Governor in all matters pertaining to the proper protection of the city and the possessions of the Government, at this station. The Governor has already made a requisition for a 42-pounder gun which is to be mounted on the circular track in the South west embrasure of the fort, and it will be ready for service in a few days. This gun, in connection with the twenty 24-pounders already mounted, gives us a reliable defence against any hostile expedition which will be likely to operate against the post.

OUR HARBOR DEFENCES. We do not think it is treasonable or unpatriotic to doubt the necessity of fortifying our Harbor, but we do not agree with those who think the task a useless one. The enemy we have to contend with is able and enterprising, and it may be a fatal mistake if we underrate their means and activity. In addition to the vigilant guard kept by the excellent garrison now in the fort, we suggest the propriety of establishing a system of signals at the Isles of Shoals by which early notice of the approach of suspicious vessels may be given. And we think it would be wise to keep some of our fast sailing pilot boats cruising at all times to aid in observation, and to communicate intelligence. We cannot afford to lose the public property at this port, and must insure, whatever may be the rate of the premium.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

FRIGATE SANTEE.—In 1821, just forty years ago, the keel of the Frigate Santee was laid at our Navy Yard, and she was fitted for launching soon after. Here she laid housed until 1855, when she was overhauled, and remodelled, her prow made sharper, and otherwise improved, and was then launched. Again she was left to rest at the wharf until the present crisis. Five hundred men are now at work upon her, and by the close of next week she will be ready for sea,—one of the handsomest and best ships in the Navy. Her tonnage is 1726. She mounts 48 guns.

It was said that when the first company of Volteers formed here, Parris remarked that he could drive them all with a pitchfork. They however drove him out of town by a preparation of tar, of which he had more fear than they had of pitch.—It is said that as he fled east his fame went before him, and when he reached a certain eastern city a delegation met him at the depot. In much terror he declared for the Union, and was permitted to pass on.

FIRST ORGAN.—The first organ ever heard in public worship in this country, was sent from London to the King's Chapel, in 1713. The organist came out from England with the instrument, as no person in the colony was to be found able to assume its charge.—Boston Transcript.

The above paragraph is going the rounds of the papers. If any one has the curiosity to see the instrument, or listen to its fine tones, he has only to come to Portsmouth, and in the beautiful Chapel of St. John's Church, in State street, it may be found, still in excellent order and held in requisition for the discharge of its part in the services at the chapel lectures.

STRAIN WATER.—We have before us a worm, resembling a water snake, of the size of a common pin wire, between two and three inches in length, pumped from the aqueduct. Rather a bad occupant for the stomach. The water board is also very common in the water. Too much care cannot be taken in examining or straining all water before using it.

From the Gazette.

Editor of the Gazette—Sir:—As many stories are in circulation with regard to the conversation which took place between Gov. Goodwin and myself at the barracks in this city on Thursday of last week, which afforded the pretense for the mob assault which I have suffered, and being desirous that the public may know the truth, so that they may be capable of judging correctly of the whole matter, I send you the following statement for publication in your paper.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, I walked down to the ropewalk to see how it was being fitted up for the reception of the volunteers.—While standing looking on at the workmen, Gov. Goodwin and Mr. Jeremiah Johnson, one of the owners of the ropewalk, entered and came up near me. The usual salutations passed between us upon meeting, when Gov. Goodwin remarked that this was a fine place for the barracks. I replied it was a very good place. Gov. G. continued that it was much better than the Concord barracks. I answered from what I had heard, I should think it was. He said—I know it is, for I have been at Concord and seen the barracks there. I then asked him if he had room enough to accommodate all the troops, and he replied that there was plenty of room, as they could occupy the lower part of the building, which would make more room than was needed.

Gov. Goodwin then told me he had received an order from Gen. Wool to put the harbor in a complete state of defence, in fact, a carte blanche to do pretty much in the matter as he saw fit; that he had seen Capt. Pearson of the Navy Yard, and shown him his order from General Wool, and told him he must have the Navy Yard put in a complete state of defence, and must see that it was defended, and that Capt. Pearson replied that he did not see but that he (Gov. G.) was Captain General over all of us. Gov. Goodwin further remarked that he had had offered to him from the Banks and from individuals $700,000 to carry on the work. My reply was—I have no doubt of it, Governor.

At this time Mr. Johnson came up near to Gov. Goodwin and said to him, "I should not have room enough here to make a rope to hang Jeff. Davis if I wanted to." At this remark Gov. Goodwin appeared to be much excited, and denounced Mr. Davis with much warmth, as an arch traitor and a rebel, repeating the words, and saying he hoped he would be shot, and that he ought to be hung.

He then went on to speak about the defences of the harbor, to which I answered that it would be of no use for us to have any conversation on that subject as I should not probably agree with him, and therefore did not wish to talk about it; adding that so far from there being any necessity for putting the harbor in a state of defence, I considered it as useless an operation as it would be to put a company of soldiers in my yard for the protection of my house that night. He replied to this by saying he was surprised to hear such a remark, and that he did not know but that I wished it to be so. To this I answered, I do not wish any such thing, sir, repeating my previous words, and adding that I had been a Union man all my days, and for thirty-five years had been doing all I could to avert the very calamity that is now upon our country, and that were our harbor invaded by a foreign or domestic foe, I would shoulder my gun and help defend it as quick as he would, or any other man. He replied by saying something about my defending my country which I did not distinctly hear and then left the barracks. A few minutes after, I again encountered Gov. Goodwin on South street, near the Arsenal, and was about entering the Arsenal gate when he accosted me. I turned, saw him advancing and waited until he came up to me. He said he was surprised to hear me make so unpatriotic a remark, and that he did not think there was a man in the town who would have made so unpatriotic a remark. I asked him what unpatriotic remark I had made, and told him to understand what I did say, repeating the words I had used in the barracks about the defence of the harbor, and saying to him I did not want him to misunderstand my language. He said there was danger of privateers coming here and taking our Navy Yard and fort. I told him the South had no vessels to take them with. He said it they had no vessels now, they would have them, and when the Navy Yard and fort were taken, I would say "O! I did not think they would come here." I replied that they wanted to get away from us, and we would not let them go. He said with an oath that they have stolen all our property and now they want to get away from us, do they? To this remark I made no reply, and the conversation ended.

This is all there was said, and word for word as it took place, as I am ready to confirm by oath. And for my part in this conversation, my house was on Friday evening, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, surrounded by a mob composed of the privates of the Volunteer Company Goodwin Guards (with a few honorable exceptions) and others, who demanded of me an explanation of the conversation, and that I should the next day hoist on my premises an American flag. The assault being entirely unexpected to me, and with my family greatly alarmed and no friend present to consult with, I told the mob I believed I had a flag and would hoist it. This promise thus extorted from me not being complied with before 12 o'clock the next day, I was at that hour seized by the arm while entering my place of business by two of this same company, while the rest followed, yelling and shouting, and I was dragged through the streets to my house and compelled, at the hazard of injury to my person or the destruction of my property, to appear on my door steps and display an American flag, which a friend procured and placed in my hands. The Mayor and his Marshals were at the scene and the riot act was read. No arrests were made, and nothing was accomplished in the way of preserving the peace—the mob had full sway.

With this sustement of facts, Mr. Editor, I submit it to a candid public to say how far I have been deserving of the mob violence to which I have been subjected. It is a question worthy of serious consideration, it seems to me, whether we are not nearer the verge of civil war in our own midst, than is pleasant to contemplate, when a citizen cannot exercise one of the plainest rights of an American freeman—that of freedom of opinion and speech—without being exposed to the treatment which I have suffered. My position as a Union man and an observer of the laws and supporter of the Government, has been too long and too well known in this community to need any defence.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks time was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Doubtless, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease of the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business, but learned you had gone to live in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me for a confirmation of the above statement, care box No. 1220, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by secret puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and received the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all proper purposes, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbus Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures obstinate eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Zanesville Ohio Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and all impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, as it is offered as much by the chemical, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its components are all perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '50.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more by your extolling your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do my purpose effectually. I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal sale, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other unpleasantness. I also state that on my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have an appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have arrived at manhood. I offer your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized He tried his own case—all failed and wholly gray at 27—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character:—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well."—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by numerous of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

Celebrated Stimulating Ongunent!
For the Whiskers and Hair.
The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.
THE STIMULATING ONGUENT
is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of
WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE
in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.
It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.
The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 14.

FROM ENGLAND.—The steamship Great Eastern has arrived at New York, bringing three days' later news from Europe.

The Great Eastern left Milford Haven on the evening of May 1st, and made the passage in nine days and thirteen hours.—She encountered a tremendous gale on the 5th, during which she rolled heavily, but no sea went over her lofty side.

In the House of Lords, on the 29th ult., Lord Wodehouse stated, in reply to a question, that Government recognized no right or obligation to interfere in the conflict unhappily commenced in America, either diplomatically or otherwise.

The English papers continue to discuss American affairs—the entire London press, excepting the Times, sympathizing warmly with the loyal States, and anticipating an easy triumph for the government. The Times fears a serious conflict if the North is determined to enforce obedience.

No doubt it will be serious; but the contest is not so much for obedience, as it is for existence. The rebels aim to destroy the government of the United States, and make Cotton King, with Wigfall for prime minister, and Wise for privy councillor.

☞ The Governor and Legislature of Tennessee, without consulting the people of the State, have made a league and covenant, preparatory to the admission of Tennessee into the Southern Confederacy, stipulating that the whole military force of the State during the impending conflict shall be under the chief control and direction of the Confederacy, and that Tennessee, on becoming a member of the Confederacy, shall turn over all public property, naval stores, munitions of war, acquired from the United States to the Confederacy, and also that all expenses incurred shall be assumed by the Confederacy. The Legislature ratified and the Governor has signed the league, thus committing Tennessee to armed rebellion.

A LASSO DUEL.—A couple of Arizonians, one a native-born Mexican and the other a boatman from the Mississippi, who had lived in Arizona about a year, fought a duel on horseback a short time ago, each armed with a lasso. The American, who it was thought would stand no chance in such a novel encounter, except the chance of being strangled, lassoed his foe at the first throw of the noose, and dragged him over the plain at the full speed of his horse until he was mangled and bruised almost to a jelly.

At a legal meeting of the Citizens of Exeter, held on Thursday the 9th inst., it was voted to raise a sum not exceeding $5000, for the benefit of soldiers who may enlist, their mothers, wives and children.

It was provided that each soldier who may enlist, belonging to Exeter, shall receive $9.00 per month additional pay, to what he receives from Government. Also, $6.00 per month for the maintenance of his mother, if he is not married; and $6.00 per month for his wife, and $2.00 per month for each child of said soldiers. The Selectmen were instructed to pay the same.

Provision was also made for Mrs. Jonathan Tebbets, of $6.00 per month, until her sons are discharged from service: two of whom are at Washington, and one on board of a U. S. frigate off the coast of Florida. It was voted to abate the poll tax of each soldier.—Exeter News-Letter.

☞ A meeting of the students of Bowdoin College was held on Thursday last, and a Drill Corps organized. J. B. Upham, Jr., of this city, and a son of Senator Fessenden were elected Sergeants. The Company numbers nearly one hundred, and is being drilled by Major C. W. King.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 12.—An attempt was made to day to tear up the track of the Northern Central road, fourteen miles this side of Baltimore, but it was discovered before much injury was done. Great indignation is felt, and a determination is expressed to take summary vengeance.

ARMS CONCEALED IN DRIED APPLES. A large quantity of dried apples was recently shipped from Massachusetts, destined for Louisville, Ky. The American Express Company landed them in Cincinnati on the 7th inst., where they were examined and found to contain nineteen of Colt's army and navy pistols.

☞ The greatest Philadelphia Mechanical Bakery was sold at auction last week for $22,500. It cost a great sum, but was a very losing concern. It could produce near three tons of bread daily.

☞ Capt. Knowlton, of the Abbott Guards, of Manchester, has been honorably discharged from the service, on the Surgeon's certificate of "defective vision."

☞ A boy in Exeter came very near killing a young man, by carelessly firing a revolver, loaded with ball, last week.

☞ The Charleston Courier invites the attention of its readers and exchanges to an "interesting and important communication," entitled "The Lincoln Programme," from a correspondent, "whose intelligence, and candor, and means of information" claim its entire confidence. The author had been in Washington, and talked with Gen. Scott, and from all he could see and here, he is astonished at the ability, as to men, money, arms, and determination of the United States, to "conquer," (in other words to put down the rebellion.)

He says the excitement, or rather the fury of the Northern people, beggars all description. They seem to be possessed with a demoniac rage, which nothing will satisfy but blood. The face of every soldier in Washington bears an expression of marked determination, as if the possessor had made up his mind to the most desperate deeds. The war will be one of subjugation, if not extermination, and will be carried through with all the vigor the Administration can command.

The policy of New York is a cold-blooded and diabolical one. It comprehends the complete destruction of Baltimore. That city New York looks upon as a commercial rival, and as regards the South, a dangerous one in the future. It must be blotted out from the face of the earth. There can be no doubt that the northern troops will shortly attempt to fight their way through Baltimore to Washington. If resistance is made—as it undoubtedly will be—the city will be shelled and laid in ashes. The heart sickens over the thought. God help her in this hour of her trial.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—In addition to the national vessels about twenty armed vessels have been or are being put in readiness for blockading purposes.

Information has been received that the enlistment for the personnel of the Navy has been so successful that the necessary number will soon be supplied.

The Secretary of the Navy is assiduously hurrying forward the measures of blockade and informs his friends that Charleston and Savannah will soon experience its effects. The Niagara and other vessels will similarly operate at New Orleans.

A number of Naval officers who during the panic resigned their commissions, have applied to be reinstated. Their appeals have been and continue to be disregarded. Some officers, who long since honorably retired to private pursuits have recently offered their services to the Government, and are placed on duty as Second Lieutenants, as no higher station under present circumstances can be assigned to them.

Earnest efforts are being made by the Navy Department to blockade effectively in the shortest possible time. Preparations have been completed for the effective blockade of the Virginia waters. Capt. Pendergast has given the precautionary notice of 15 days for all vessels to leave the ports of that State with or without cargoes.—The order will be adhered to impartially.

Certain persons, though representing themselves to be Union men, have been denied the privilege of forwarding locomotives to Tennessee for this, among other reasons, that such necessary railroad machinery might be used in the transportation of hostile troops. The government also take care that coal desirable for steam purposes shall not be transported to the disloyal States.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—Gen. Frost's Brigade was released from the arsenal this evening. The officers were liberated on their parole of honor, and the men took an oath not to bear arms against the United States during the war.

A report having gained credence that the federal troops had gone to Jefferson City to arrest the Governor and disperse the Legislature, B. Taylor, President of the Pacific Railroad, authoritatively contradicts it. He says that some troops at the Pacific Railroad depot are simply stationed there to see that no munitions of war are transferred to or from the city.

Also that the officers disclaim any interference with the management of the road, and that trains run regularly. The Governor, however, has caused one span of the Osage bridge to be destroyed, which will necessitate a change of cars.

Two regiments of the Home Guard are patrolling the streets to preserve order, and about 100 men are around the Democrat office. Several shooting affairs occurred during the day, but the city is quiet tonight. A heavy rain is now falling.

A large body of troops came down on the Alton and Chicago Railroad, this afternoon, and passed on to Belleville, Illinois, about 12 miles from here.

U. S. troops are now in possession of Camp Jackson, with all the equipage, tents, provisions, etc.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., May 12.—Gen. Butler with 50 men and two pieces of artillery, left this afternoon on the propeller J. S. Shriver for important secret service in the direction of Baltimore.

There was a false alarm at the Relay House last night.

The messenger of Gov. Hicks to Gov. Letcher has returned from Richmond.—He says the Virginians expected that 30,000 confederate troops would arrive by Thursday last.

The Union men here are indignant at the occupation of Maryland soil by Virginians.

A sudden movement by the rebels from Harper's Ferry towards the Relay House is feared by many. The best judges of military movements expect a sudden movement by the rebels. The Virginian army must soon fight or disperse.

THEY will RESPECT THE STARS AND STRIPES.—On Thursday morning last, as a butcher from South Newmarket was stopping near the Post-office in Exeter, one of the soldiers lately enlisted placed a small flag, the stars and stripes, in the horse's harness. This so incensed the butcher that he took the flag and rent it in pieces. The last seen of said butcher he was fleeing down Stratham road at 2:40 speed, with about thirty of the soldiers following him.—Exeter News-Letter.

PRESENTATION.—At Irving Hall, Saturday evening, the ceremony of presenting a brace of Whitney's patent Revolvers, and an elegant Sword, to Lt. Fontane, from his friends, took place,—under the star-spangled banner,—and in presence of quite a large company of those who will regret his absence. The presentation was made by Mr. Marcellus Eldredge, for the donors, with the following address:

Lieut. Fontane:—A number of your friends in this city, the names of whom I have the pleasure of giving you, have determined to mark the event of your departure from this Station, with a testimonial of their great regard and appreciation of you, as a gentleman and an officer.

Our acquaintance with you, though brief, has been marked with many pleasant and happy events; and while we acknowledge the necessity that demands your departure, we regret with deep sincerity, that we are are to lose from among us, one who has endeared himself so much, and whose experience in arms has been of such essential benefit to those who have been favored with his acquaintance and friendship.

It is with no little satisfaction that I present you, in behalf of your friends and adorers, this brace of revolvers and sword. Please receive them with the earnest wishes of the donors for your future welfare and prosperity, and rest assured that in your departure the prayers and hopes of our people will go with you; that in defending the honor of that glorious flag, which, from the founders of our Republic, has so proudly waved over heretofore happy and united people, you will receive the protection of that kind Providence that has so long sustained us as a people and a nation; and may you long retain these weapons as a mark of our regard, and in the hour of peril may they never fail you.

To which Lt. Fontane briefly but pertinently answered:

Gentlemen:—You do me too much honor; however much I have assisted you in your drilling, it has not come up to my desire. This handsome testimonial of your regard, I shall always keep in grateful remembrance of you, my friends, and I assure you that I will never use it but for the protection of that flag we all love—the stars and stripes of the United States, as the Constitution interprets them.

NEW YORK, May 12.—An army officer from Cairo reports that there is not the slightest apprehension of an attack, and and that there are plenty of troops there to hold it against any force from the South.

A man named Shean, from Virginia, has been arrested for uttering secession sentiments.

Capt. Meigs has been all day reconnoitering the heights overlooking Washington, with a view to the erection of fortifications.

Gov. Letcher is said to have written a letter to the officer commanding at Harper's Ferry to withdraw his forces from the Maryland soil.

A special dispatch to the Herald from Washington says, a negro trader from Richmond, states that it is the intention of the rebels to open the conflict as soon as possible. They complain that the Montgomery Government is too slow. Jefferson Davis has been expected at Richmond for the last eight days. He says he was informed by Governor Letcher that no definite plan of operation had yet been determined upon, though the southern States were concentrating large bodies of troops in Virginia.

The rebel army is erecting heavy batteries at Jefferson's Rocks, which are said to command the Virginia and Maryland sides of the Potomac and Shenandoah, and other approaches. When the Government gets ready to march in that direction, the rebels will speedily be dislodged.

MORE TROUBLE AT ST. LOUIS.—St. Louis, May 12.—The city saw another terrible tragedy last night. About 6 o'clock a large body of the Home Guard entered the city from the Arsenal. At the corner of Fifth st., parties among the spectators began hooting, hissing and otherwise abusing the companies. A boy discharged a pistol into the ranks; part of the rear company immediately turned and fired on the crowd; the whole column was instantly in confusion, breaking the ranks and discharging their muskets down their own line and among the people. Four troops were killed, and several wounded. Three citizens were killed.

Gen. Harney has issued a proclamation, expressing his regret at the existing state of things here, and pledging himself to do all in his power to preserve the peace. He says he has no authority to change the location of the Home Guard, but to avoid all cause of collision or excitement, if called upon to aid the local authorities, he will use the regular army in preference. In accordance with this proclamation, a battalion of regulars has been placed under the direction of the Police Commissioners, to act as a military police corps.

The news of the surrender of Camp Jackson created intense excitement at Jefferson City. The military bill passed both Houses.

FREDERICK, Md., May 11.—[Special dispatch to the Times.]—A resolution was offered in the House to-day that the members from Baltimore were not legally elected, and declaring their seats vacant. Referred.

Several rebels from Baltimore have been arrested as vagrants.

GARDINER'S ISLAND, May 13.—Two privateers were captured by a frigate between this island and Montauk Saturday afternoon, after three hours' cannonading. They were towed into New London.

☞ The house of Rev. J. L. Fletcher, of Lowell, Mass., was burnt on Saturday night, just after midnight. No person was in it; but most of the furniture, library, M.S. sermons, &c., were destroyed. Loss $6000; insured $4000.

☞ Samuel E. Coues, Esq. of Portsmouth, has been appointed Principal Examiner in the Patent Office, at $2500 per annum.

LATE WAR ITEMS.—New York May 13 Scouts are daily returning to Washington from the South, with accounts of forces at Richmond, Montgomery, and New Orleans, and that they intend marching on Washington, and if that plan is abandoned, the men will mutiny against the leaders.

Gen. Scott has ordered the fortification of the heights of Cairo, commanding Bird Point, that being the only assailable point.

A dispatch to the Herald says there are plenty of spies in the midst of the federal troops, who cannot be treated as such, as no declaration of war has been made.

Through travel to Washington via Baltimore, is resumed to-day.

Fort McHenry was largely reinforced today, and there are now about 1200 men in it.

A wagon load of military goods bound to Harper's Ferry was seized on the Frederick road last night.

The proof of treason on the part of prominent Baltimoreans is so strong, that measures will probably be taken to secure the permanent establishment of the United States authority in that city.

☞ A Court of Probate will be held in this city, to-day.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to" But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.

MESSRS. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that, this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

A BUDGET OF BLUNDERS.—We copy the following item, in full, from the Concord Democratic Standard of last Saturday.

Collector of Portsmouth.—Augustus Jenkins, Esq., has been removed from the office of Collector of Portsmouth, and Joseph B. Upham, (who we understand is a son of the late Timothy Upham, a rebel sympathizer in the war with Great Britain in 1812.) appointed to fill the vacancy. It will be recollected that Timothy Upham furnished the British with provisions while they lay off Portsmouth harbor. From present appearances, most of the offices are to be filled with descendants of tories of the Revolution.

This is as near being all errors and falsehoods, as possible, without destroying the only vestige of truth to hang the lies upon. It is true that Mr. Jenkins is removed and Mr. Upham is appointed Collector; but beyond this, all else is false.

Joseph B. Upham is not a son of Timothy. Timothy Upham was not a rebel sympathizer with Great Britain in the war of 1812,—but he was a decided advocate of the war, and an officer in the United States army. It will not be recollected, by anybody but a liar or a fool, that Timothy Upham furnished the British ships with provisions off this harbor or anywhere else;—but it is very well remembered by all who know anything about the matter, that he was in the army of the United States on the Canada line during a great part of the war, and shared the toils and dangers of some of the hardest battles fought there.

In the same Democratic Standard, in an editorial, we read:—

For weeks the President and Administration were in a terribly cold sweat occasioned by the apprehension that that city was about to be attacked by an army from the South. No invading army has been near Washington, and nobody has contemplated attacking that city.

In another part of the same paper, we read as follows:—

The Whereabouts of General Beauregard, April 27.—We learn, says the "South," upon excellent authority, that on Saturday Governor Wise received a dispatch from President Davis, stating that with Gen. Beauregard and a well appointed army, he was prepared to enter Washington so soon as Virginia was in a condition to afford such assistance as was necessary.—Governor Wise replied, "Come on—Virginia is prepared and eager to march with you into the Federal Capital."

Now, asks Uncle Toby,—Are Davis, and Beauregard, and Gov. Wise, all nobodies? We thought they were all rebels, and fighting men;—and either they all lie dreadfully, or else the Richmond South lies, or else the Democratic Standard is no standard at all, of anything reliable, as to matters of fact.

ACCIDENTS.—Mr. Joseph M. Tucker, of the well-known firm of Tucker & Locke, stable-keepers, of this city, was seriously injured on Friday afternoon. He had ridden to Sagamore to convey his partner home, and on his return was turning into Auburn street, when one of the traces became disengaged, causing the wagon to turn very suddenly. Mr. Tucker was precipitated forward; and striking upon the ground, dislocated his shoulder, and started several of the ribs from the breast-bone, besides receiving severe bruises upon the breast.—He was promptly cared for by Dr. Oliver, but yet lies in a very critical condition.

Mr. Joseph H. Hart, of New Castle, keeper of the Boone Island Light, was hoisting his boat to the davits, when by some means the ratchets slipped, and the crank, slipping from his hands and turning backwards, inflicted a severe blow upon his head, causing a wound several inches in length, and fracturing his skull. He was brought to New Castle, and his wounds were skillfully dressed by Dr. Oliver of this city, and he is now doing well.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—As most of our readers probably are aware, Messrs. Davis Brothers have taken the rooms, in Exchange Block, recently occupied by Mr. J. E. Small. At their former establishment on Daniel Street they gained a high reputation for skillful workmanship and gentlemanly bearing, and now, with their new and greater facilities, they will undoubtedly be enabled to furnish their patrons with pictures even more satisfactory and highly finished. They have in their new operating rooms, all the instruments which they used then, and have added all the stock which Mr. Small possessed at the time he was compelled to close up his business in this city. Messrs. Davis, therefore, have every facility for executing pictures in any style and of almost any size, and we feel assured that our readers will find it for their interest to patronize them. They are prepared to furnish fine photographic portraits of several of our fellow-citizens who have become distinguished at home and abroad as statesmen, writers or poets.

☞ The Salisbury Manufacturing Company are again running their mills on full time. The first broadcloth made in any mill in New England, was made at Amesbury and Salisbury Mills, by the late James Rundlet and others, and was used for uniforming the U. S. Army, in the war of 1812—15.

☞ Owing to a pressure of other business, we issued no Extra Chronicle on Monday afternoon. The Afternoon edition will be discontinued for the present, except in case of the receipt of very important news. While our experiment of two or three weeks has convinced us that we could make it pay—it gives us too much work to do.

☞ We are indebted to Rev. R. W. Humphriss, of the State Street Methodist Church in this city, for a copy of a very neat pamphlet—"Minutes of the thirty-second session of the New Hampshire Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held at Concord, April 10, 1861." We notice that no user of tobacco can be admitted to the Conference.

☞ The Winnicummet Guards, of Hampton, made an excursion to Portsmouth, last Saturday, and visited Camp Constitution. We learn that they are all desirous of enlisting for "three years."

☞ It is a novel and interesting, though sad sight, to see the 2d Regiment in drill—as it may be seen almost any fair forenoon or afternoon, from Pleasant or Auburn street—on the Elwyn land, South of the South Mill Pond.

☞ St. Andrew's Lodge of Free Masons, meets this evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock, at their Lodge Room in Congress Block.

NEW HAMPSHIRE VOLUNTEERS.

An appeal is hereby made to the Ladies of Portsmouth, and all friends of the Volunteers, to furnish Cotton Comforters, Sheets, (old or new,) and Pillow Cases, for the use of the Hospital.

A supply of these articles is much needed, and the benevolent citizens who are able to present them, are requested to leave their contributions at the Old Post Office Building, Daniel Street. HENRY O. KENT.

Adj. General's Office, May 8.

It is becoming more and more evident every day that a terrible retribution awaits the manufacturers of the unhealthy compounds denominated Saleratus, Baking Powders, &c. Since Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has been introduced, we are happy to state he has and still is working great revolution for good. We would advise all our readers to try one paper, and they will say with us, the half has not been told. Our better half says, "Tell everybody to use it."—Ex. 3tdéw

MILITARY OUTFITS.

The subscribers would respectfully inform the civil and military authorities of the State of New Hampshire that they have all the facilities for manufacturing, and furnishing at the shortest possible notice, Military Uniforms of every description, including Over-Coats.

They have also a large supply of Woolen Shirts, Drawers, Socks, Blankets, &c., &c., comprising every article of Clothing and Furnishing Goods requisite for a complete outfit. They have just completed an order from the City of Boston, for One Thousand Uniforms for the troops that are immediately to leave that city. The materials for those Uniforms were upon the shelves of their establishment on Saturday evening last. Yesterday Col. Cowdin's Regiment paraded, a large portion of which appeared in the above uniforms, which elicited universal commendation for their neatness and adaptation to severe service. We are prepared to execute all orders with promptness, and respectfully solicit contracts for any number of uniforms wanted.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it is a merits that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and Adjoining New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reducing man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, with at the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them by a life policy.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Charleston Courier evidently expects to see hard times and, like the Prodigal Son, would fain fill themselves with husks, and so save their husks and traw against a day of adversity. He says:

Planters and farmers will do the State good service in saving and preserving, as far as possible, all provision and forage crops. The Rice Straw and other materials which are ordinarily not considered worth saving, will soon be in great demand, and should be put up in convenient packages for keeping and transportation.

☞ The Newburyport Herald speaks of Tuesday of last week as a very quiet day, and says:

The most alarming thing was the state of trade—for that is stiller than the "dead sea." We saw a letter from Georgia yesterday, complaining of hard times, and saying that "Mr. A. Lincoln had injured the South a hundred millions of dollars in trade, in the past year." We have not reckoned up what "Mr. J. Davis" is injuring the North by treason, in its trade, but everybody that has a note to pay looks forward to the time of maturity with some anxiety. It is in the pocket that the first blow will fall, both North and South.

☞ Proposals from Washington have within a few days been made to parties in Boston, to furnish a number of vessels from the oyster fleet of Massachusetts, to be armed, carry a crew of 25 picked men, and act in conjunction with the blockading fleet South. These vessels are schooner rigged, with great breadth of beam, are built in a very thorough manner, and are just adapted for the purpose.

ANNAPOLIS, May 11.—The agent in charge of Winans' steam gun, testified on examination that he was on his way to Harpers' Ferry, and was not going out to practice at a long range as stated by the Baltimore Sun. The gun now guards the viaduct at the Relay House.

The Maryland contingent will be called out immediately after the adjournment of the Legislature. There are volunteers enough already to fill the four regiments. This is beyond question. Senator Cooper will probably be Brigadier General.

TRENTON, N. J., May 10.—The Legislature has adjourned sine die. Laws have been passed to raise a loan of two million dollars and a tax of $100,000; to raise four regiments; to purchase arms and munitions of war; to pay volunteers who have families six dollars and single men four dollars a month extra; to authorize cities to borrow money to aid volunteers. Other bills of a similar nature were also passed. Volunteers are offering in large numbers.

☞ Letters received in New York from Kansas say that the crops promise splendidly this year.

One little item which North Carolina loses by her secession proclivities, is the sale of pitch pine kindlings to New York, which was worth a million of dollars to her.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of the same. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones through out the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to invent an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with the greatest success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1826, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have used it. We can therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. We know the bald to become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappeared after it had been used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a beneficial improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 23, 1860.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '60.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff, which had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper and bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and after a position once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other unpleasantness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance compare with my friends. I feel as now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation one of great value, and, since I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its disease, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Medicine, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often compelled by the Medical Faculty as a restoring stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable ones, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for Pure Liquors; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever.—Persons who require Pure Liquors and Wines, in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEPIERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite. It relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevail,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

Such News we are receiving Daily.

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND;
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled
Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MAUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,

Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting]

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 15.

THE DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED BY GOVERNMENT.—No one can realize the amount of embarrassment which the government has encountered from the necessity of entrusting the execution of its orders to an army and navy nearly half demoralized by officers of treasonable sympathies.

When it was decided to employ troops for the defence of the Capital, staff officers, after remaining long enough in the War Department to acquire as much knowledge as possible of the details, resigned, to carry that knowledge into the camp of the enemy.

When the Norfolk Navy Yard was found to be in danger, orders were dispatched from the Navy Department to have all the vessels taken out. Officers at the Yard, secretly sympathizing with secession, first prevented the execution of the orders, on the ground that it was not necessary, and then resigned. The Navy Department, on being apprised of this, instantly sent Commodore Paulding down to save the property. But it was then too late. All that could then be done was to destroy it, to prevent its falling into the hands of the secessionists, and that he did effectually.

When the Seventh Regiment and the Massachusetts troops arrived at Annapolis, the Capital was almost defenceless. A Quartermaster was ordered to go to Annapolis from Washington to hasten their march. He went, as was supposed, to execute his mission, but instead of bringing in the desired reinforcements, coolly, at his leisure, brought in his resignation.

When the river steamboats were seized at Washington for government use, they were sent round to the Navy Yard to be armed for service. Immediately on their arrival, every officer in the yard, save one, resigned, in order to stop the work!

These are but a few pages out of a whole volume of unwritten history. At every step, for a while, government was clogged and crippled by traitors, who drew their pay and affected loyalty so long as there was nothing required of them, but who, at the critical moment when their services were wanted, deserted to the enemy.

But the active operations of the past few weeks, and the inexorable sternness with which every officer is stricken from the roll who has qualms about his duty, have purged the service. The Army and Navy, at last, are officered by men who are loyal to the flag, and who, when they receive orders, will execute them. The whole of this experience on the part of the Administration gives additional illustration of the utter lack of common honesty among those who would split the Union on a "point of honor."—Albany Journal.

All this is well said, and to the purpose We wish to add a few words to it. The Military and Naval Schools are good places in which to train officers, for Army and Navy. But we would like to see our Congress make such an improvement in these matters, that the best of old soldiers may not only become Sergeants, but Commissioned Officers,—and that the best old sailors may not only become Boatswains and Masters, but also rise by merit to be Lieutenants and Commanders.

In the French Army and Navy men rise from the lowest places to the highest. Can any one tell why they should not do the same in this country? If they could do so,—we could never have had so many disgraceful resignations of officers of the F. F. V., &c., who had been trained at our own expense, to lead the armies of traitors and rebels.

☞ The secession Legislature of Missouri contemplate taking the school fund for military purposes—thus prostrating education before their barbarous movements. They suggest the appropriation of the July interest on the State bonds to the same object—thus robbing honest creditors for the benefit of a thieving conspiracy. And they propose to punish any man who shall speak disrespectfully of the Governor—thus gagging free speech.

☞ A letter from St. Louis, to the Salem Register, speaks of quite a struggle there, between Union and rebellion,—and says:—

If we secede let every power within the Government be applied to force us back into the Union, even if by so doing every city and town is laid in ashes, and the fifty millions worth of negro property in our State takes up its legs and walks. The Union is our only safeguard; by it we must stand or with it fall.

☞ They have a funny quarrel about military matters in Illinois. Chicago wants to furnish nearly all the troops called for by the State. The rural districts want to do the same thing. Then the Democrats want to do the principal part of the fighting, and the Republicans are furious to get in. So there is a general row and much ill-temper, in the expression of which there is an immense consumption of hard words.

MONTGOMERY, May 13.—It is probable that Congress will adjourn within the next ten days to meet again in July, at such a place as circumstances may render necessary. [i. e. the Cotton Congress.]

NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

"The eyes of those at Home will be upon you; The prayers of those you leave behind go with you."

NEW YORK, April 12th.

Dear Chronicle:—That motto floats over the entrance to the Astor House before the eyes of our volunteers, whose stentorian cheers testify that the prayers will be merited, and that the eyes will never grow dim from shame for our "brave soldier boys."

Prominent among these are the Zouaves of Col. Wm. Wilson, more commonly known as "Billy Wilson's Zoo-zoos." The fact that Wilson was once an Alderman explains the character of colonel and men; for who is not familiar with the character and clique of a New York alderman? An analysis would give you one part gentleman and nine parts "rough." Surely they are rough enough; some with eyes joined in one, heads bruised, with teeth on exploring expeditions down threats contiguous.

They must be at work, either fighting secessionists or among themselves, and meanwhile practice subtraction on houses and henroosts belonging to the residents of Staten Island, where they are quartered. They have found several mornings on examining their premises that the company has certain attractive properties, which draw things toward them with remarkable celerity!

Somewhat similar to these are the "Union Rangers" of Col. Kerrigan (the individual who was going South to fight for the rebels) and the volunteers of Col. Andy Sheehan and Lt. Col. Wm. Mulligan, late a visitor at Sing Sing! President Lincoln & Co. will confer an immense obligation upon the city of New York by giving these troops their marching orders; then shall we abide in an honest place, and coats of bank bills denominated by hundreds can be worn with perfect impunity. Going down our harbor they can poetize most suitably:

"True patriots we: for be it understood,
We've left our country for our country's good."

Our military men are not the only ones patriotic;—even the Irish-Italian organ-grinders, believing that the public are convinced of the faithfulness of "Old Dog Tray," or such portions of him as have not been "ground off," have substituted the more national strains of "Hail Columbia" and "The Star Spangled Banner," which are relieved of monotony by a contemporary on the next corner assiduously at work upon "Yankee Doodle keep it up,"—and surely they do keep it up with astonishing pertinacity!

The Vermont Regiment left our city yesterday, after a stay of two days,—a fine, stalwart body of men, but I thought as some of the loftiest marched by, what a useless waste of perpendicular it was to put so much in one person! Volunteers are being daily mustered into the service, notwithstanding New York city has already furnished more than 10,000 men. Rigid camp duty, with morning and evening drill is the order of the day, our commandant evidently believing, with Bonaparte, that "Providence is on the side of the largest and best disciplined army."

While accounts are coming in from all sections of the country, I am glad to see that Portsmouth is not backward. The Volunteers especially will do good service, for the enemy will never be able to "get round them"—they have too many Sides!

NEWINGTON.

INSURRECTION IN KENTUCKY.—A gentleman in Kentucky writes to his father in this city, under date of May 10, that there is a fearful insurrection of slaves in that State; that one gang, said to be 1000 in number, has burnt the town of Williamstown, Kentucky, (36 miles from Newport,) a small place, but containing the county buildings; that the women and children are being sent into the larger towns for safety; that another gang of four hundred slaves is abroad doing mischief in another direction;—and that the whole community, in the neighborhood of Covington and Newport, is in a state of alarm.

☞ The City Council of Manchester has voted to appropriate $100,000 for the municipal expenses of the ensuing year,—$8,000 of this sum to be raised by revenue. The County tax is $19,280, and the State tax $5,381. Other items among the appropriations are:—For Schools, $17,200; Fire Department, $5,000; Steam Fire Engine, $2,500; Lighting the Streets, $1,600; Interest, $9,000; City Library, $2,100; Watering the streets, $200; Reserved Fund, $12,289; Incidental expenses, $4,000.

CALIFORNIA.—The pony express brings news from California to the 1st inst. A steamer sailed on that day, with $488,000 in specie, $132,000 of which is for England. The invoice is small, because shippers were fearful of seizure by pirates in the Gulf of Mexico. Exchange on New York brought 5 to 6 per cent. premium. The news of Virginia's secession, and the Baltimore riot, aroused the Union feeling among all but the Breckinridge democrats.

☞ The Eastport Sentinel states that the cutter stationed in that district, received orders to ship twenty-five more men and proceed to Portland for orders.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

A dispatch from St. Louis, May 13, says:

An official statement is published, which says the first firing at Camp Jackson on Friday evening was some half a dozen shots near the head of the column of the first regiment, and was occasioned by a volley of stones and pistol shots from the crowd. No one was hurt at this point. The second firing came from the rear column guarding the prisoners.

The crowd here was large and very abusive, and one man discharged three barrels of a revolver at Lt. Saxon, of the regular service, many of the mob cheering him or drawing revolvers and firing at the troops. The man who commenced the attack then laid his pistol across his arm, and was taking deliberate aim at Saxon, when he was thrust through with a bayonet. He was fired upon at the same time, and instantly killed. The column moved on, having received orders to march, but the company being assaulted by the crowd and several of them shot, halted and fired, causing the deaths already reported. The order then given by Capt. Lyon to cease firing, was promptly obeyed.

The principal arms taken from Camp Jackson are four large siege howitzers, two ten-inch mortars, a large number of ten-inch shells ready charged, and some 5000 United States muskets, supposed to be a portion of those taken from the Baton Rouge Arsenal.

As many as a thousand people left the city yesterday afternoon in consequence of reports of insubordination among the German troops, and their threats to burn and sack the city. But Gen. Harney's proclamation in a great measure restored confidence, and many of those who left will probably return to-day.

The city is now quiet, and the highest hopes are entertained that no further disturbance will occur. Twenty-two persons are known to have been killed at Camp Jackson. Three of these were soldiers, belonging to the southwest expeditions and were going with the prisoners captured at Camp Jackson.

Another dispatch from St. Louis, of the same date, says:

It is estimated that 10,000 persons left the city yesterday. A perfect panic prevails, in some quarters. Entire streets are being nearly deserted.

The reader will observe that two persons both meaning to tell the truth, vary in their estimate of numbers, from 1000 to 10,000.

The St. Louis Journal publishes a statement signed by Gen. Frost and his staff, explaining why Camp Jackson was surrendered. They say there were only five rounds of ammunition in the camp, and neither arms nor provisions enough to supply the force of 800 men under their command. To have attempted resistance, surrounded as they were by 6000 or 8000 troops, well armed and with every appliance of war, would have been mere suicide, and to retreat was impossible, they being without the means of transportation or provisions and no credit.

They censure the State authorities for not paying the just military debts of the State, so that proper supplies could have been secured. They pronounce Capt. Lyon's demand illegal and unconstitutional, and a wanton trampling under foot of the laws of our common country.

Here again 800 men had not arms enough, though Capt. Lyon found 5000 U. S. muskets. The dispatch continues:

The report which was current in this city yesterday and to, day that Gen. Harney disapproved of the action of Capt. Lyon in reference to the capture of Camp Jackson is authoritatively denied. He not only approves of the whole proceeding, but compliments that officer for the prompt, admirable manner in which he executed the orders of the government.

Reliable information from Jefferson City says nearly all the objectionable features of the military bill debated during the session were materially amended, but when the news of the capture of Camp Jackson reached the city, the amendments were immediately reconsidered and the original bill passed by a large majority.

The city has been quiet and orderly all day, and the citizens have been engaged in their usual avocations.

Capt. Totten's battalion of regulars are still quartered in the city, and will be kept here as long as the Police Commissioners consider their presence necessary for the preservation of the peace.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The Post Washington dispatch says there is an abundance of food at the capital, but a scarcity of cooking utensils.

Preparations indicate that the government is getting ready for a contest at Harper's Ferry.

The Washington dispatch to the Express says the British applied for permission to ship certain productions, particularly tobacco, from Virginia to England, to fulfil contracts, but the government politely declined. The best of feeling prevails between the British Minister and our government. A part of the fleet has been ordered home from the coast of Africa.

The World's Washington dispatch says the Massachusetts quota is four regiments for three years. Fifteen hundred Alabama troops with twenty cannon, landed last night at Manassas Junction, en route to Harper's Ferry.

The Memphis Appeal of Wednesday says the levee was cut below Friar's Point on Sunday night, inundating the crops and causing great damage.

Col. Anderson visited the Board of Brokers this afternoon, and in reply to an address said, since the fall of Fort Sumter he had received very bitter letters from the South on account of his refusal to join them, but had never written or indicated that he would unite his destinies with the South.—He thought the question was government or no government; and he felt satisfied that when the present ordeal was passed we shall again be a happy and united people.

BALTIMORE, May 13.—The train from Pennsylvania came through this afternoon with the mails and passengers, and was warmly welcomed by the people. The national flag was displayed in various parts of the city to-day, the prohibition having been removed.

At 8 o'clock this evening a train filled with troops arrived at the outer depot from the Relay House. They numbered 1000; five companies from each regiment, Sixth Massachusetts and Eighth New York, and a battery of artillery.

They marched through South Baltimore to Federal Hill, a high point of ground on the south side of the harbor directly over looking the city, a mile west of Fort McHenry The sudden appearance of the troops took our citizens by surprise. They were greeted with every demonstration of approval. Immense crowds quickly gathered and cheered them at every step. Ladies waved their handkerchiefs and many citizens illuminated their buildings.

Prominent citizens accompanied the troops to the hill, and assisted the officers in taking the best route and in procuring quarters for the troops until their tents could arrive. The troops seemed to be highly pleased with their reception, and all expressed surprise and delight at the commanding position and fine prospect of the location.

☞ Two transports from Mobile, with provisions for the rebel troops at Pensacola, were met by the United States blockading squadron, their papers were endorsed, and they went back to Mobile, warned that if they tried again, they would be captured.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.—The Memphis (Tennessee) Avalanche says:—

"It is generally conceded here that Lincoln's Congress, called to meet on the 4th of July next, will convene in Portland, Maine, or perhaps in Toronto—never in Washington City."

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, MASS., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

For $1.50 we will furnish the Daily Chronicle from this time to Jan. 1st, 1862.

The Secretary of the Navy is anticipating the appropriation of the last Congress, for the construction of seven sloops-of-war, which belong to the next fiscal year. The keels of four are laid, at Portsmouth, Charlestown, New York and Philadelphia, while the other three will be left to private enterprise and competition.—Boston Post.

There is no doubt that one or more of the seven steam sloops-of-war, or gun-boats, will be built at the Navy Yard on this station—but the keel is not yet laid, nor the orders received, though they are expected daily. The house where a very fine one was built, is now empty, and workmen are clearing up, sweeping and garnishing, to get it ready for the new sloop; and she can be built here, quick and well.

In another ship-house, we have also the Franklin, a fine ship, of the best model, on the stocks,—which ought to be launched for immediate use. She could easily be made a good propeller—and would sail well.

In still another ship-house, we have the Alabama, which was built for a sailing ship, and which the examining commissioners recommended to alter for a steamer. This alteration would be a virtual re-building—and would probably take more time than would be required to build the new sloop-of-war. She could be speedily put afloat as a sailing ship.

PERSONAL.—Stillman B. Allen, Esq., who, during the past administration, was the popular Clerk at the Navy Yard, on Tuesday removed with his family to Boston. Previous to leaving, he addressed a farewell speech to the thousand workmen employed upon the yard, and urged them to do their utmost to uphold the Constitution and the Union, and if they erred in too great zeal on either side, to be watchful that it was for the glorious Stars and Stripes. His patriotic remarks were received with the greatest enthusiasm by his hearers, who gave him three rousing cheers, when he had concluded.

☞ As over a thousand workmen are employed upon the Navy Yard daily at the present time, a scene of unusual activity is presented there. Bustle without confusion, energy without undue haste, appear on every side. And at night, when the labors of the day are over, a most beautiful sight is presented to one standing upon this side of our noble river. The surface of the water at first is unmarked, save by some solitary craft which pursues its silent way; but suddenly, some sixty boats, manned by stalwart crews, dart out from the shadows beneath the wharves of the Navy Yard, and from a common centre, irradiate towards the many points which stud the river's banks. Their long, dark bodies glide swiftly over the water, and the feathering oar glistens in the beams of "the low, descending sun;" the silence now reigns supreme, and anon is broken by the shout of some playful member of the company; while, perhaps, a solitary sea-gull floats through the still air, or darts downwards in pursuit of its hapless prey.

☞ Bathing, particularly in salt water, is undoubtedly conducive to health and comfort—but not when indulged in immediately before or especially after eating.—The Volunteers ought to know this. They have fine times in the South Mill Pond.—On Monday afternoon, eight of them being out in an old boat, the craft sunk, but only in water (and mud) deep enough to reach to their knees. Not wishing to soil their clothes, they stood on the gunwale, while a rope was brought from the shore to pull the boat to land. At the first tug, the line snapped—and being attached again, the first jerk threw the upright soldiers ingloriously flat in the mud and water—at which a shout was raised by the host of their comrades who were watching them on shore, as must have startled every flounder and sculpin in the Pond—not to mention the landlubbers therein.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Portsmouth, May 13th.—Case of Ruel Williams v. John S. Brown was tried on Monday. This was an action for taking certain freight cars as the property of the Kennebec & Portland R. R., claimed by plff. to have been mortgaged by him. The suit is against the late Sheriff of this County, the cars having been sold by his Deputy. Verdict for plaintiff, $1096.40. G. F. Shepley, of Maine, for plaintiff; Bell, Marston, Fowler, for deft.

May 14—Charles F. King v. Chester C. Hutchings and Andrew S. Woods, is now on trial. Samuel Wells for plff.; Hibbard, Hutchins and Carpenter for dfts.

Judge Clifford of Portland is now present.

☞ The W. M., S. W., and J. W., of Benevolent Lodge at Milford, N. H., are among the Milford Volunteers now quartered at Camp Constitution, in this city—probably an instance not equaled in the entire North.

HARPER'S FERRY.—Harrisburg, Pa., May 13.—A person employed on special service, who visited Harper's Ferry last week and arrived at Chambersburg to-day, reports that there are 6000 troops there altogether, and about three-fourths are well armed, and the balance not at all. Only 200 Kentuckians are there now, and one company of South Carolinians. The resident militia of Harper's Ferry are very restive under existing circumstances. Only one day's provision was on hand, and supplies were cut off from Western Virginia by the people of that section.

All the supplies within reach anywhere in the surrounding country must be exhausted within two weeks. There was positively not more than 1000 stand of arms in the wreck of the arsenal and some of them were in bad condition. They cannot manufacture more than twelve rifles per day. They have only 600 men on this side of the Potomac, and have not erected any batteries on the Maryland side and show no disposition to erect them. All the preparations indicate defensive purposes on their part. There was no disposition to make a forward movement and they must retreat or be provisioned. This, however, does not contradict the probable advance of the main body of the confederate army by that route on Southern Pennsylvania when Jeff Davis discovers the impossibility of breaking Gen. Scott's lines around Washington.

LATE WAR ITEMS.—Washington, May 14.—It is reported that Gen. Butler quietly established his headquarters at Baltimore last night.

It having been ascertained that the city fire engines and their hose are out of order, the New York and Philadelphia firemen have volunteered to bring their steam fire engines here.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular to all collectors of customs addressed to those on the Northwestern waters in relation to commerce with the insurrectionary States. Among the prohibited supplies are coals and telegraph apparatus.

It is ascertained that there are 30,000 troops in Virginia, the fifth of whom are in Richmond.

NEW YORK, May 14.—An attempt was discovered in Washington to-day, to poison the members of the 12th Regiment by arsenic mixed in sugar.

Quantities of saltpetre, labelled "salt," passed the Relay House for Harper's Ferry, thence to the Richmond powder works.

☞ Gen. Butler and Staff dined in Baltimore to-day, every courtesy being extended to him. Martial law is proclaimed at Baltimore.

Gen. Butler has sent 75 Massachusetts troops to Frederick to take Ross Winans a prisoner on charge of treason.

Fort McHenry is amply garrisoned, and every gun well served by experienced men.

Senator Douglas is to receive the commission of Major General.

A gentleman from Norfolk says that the Virginia batteries on James and York rivers are of a most formidable character.

The sloop-of-war Pawnee is anchored off Alexandria with her guns run out and double shotted, the object being to stop any interference with navigation, which has been attempted. Her appearance created a panic among the rebels.

We omit all notices of moving troops,—as they are too numerous for us to give in detail.

☞ Ned Buntline has had an interview with Secretary Cameron, and tendered the government a regiment composed of fifteen hundred practical hunters and sharp-shooters from the Northern part of the State of New York. The regiment is raised and ready for service.

☞ The anniversary meetings in New York, just closed, were well attended, notwithstanding the disturbed condition of the public mind.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the inability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and popularity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, buying but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system disarranged, and feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some ill sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. The stimulant life the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, and often great disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them severely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of uncurable sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DRD. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that is ever cured with a purgative medicine. I place your Cathartic Pills alone on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Charles

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cheerfully and conscientiously say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for disorders of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhea. Their compactness and ready form makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills in my family and with success in my family and among those I am called to visit in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

You may cannot be said of your Pills that they are cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming to the world the benefit of such a valuable discovery as that compound, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect the organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Sturt, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural action, from which wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. The are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1855.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your pills had been the means of giving me, if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my hip, which I thought would end in excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering, in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Jo. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the country. I have occasioned my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects by my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In my instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—for baldness, gray hair, scaly head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me, by communication addressed to me, care box No. 1820, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from intrinsic merit and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every instance it has given satisfaction, receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and will restore a fair and glossy locks.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative. — Bo ton Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Mr. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, not impeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of the article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all those who have lost much or partially eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous. —Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '60.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was indeed more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had tried almost every thing to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from dandruff and other uncleanliness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IS THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence as chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. Old heads with much Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that grey hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own hair first and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and adulteration, we take pleasure in offering the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now distilling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever—Persons who require Pure Liquors and Wines, in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEVERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the m.st severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. R. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND.

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. B. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 39 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in [illegible], when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MAUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1861.

BALTIMORE.

Gen. Butler's Proclamation of martial law in Baltimore, and the presence of his 1000 men on a commanding eminence, are producing a good effect there.

A Baltimore dispatch of the 13th says:

Fort McHenry is amply garrisoned, and every gun well served by experienced men.

Baltimore is quiet and orderly. The American flag is everywhere displayed this afternoon. Parties of young ladies walked along Broadway waving the stars and stripes, and companies of volunteers marched with music and the same flag.

The troops on Federal Hill are lying on the grass in a heavy rain, singing patriotic and sentimental songs. They have no tents.

A Baltimore dispatch of the 14th states Gen. Butler had a long interview prior to issuing the proclamation, with the Mayor and members of City Council. Gen. B. showed himself intimately acquainted with affairs here.

During the afternoon, Gen. Butler made a formal demand on the city authorities for a quantity of arms stored in a warehouse. Marshal Kane refused to deliver the arms without an order from the Mayor.

Finally, an order was produced, and the arms were brought out, making fifteen dray loads; about one-third of the fire arms were carbines; and the rest flint lock muskets. A quantity of pikes were also seized. A guard of federal troops was placed over the arms, and they were escorted by the police to the fort. A crowd followed, hooting a portion of the distance. Some were armed with pistols, and desired to commit violence, but were deterred by the police.

Federal Hill camp is being put in order in expectation of a protracted occupation. Pipes have been put down by the Water Commissioners, and water will be introduced there to-morrow morning.

There are rumors that troops are encamped at various points adjacent to the city, but nothing definite is known. A large crowd of Union men also followed the arms from Gittings, and cheered repeatedly for the troops, and groaned at the police.

Arrival of 250,000 Stand of English Arms for the Rebels.—We find the following important announcement in the Nashville (Tenn.) Banner of May 6th:

We learn that a vessel arrived at New Orleans from Europe on Monday, with 250,000 stand of arms for the Confederate States. This is the vessel which the blockaders have been urging the government to watch for and seize. They awoke too late.

About fifty boxes of guns and a large amount of powder and other munitions of war reached this city by railroad last evening from the South. There will be no scarcity of arms. Now that the way is clear, let every man prepare to shoulder his musket.

It is quite likely a vessel has arrived there with arms, but not very likely she has anything like 250,000 stand. Let us see, 25 muskets to a box, would make 10,000 boxes: and would be the largest shipment of small arms ever made in one cargo: 25,000 or 50,000, would be a more probable number to come at one time, in one vessel.

250,000 guns would weigh about 1,750 tons, exclusive of the boxes—rather too much dead weight with which to cross the ocean in safety.

P. S.—The papers of Wednesday evening say they have dwindled down to 50,000.

☞ The Portland Argus states that the measles have broken out in one or two of the companies of the Maine 1st Regiment, and there are now about twenty cases of it in the hospital. It was Gen. Scott's advice, not to remove the Regiment until all danger of a spread of the disease had vanished. Had it not been for this, the Regiment would have got away last week. The cases under treatment are of a mild type, and the patients are progressing favorably.

☞ Gen. Harney has published an address to the people of Missouri, of a very decided character. He says the whole power of the general government will be exerted, if necessary, to maintain Missouri in the Union, and that the supreme law of the land shall be maintained, and all unlawful combinations will be suppressed within his jurisdiction.

Election Sermon.—A meeting of citizens was held in Concord on Monday, and a resolution was passed requesting Gov. Goodwin to appoint a clergyman to deliver a sermon on the day of the inauguration of the Governor elect, or on the day previous, as may hereafter be determined.

Richard E. Cross, son of Col. Ephraim Cross of Lancaster, is among the soldiers at Fort Pickens. In a letter to his parents, dated the 18th of April, he said it was understood that an attack was soon to be made by the Fort and fleet on the rebels.—He also says, "the whole South cannot drive us out of this port."—Patriot.

Gen. Butler's Proclamation.—Gen. Butler, on Tuesday, issued a proclamation to the people of Baltimore and others within his military department, setting forth the reasons which caused the military occupation of the city. He assures them that no loyal and well-disposed citizen will be disturbed in his lawful occupation; that private property will not be interfered with by the men under his command, unless it be used to afford aid and comfort to those in rebellion against the government,—all of which property and munitions of war will be seized and held subject to confiscation. He therefore requests all manufacturers of arms and munitions of war to report to him forthwith, that the lawfulness of their occupation may be known.

No transportation from the city to the rebels of articles fitted to aid and support troops in the field will be permitted; and such transportation will render the goods liable to seizure and confiscation.

The Government is ready to receive all such stores and supplies, and arrangements will be made to contract for them immediately.

The acting assistant Quartermaster and Commissary of the United States has been instructed to procure and furnish at fair prices 40,000 rations for the use of the army of the United States, and further supplies will be drawn from the city to the full extent of its capacity, if patriotic and loyal men choose so to furnish supplies.

All assemblages, except the ordinary police, of armed bodies other than those regularly organized and commissioned by the State of Maryland, and acting under orders of the Governor, are forbidden within the department. All officers of the militia of Maryland, having command within the limits of the department, are requested to report through their officers forthwith to the General in command, that he may be able to distinguish the regular commissioned and loyal troops of Maryland from armed bodies who may claim to be such.

The ordinary operations of the corporate government of the city of Baltimore, and of the civil authorities, will not be interfered with, but, on the contrary will be aided by all the power at the command of the General, upon proper call being made.

He prohibits the raising of any Confederate flag, and states that the exhibition of such by evil-disposed persons will be deemed evidence of sympathy with the enemies of our country.

As the government relies more upon the loyalty of the citizens of Baltimore, than upon any exhibition of force calculated to intimidate them, the General had brought to the city with him, of the many thousand troops in the immediate neighborhood, which might be at once concentrated there, scarcely more than an ordinary guard. Any infraction of the laws by the troops under his command, or any interference with private property, he desires to have immediately reported to him, and he pledges himself that if any soldier so far forgets himself as to break those laws that he has sworn to defend and enforce, he shall be most rigorously punished.

The General believes that if his suggestions and requests are faithfully carried out by the co-operation of all good and Union-loving citizens, business will resume its accustomed channels, trade take the place of dullness and idleness, and Baltimore will be in fact what she is entitled to be, in the front rank of the commercial cities of the Union.

New York, May 15.—Gustavus Holland, a passenger in the Arago from England and bearer of dispatches to Montgomery, was arrested this morning.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says the remains of Washington have been removed from Mt. Vernon by Col. Washington.

Massachusetts regiments had been purposely selected to open the way through Maryland, and the triumphant entrance of the 6th Regiment into Baltimore was a bitter pill to some.

Gen. Sickles' Brigade, 5000 strong, has been accepted by the Secretary of War.

There is great discontent among the military at Harper's Ferry, and in a bloody row a Kentucky volunteer was killed. The Kentucky commander threatened the disbandment of the troops.

A dispatch says the Union men of Martinsburg, Va., are preparing to resist the secessionists.

Sugar sells at 25 cents per pound in Virginia.

The steamship Africa is unloading 10,000 Enfield rifles for the federal government.

Baltimore, May 15. — Massachusetts and New York troops are strolling the streets entirely unarmed. It is said Gen. Butler will make more arrests to-day of persons in high position.

Gov. Hicks shows that the bridges were destroyed by traitors, who had plotted the mischief beforehand. He calls out four regiments of Union men to defend Maryland and Washington. He will get them easily.

☞ A Washington dispatch states that Mr. Spear of Maine, owner of several thousand acres of land on the seaboard of Virginia, and on which he has several sawmills, employing over one hundred workmen, also natives of Maine, reports to the Government that while on a short visit to his home, his men were all seized, put in jail and compelled to stay there or enlist in the Southern army. Mr. Spear says that if the Government will provide steamers he will rescue his men, but neither the Cabinet or any of the other officials have taken action on the matter.

From St. Louis.—St. Louis, May 14.—The first four regiments of U. S. volunteers, under command of Cols. Blair, Bornstein, Sigel and Schultner, have been formed into a brigade, of which Capt. Lyon has been elected Brigadier General commanding. He has accepted, and will retain the command of these regiments by authority of the President.

Emmet McDonald, Captain of the Mounted Rifles, belonging to the Southwest expedition, refusing to swear allegiance to the United States or to accept of his release on parole, is still confined in the Arsenal as a prisoner of war. Judge Treat, of the U. S. Circuit Court, was petitioned yesterday for a writ of habeas corpus, and his decision is anxiously looked for, as it will involve the constitutional question which has been raised relative to the capture of Camp Jackson.

The munitions of war captured at the camp were three 32-pounders, a large quantity of balls, bombs, several pieces of artillery in boxes, 1200 rifles of a late model, 6 brass field pieces, 6 brass mortars, one 10-inch iron cannon, several other cannon, several chests of new muskets, 5 boxes of cannister shot, 96 10-inch and 300 6-inch shells, 25 kegs of powder, a large number of musket stocks and barrels, between 30 and 40 horses, and a considerable quantity of camp tools. The number of prisoners taken to the Arsenal was 649 men and 50 officers.

New York, May 14.—The Post's Washington dispatch says the mail service between Washington and New York will be resumed after to-day, in the usual manner. No change will be made in the command of the fleet off Pensacola. It is regarded as not improbable that federal forces will march from Wheeling to Martinsburg, Va., and take Harper's Ferry in the rear.

A Washington dispatch to the Express says orders have been received from the War Department directing General Wool to assume command of Fortress Monroe.

Among the passengers in the Adriatic are Ministers Wood to Denmark, Fogg to Switzerland, Harvey to Portugal, Commodore Engle and Capt. McKinstry of the Navy.

Advices from Havana 6th, by barque Harriet Brewster, report money tight and much distress among the commercial community. The extensive failure of a banking house had occurred. The gunboat Crusader was expected on the 10th to act as convoy to the Florida fleet, which was all ready.

Baltimore, May 14.—A special dispatch from the Frederick correspondent of the American, says a small body of federal troops arrived at Monnocacy late last night. The captain came to Frederick and examined the barracks probably with a view to quartering the troops.

He says the Virginians have strongly fortified the Maryland heights overlooking Harper's Ferry.

The Virginians are very confident, and evidently have no intention of evacuating their position.

On Sunday 7000 stand of arms and 12 cannon arrived, 20 more of the latter were expected the same night. A bitter feeling pervades Washington county against the Virginians and a collision is considered not improbable.

Ross Winans was most cordially received by the Virginians, and much eagerness was manifested to see him.

The Legislature has adjourned to the 4th of June.

Western Virginia.—An intelligent Western Virginian, a bearer of dispatches to Washington says Western Virginia will form a separate State beyond question. It will include 45 counties.

All supplies from the Ohio valley for the subsistence of the Rebels, are entirely cut off from transportatation on the Bantimore and Ohio Railroad.

Two thousand Western Virginia troops have been sworn into the service of the the United States.

Two Ohio regiments are ready to cross the river at a moments notice to Wheeling. No attack on the Wheeling Convention by the rebels is apprehended in consequence of the preparations the Union men have made. The Union men have a number of pieces of artillery in Wheeling. The convention is harmonious in action.

Washington, May 13.—It has been determined by the government to move an immense force down the Mississippi. Nearly the entire northwestern force will be pushed in that direction. Commodore Stringham, who is in command of the blockading squadron, will proceed at once to the Mississippi. The Minnesota is to be the flag ship of the squadron. His instructions are said to be of the most vigorous character. Although comparatively an old man, he is capable of performing more labor and enduring greater hardship than any other officer in the Navy.

Washington, May 14.—The following is the number of infantry regiments to be called from each State for the total increase of 75 regiments of three years volunteers: New York, 11; Pennsylvania, 10; Ohio, 9; Illinois, 6; Indiana, 4; Massachusetts, 5; Missouri, 4; Kentucky, 2; Wisconsin, 2; Michigan, 3; Iowa, 2; New Jersey 3; Virginia, 2; Maine, Maryland, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Minnesota, Delaware, Kansas, Nebraska, and the District of Columbia, 1 each. The other regiment of cavalry not assigned.

Charleston.—It was stated in Charleston that a fast-sailing Spanish vessel had been furnished with letters of marque, and had sailed on a cruise.

A blockade was especially dreaded by the citizens, it being felt that in that case the supply of provisions would be effectually cut off.

☞ Baldwin's Cornet Band of Manchester, which is attached to the 1st N. H. Regiment, went to Concord on Tuesday. The Mirror states that every member enlisted for three months as "they are all willing to blow for their country."

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

Taunton, Mass., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,

Gents—After suffering much with Dyspepsia and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the Oxygenated Bitters. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them without hesitancy to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I tend in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, Lovett Morse.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

For $1,50 we will furnish the Daily Chronicle from this time to Jan. 1st, 1862.

☞ Mr. Ephraim Jackson, this week, while turning a lathe in the Steam Mill machine shop in this city, put his head near the piece he was turning, when the shaft caught the hair on the top of his head, drawing him down to the shaft, against the square head of a set screw that was in motion, which cut his scalp up in a ragged mass, laying a place on the skull bare as large as a silver dollar, at which time his hair gave way, and he was freed from the shaft; otherwise the head of the screw would have worked through his skull and produced death. Dr. Folsom dressed the wound, and it is doing well.

Some years since, a machinist in a neighboring town was choked to death by the ends of his silk neckerchief, being caught by the shaft he was turning, drawing his wind-pipe on to the shaft, fastening him tightly down, and instantly depriving him of speech and life.

All machinists should wear on their necks spring stocks, which, if caught by the piece turning, will immediately pull off; and they should also wear short hair.

AN ANCIENT AND HONORED UMBRELLA.—Mr. Chas. A. Wiggin has in his possession the blue silk umbrella which was held over the head of the Marquis LaFayette, on the day of his well-remembered visit to Portsmouth, in the year 1824. The day, as we well remember, was showery,—and as the selectmen of the town were about to go out to meet the illustrious visitor, Mr. Joseph Wiggin, of the Board, purchased the Umbrella of John & Joseph B. Ball, buying rather a nicer one than he would probably have done on any ordinary occasion.

When the visiting party arrived at Wibird's Hill, and the illustrious guest uncovered his head, Mr. Wiggin, happening to be the only member of the Board with an umbrella at hand, spread the beautiful new article, and held it over LaFayette, sheltering him from the shower.

The actors in that scene have most of them passed away from this stage of action in the many intervening years; but this memento of that scene and that shower, of the hand that held, and of the head that was sheltered, is in good order, and perfect every way, with a frame far more substantial than the fabrics of to-day.

☞ A mysterious firing was heard in this vicinity about midnight on Monday.—We are informed that it was not at either of the forts, as some have supposed, but appeared to be off the mouth of our harbor. The night was stormy and it may have been that some vessel discharged signal guns for a pilot;—but whatever the fact, it certainly has occasioned considerable wonderment in this city.

☞ Orders have been received at the Navy Yard to build one of the Steam Sloops-of-War authorized by the act of the last Congress, and the keel will be laid forthwith. Thus our mechanics have another opportunity to prove their superior skill, and we doubt not they will in due time have ready for active service a vessel which will be at once an honor to them and to the Navy.

CAMP CONSTITUTION.—Platoon officers are charged with the duty of immediate supervision of the police of their respective divisions. They are directed to encourage their men in all reasonable and proper recreation or amusement, while off duty;—but to strictly prohibit smoking, gambling, or other dangerous and vicious practices, in quarters.

As the practice of carrying pistols, knives, or other small arms while in camp, is an unnecessary exposure to accident, Captains of Companies are directed to collect all such small arms in the possession of their men, and to deposit them for safe keeping in the Arsenal near the camp, until otherwise ordered.

☞ The following appointments of company officers for the Second Regiment have been made:—

Captains.—Tileston A. Barker, William O. Sides, John N. Bruce, William P. Austin, Orsino A. J. Vaughan, George H. Gillis, Henry C. Handerson, Evarts W. Farr, Edward L. Bailey.

Lieutenants.—Herbert B. Titus, John S. Sides, Jonathan R. Bagley, John W. Lawrence, James Murphy, William W. Weller, Richard Ela, William H. Ramsdell, Welcome B. Crafts.

Ensigns.—Henry M. Metcalf, John S. Rand 2nd, Willard N. Harradon, John Dean, James B. David, David O. Burleigh, Charles H. Worth, Hiram K. Ladd, Joseph A. Hubbard, Harrison D. F. Young.

☞ Mr. Gilman B. Hoyt has taken the well-known and conveniently-situated saloon on Congress street, recently occupied by Mr. Newell, and has repaired and refitted it throughout. As he was long the popular landlord of the Granite House in Exeter, and there proved that he "knows how to keep a hotel," any one in pursuit of Oysters, Ice Creams, &c., will do well to patronize him.

SONS OF PORTSMOUTH.—On Wednesday afternoon a portion of the Sons of Portsmouth residing in Boston manifested their love for their "dear native town," in a most feeling and appropriate manner.—About 6 o'clock the Goodwin Gvards, under command of Capt. Sides, were drawn up in a hollow square in front of the North Church, and presently a Committee of the Sons, accompanied by Gov. Goodwin, appeared before them.

Hon. Charles Levi Woodbury then addressed the Guards in a speech replete with patriotism, feeling and eloquence, and presented to them, in the name of the Sons of Portsmouth, a beautiful silk American Flag, with 34 golden stars, the broad white stripes untouched, that the recipients might "win their own inscriptions in glorious battle for country and liberty." Capt. Sides, in a few words, accepted the flag, and assured the generous donors that the men under his command would never suffer its glorious folds to trail in the dust. Gov. Goodwin then most appropriately tendered the thanks of the citizens generally to the Sons, and urged the members of the Guards to do all in their power to bear that glorious flag in triumph until the supremacy of the law should be vindicated, and peace should reign throughout the land.

Samuel H. Gookin, Esq., followed in a stirring and patriotic address, expressing the unanimous desire of all the Sons to take part in this testimonial by a few of their number, of their appreciation of the brave conduct of our noble volunteers.

On the staff is a silver shield, with the following inscription:

"Presented to the Goodwin Guards by S. H. Gookin, Chas. Levi Woodbury, Jas. H. Weeks, M. B. Kennard, James T. Fields, F. E. Parker, J. Wendell, Jr., Wm. Sheafe—Sons of Portsmouth resident in Boston, May 4, 1861.

"Let your watchword ever be—Country, God and Liberty."

☞ A large crowd of citizens assembled to witness the flag presentation last evening,—but it would have been five times as great, had not the gentleman who acted as committee of arrangements here, neglected to give public notice of the event. Perhaps he don't know of the Daily Chronicle.

NAVAL PREPARATIONS IN PORTSMOUTH.—They have a report in Charleston that an expedition against that city is being fitted out at Portsmouth, N. H., to be composed of a large force of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont militia. There is certainly much activity at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and great naval preparations are going forward on the coast of Maine—for what purpose the South will doubtless find out before long.—Atlas.

☞ The Proprietors of the Athenæum have offered the freedom of their rooms to the commissioned officers of the Second N.H. Regiment.

☞ The Ladies are requested to meet this morning, at half-past 9 o'clock, in the Unitarian Chapel, prepared to work in that place for the Volunteers.

☞ The Patriot states that it is understood that after the departure of the 1st N. H. Regiment, the Second, now stationed in this city, will be transferred to the Camp in Concord.

☞ Lieut. Bailey, of the Abbott Guard, has received his commission as Captain of that corps.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for the time when he loveth against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York; upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease:—when he knows that if death should take him away, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it well testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system disjointed, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to hours of suffering. Some disease or sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obnoxious which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is equally true in many more serious and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the digestive organs, prolonged action on the part of the system, and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in, some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons:

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities again triumph in New Orleans. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place your Pills decidedly ahead of any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease to obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best medicines I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their mildness of action makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. A. Hunt, Methodist Minister, Marion, Ala.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HINES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the sick everywhere. Never before that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe our success originates in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when with my patients I find it necessary to be very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hamlin, of the Methodist Episc. Church

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1854.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my kidneys and bladder, causing excruciate pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 2 Dec., 1854.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous as a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

O. J. WOOD, Esq. — Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting the effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting the effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they knew it was humbug, for they had tried it without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scaly scalp, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1820, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experience which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Re ten Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this article does not depend for its evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all diseases. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attached to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '56.

PROF. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never found a thing to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle and commenced to use it, and found it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from dandruff and other unpleasantness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IS THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His name is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. It has been the boast for centuries, Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he was, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be restored. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 27—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with is now the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of unadulterated purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and injurious drugs, we have appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character;—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 30 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by numerous persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEBRE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

Such News we are receiving Daily.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked; and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

PRICE $5.

ALSO ON HAND, A LARGE AND SELECT ASSORTMENT OF

—AND—
SILVER WARE,
Which I invite my customers and the public to call and examine, feeling assured that I can offer

FRIDAY, MAY 17, 1861.

DRUM AND FIFE.

The military necessities of the day bring back these old instruments of military music;—and yet they are not exactly the same old instruments, nor are they exactly like the old ones.

We were remarking, the other day, to a teacher of military and other bands, that we heard no such fifing now as we heard fifty years ago; and that very often we heard the drum only, until the company came very near, and then we heard the fife, blown correctly, but as we thought rather gently. Whether the change was in the fifes or the fifers, we could not say.

The musician answered, the new fife is quite another instrument, differing from the old in having a mouth-piece, which made it much easier to blow the fife, but which at the same time took away that brilliancy of tone which a good fifer brought out of the old fife, when he filled it by blowing strongly and freely into the instrument from his well-practiced lip.

In the old militia, up to the war of 1812, every company had a drum and fife; some companies two of each. Thus, in the old First Regiment, on Portsmouth Plains, say in 1810 or '12, there would be twelve or fifteen drums, and about as many fifes: in the latter year two or three bass drums perhaps.

With the fifes tolerably well tuned together, and all blown strong and shrill,—with the drums well strained up and beaten vigorously, it was not difficult to keep the step: nor was it an uncommon thing to hear the fifing and know the tune some miles away.

Near fifty years ago, some companies introduced the Clarionett Bassoon and flute. And in the time of the war of 1812–15, two German buglers belonging to the British army, came in here in a prize.—They had their bugles with them; and their playing on these instruments was the first ever heard here, as we suppose.

The recruiting parties for the U. S. Navy, and for the privateers, in the same war, used to have, besides drums and fifes, violins, triangles, cymbals, tamborines, &c.

From June 1812, when war was declared, to Dec. 1813, when the great fire took place, Portsmouth streets were very lively with such music as we have hinted at,—but from and after that terrible fire, the music went heavily, and the place was dull enough for years.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The next anniversary of our National Independence should be celebrated in every populous village and city in our free States;—celebrated by appropriate public exercises and orations;—not desecrated by spirituous liquors, street shows, and mimic pageants, which may excite laughter and merriment, but convey no useful and instructive sentiments. Such descrations of the day set apart to commemorate our priceless heritage, bequeathed by patriot sires, and our deliverance from foreign oppressions, we are happy to say have occurred in but few places. Since the Declaration of Independence, there has been no time more appropriate for the inculcation of the principles upon which our free institutions are based, and the diffusion of such sentiments as tend to inspire the friends of Liberty with patriotic motives to defend them against all conspiracies organized for the subversion of the National Government. '76.

☞ Hon. Charles Levi Woodbury, in his eloquent address to the Goodwin Guards, on Wednesday afternoon, at the time of the presentation of the Flag, alluded to the name of our honored Chief Magistrate as at once felicitous and suggestive, and peculiarly so to them, as they had seized and appropriated it as their own. And he exhorted them to bear and honor it always, that its syllables might ever read to them—"GOOD, in camp; WIN, on the battle-field," for the latter would be a necessary consequence of thorough drill backed by native courage and resolution.

The inscription on the staff is not exactly as we gave it yesterday. It reads thus:

"Let your watchword ever be—Union, God and Liberty."

☞ Orders were received in Dover last Friday to discharge all the members of the third Company who were not willing to re-enlist for three years. All but eight or ten immediately engaged for the required period, and several of those have since enlisted.

☞ Gen. Benjamin F. Butler is not a native of Maine, as some papers have said.—He was born in Deerfield, N. H., in 1818.

ST. LOUIS.—Dispatches of the 15th from St. Louis say:

The application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Captain McDonald, on Monday, was not granted by Judge Treat, in consequence of the petition being attested by a Justice of the Peace, and could not therefore be recognized by the U. S. Court.

Yesterday the U. S. Commissioner visited the Arsenal to certify McDonald's affidavit, and was informed by Gen. Lyon that the Captain was a prisoner of war, and moreover was not in Missouri. The affidavit of the prisoner's brother was then properly attested, and the writ was issued at 11 o'clock this morning.

Gen. Harney denies that any insubordination has taken place among the United States volunteers—but says, on the contrary, that they have submitted with alacrity and cheerfulness, to the discipline of the service.

The public schools of this city will be closed on Friday, in consequence of the act of the Legislature prohibiting the distribution of the school money.

☞ Although orders have come from Washington that no more troops would be received unless they enlist for three years or during the war, it is understood that those mustered into the service will be received; and as the First Regiment in this State had been mustered in, they will probably be marched to the seat of war in the course of a few days. Sixty horses have been purchased for its use, and fifteen heavy baggage wagons have been made for it, at Abbott's Carriage Manufactory; and their equipments are nearly complete.—They will go well provided, and will prove an efficient and reliable body of men.

TALES OF THE DAY, is the title of a new publication in monthly numbers by Messrs. Carter & Brother, Boston. The tales are to be original and selected. This first number is printed in very handsome style, and contains a half dozen stories by popular authors, some of which are to be continued. The promise and performance of the undertaking are thus far excellent. Price, 25 cents a number, or $2,50 a year, in advance. For sale in this city by J. F. Shores, Jr. Boston, A William & Co.

☞ The following is an extract from a letter from a gentleman in Iowa to a friend in this city:—

"Our city is the rendezvous for the State. 25,000 men can be raised in Iowa. Our able bodied citizens are all arming and drilling, and if Missouri secedes she will have her hands full; and in sixty days there won't be niggers enough left to cook the dinners of the whites. I was a democrat, but now I am a patriotic American citizen."

WESTERN GOVERNORS.—Harrisburg, Pa., May 14.—It is understood in high circles here that Govs. Curtin and Dennison have pledged the Union men of Western Virginia the entire support of all the forces of Pennsylvania and Ohio, to protect them against the home secessionists and Eastern Virginia. Indiana and Illinois have pledged the Union men of Kentucky and Missouri the same way.

The Governors of all the free States, from Pennsylvania westward, have united, and obtained a pledge from President Lincoln that no compromise or cessation of the war shall take place until the national flag floats over all the national property.

☞ "The Political Manual for the State of N. H.," has been issued by the publishers of the Statesman, Concord. It is a very convenient little book, containing statistics of the State Elections, the Judicial, Executive and Legislative officers of the State, and much other matter of interest to every voter. Price eight cents.

☞ The Newburyport National Guard, Capt. Westcott, has been attached to the 8th regiment now in Washington, and expect to leave Boston immediately. They voted unanimously to enlist three years or during the war.

☞ The Sch. Narcissa has been lying in Gloucester harbor for some days, having mounted in its rigging an effigy of Jeff. Davis, which has attracted much attention. The Narcissa was one of the vessels lately seized and plundered in Virginia.

☞ Four boys were arrested in Dover Wednesday, for breaking and entering the store of Chesley and Rollins, wholesale and retail grocers, and stealing pistols, knives, wallets, coppers, &c. Part of the property stolen was found upon them.

☞ The Wheeling Convention has adjourned to the 11th of June, without taking decided action upon the subject of a division of the State. A committee was appointed with power to call a meeting of the Convention before the time appointed, if it should be considered expedient.

☞ The Manchester Police have recently put on a uniform—or a uniform style of cap and coat;—the coat is blue, single-breasted, frock pattern, with bright buttons. The cap is blue with very slight trimming.

☞ The Postmaster-General has annulled the contract for carrying the mails between St. Louis and Memphis, owing to the forcible stoppage of the steamers by which they were conveyed.

☞ Here is the annual egg item:—

Mr. George W. Kidder, of Goffstown, has a hen of native breed, which recently laid an egg measuring 8 3-4 by 6 1-2 inches.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The assurance that the administration is vigorously prosecuting its measures against the insurrectionary States have a substantial basis. All the members of the Cabinet together with the President are animated by a common principle in furthering plans for consummating the government policy. An increased stimulus, however was to-day applied by a committee of prominent gentlemen from New York, who had a long interview with them. The result was a consent to accept 14 more regiments from New York. This meets with the concurrence of Gen. Scott.

The committee strenuously urge more prompt and effective measures, with no halt in the proceeding, and it appears from their present conversation that the supply of money to support this increased force is a matter that will occasion no unpleasant concern to the government.

A report is current that an engineer officer has discovered that the Virginians are throwing up defences within spy-glass view of Washington. This may be a repetition of a former canard. If confirmed, it is improbable that the government will remain an indifferent observer.

At an adjourned meeting of the Court of Claims, Judge Loring only being present, it was further adjourned to the 4th of July. Ex-Solicitor Gillette's name is suggested for the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Scarburgh.

During the last month the average weekly receipts from customs was not over $250,000.

The Virginia and North Carolina Collectors, like those of other seceding States, have ceased to make returns to the Treasury Department.

Marshal Fisher of the Eastern District of Virginia is the only judicial officer in that State who has not resigned. All of the North Carolina judicial officers have resigned.

The President has appointed George F. Talbot District Attorney for Maine, and Nathan A. Moulton Postmaster at Newburyport.

Gen. Butler sent a copy of his proclamation to the people of Baltimore to Gen. Scott and Secretary Cameron last night.—They replied, fully endorsing it, although much more lenient than was expected.

Gen. Butler took possession of the Armory there last evening.

He will send the Winans brothers, Gen. Trimble and City Marshal Kane to Annapolis. He has seven other important personages under arrest at that place, at the present time.

The President will protect the people of western Virginia, when appealed to.

A spy messenger with a large quantity of dispatches to Gen. Leo and Gov. Letcher, was detected last night by a New York detective, while on his way to Virginia. He had his dispatches secreted in a false bottom to his buggy seat.

The dispatches have the appearance of being from the regular rebel spies here.—The government will look into the matter.

There is reason to believe that the reported removal of the remains of Washington is untrue.

BALTIMORE, May 15.—Gen. Cadwallader's command, consisting of three regiments, arrived this afternoon at Locust Point, from Perryville. They marched first to Federal Hill, with a view of encamping, but for want of room proceeded to the large open space in the rear of Fort McHenry. Their march was witnessed by a large number of citizens, who were delighted with the fine display.

It is reported that Gen. Butler will return to Annapolis and that the Massachusetts troops now here will go into Fort Ross Munroe.

An unsuccessful attempt has been made by the Virginians at Harper's Ferry to blow up the culvert near Frederick.

Mr. Winans, after his arrest at the Relay House, last evening, was taken to Annapolis. This morning, under guard of a company of soldiers, he was placed in a steamer and sent to Fort McHenry, where he is now in the guard house. His wife went to Annapolis to see him, but arrived too late, and had to return to the city. She received permission to visit her husband at the fort. Mr. Winans to-day was nominated for Congress by an informal meeting of his friends.

F. H. Spencer, who was arrested a week since for treasonable language at the Relay House, has been released by Gen. Butler.

HARRISBURG, May 15.—Major Anderson arrived here this afternoon, but stopped only a few minutes. Governor Curtin and other State officials, and immense numbers of people greeted him. Camp Curtin turned out 12 companies to participate in the ceremonies of welcome. Major Anderson received repeated cheers. He stated that Governor Curtin that Mr. Breckinridge would join him at Cincinnati and would take command under him. The announcement created a profoundly gratifying sensation among all classes.

Major Anderson also stated that the European steamer which arrived yesterday brought a large quantity of improved modern arms for the federal government, and each succeeding steamer will bring more. He expressed the utmost confidence in the success of the federal arms, and of a reconstruction of the Union upon its original basis.

The action of neither branch of the Legislature was important to-day. They will not be ready to adjourn to-morrow noon, according to previous determination.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 15.—Twenty-one regiments of volunteers are now organized for three years. Col. Townsend's regiment has been mustered into the federal service and the oath of allegiance administered.

A wealthy citizen of New York proposes to donate $10,000 to form a Zouave regiment to be composed of colored men, six feet high.

The 16th, or Northern Regiment, Col. Davis, was sworn into the U. S. service today, and organized as a rifle company.

☞ This is the weather for grass. Although very backward, if we have warm rains, it will soon be in advance of the season.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Captains Single and McKinistry went to Europe in the Adriatic to purchase steam gun boats for the Government Coast Guard.

The World's Washington dispatch reports that all telegraphic communication south of Washington, is suspended, the rebels having removed all the wires. A new company has been formed, embracing all the southern lines.

The running of trains on the old schedule will be resumed on Thursday, between Washington and the North.

"Why, Mrs. B., how do you manage to have such nice light Bread and Biscuit?" "Because I use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. I never saw any half as good. I like it much better to use with cream tartar than I do soda. I shall never use any other. If you will try one paper, Mrs. W., you will say the same. It has almost cured my dyspepsia." Most all the Grocers keep it.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15.—It is understood that a commissioner from Havana has gone to Montgomery to confer with the Confederate Congress concerning Southern shipping at Cuban ports, against which the federal Consul General is acting in an unjustifiable manner.

☞ The Savannah News states that on the morning of the 9th a heavy cannonading was heard in the direction of the Carolina coast, at sea.

☞ The Second Regiment of Maine Volunteers, passed through Boston on Wednesday, and were handsomely received there.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for June, is issued, and is as good as any of its predecessor. The opening article describes the manufacture of gunpowder, but this is the nearest approach to the war question.

☞ Two of the companies of the 2d Regiment, N. H. Volunteers, Portsmouth and Keene, were inspected at Jefferson Hall, and marched through our streets on Thursday afternoon, dressed in their new uniforms of grey. The change in appearance is decidedly to their advantage, but as "they will fight as well as they look," the next change (which, we suppose, will be their appearance in some Southern locality,) may prove as much to the disadvantage of the rebels.

☞ The arrangements for the departure of the 1st N. H. Regiment are being carefully and vigorously made, by experienced officers. In addition to raising, uniforming and equiping the men, camp equipage, transportation wagons, horses, tents, &c., have been provided, so that when ordered away they will not be obliged to depend upon the hospitalities of citizens on the route, or compelled to draw on the government for supplies.

"STIMULATING ONGUENT".—Such is the title of a brilliantly compounded preparation (originating with the famous Dr. Bellingham, of London) for improving the growth, and beautifying the condition of the human hair. NEW YORK, May 16.—A dispatch from Frederick says it is rumored the Kentuckians at Harper's Ferry are without arms, have mutinied and declared for the Union, and are leaving for home.

An attempt was made on the night of the 14th inst., to blow up the bridge on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, but failed.

It is believed that the track above Frederick Junction is destroyed.

It is reported an order has been sent to the Pawnee, to have the secession flag at Alexandria taken down.

The Herald states that our Government has notified Foreign Powers that no vessels purchased by the Southern Confederacy will be respected, no matter what flag covers them; also, that this Government will break off all official connection with any Government recognizing the Southern Confederacy or receiving its Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Gen. Butler has been ordered to Gosport, Va., upon which, it is believed, an attack will soon be made.

There are only 2500 troops at Harper's Ferry. They have 20 twelve pound howitzers and are poorly equipped and provisioned.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply his remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. Hagan & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "Heimstreet's Hair Restorative," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

St. Louis, Mo., June, 1859.

Mr. Henry Reynolds,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, Heimstreet's Inimitable Hair Restorative, (prepared by W. E. Hagan & Co., Troy, N. Y.) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it is merits that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

LIFE INSURANCE.

"In the midst of Life we are in Death."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man makes provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them, thro' a life policy.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any one offered to the public.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to severe illness. If a disease is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy, Take Ayer's Pills, and clothe out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true of one sufferer in this vicinity and character, is true in some degree of the despondent and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the digestive organs of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of obscure sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and to her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ABA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DOC. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that is ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. In these complaints they have proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a cathartic which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1854.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best specimens I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy in those cases which arise from bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in ditto. To regulate the bowels, give digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fluids of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Tennant, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they will join with me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the parent of others that are worse. I believe in most diseases to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Sherr, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper times, are excellent for clearing off the bowel accretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hosten, of the Methodist Episc. Church

PULASKI HOTEL, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not write and say so to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. McDonald, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of inveterate Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me six years. VINCENT SIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Paperman Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or others, I have occasion to use your, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union, have occurred at this time in selling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have doubt are humbugs, it is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting their name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons who have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you had gone to living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to this communication addressed to me, care box No. 1220, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from testimonials and experience that cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of the very genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Orlando Rey, has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the hair had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attending to the use of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of injuring, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '50.

PROF. WOOD:—Dear Sir—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had spent much time and to get anything to do me any good—until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and it soon proved to be as you recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and in application once in two weeks keeps the hair from falling and other uncleanliness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, I do not think any person need consider it a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now free from trouble to an extent I thought it clean, for, then at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to appear forward, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT RESTORATIVE TRIUMPHS.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence far elevated, where the profession has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before enabled. His tone is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant hair covering. So much for celebrity. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached forescore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

GENUINE
Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of the highest importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meet the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is now universally reported by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in case containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for Private Use; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever.—Persons who require Pure Liquors and Wines, in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA
—OF—
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt-Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum; his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 90 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFFERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1859. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he conscientiously recommends the Bitters on their merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. R. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come part or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for

THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting.

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1861.

WAR—AND SLAVERY.

There is a very firm purpose apparent in the U. S. Government, at the present time, not to wage war against slavery in the several States; and much pains is taken to avoid any appearance of it.

In accordance with this view, Lt. Slemmer, Major Dimmick and Gen. Butler, in their several places, have denied fugitive slaves a refuge in their posts; and Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania has refused to let a free negro regiment or company cross his State, to go into Virginia.

In accordance also with the same view, the Boston Courier has these sentences:

It is most desirable that citizens of slave-holding States,—seceding and non-seceding,—who remain loyal to the Union, should feel confidence in the federal government, that its power is exercised for legitimate purposes—the preservation of the Union under the Constitution—not to excite or aid civil war, nor even to permit it where the national flag is the flag of the State. A State which repudiates the flag of the Union would, of course, repel any offer of aid from the federal power to preserve the peace within its territories; but where the flag flies, let us carry out our loyalty to the Union and to Union men.

This looks as if it were possible, and even lawful, in a rebellious State, to permit a servile war, by taking no pains to prevent it.

Elizur Wright, in an essay signed by him, and published in the Atlas, goes in strongly for employing negro troops—as follows:

Are we the stupendous simpletons to suppose the black man is going of course to fight, if he fights at all, on our side, without any guarantee for his freedom—while we, like a parcel of ultra-conscientious devils, faithfully hold ourselves bound to suppress servile insurrections and return runaway slaves? And are we foolish enough to suppose, further, that when we invade his Southern home he will not fight for his white master, when that white master, as of course he will, promises him his liberty for so doing? No matter what the promise is worth—under pressure it will be made.—Patriotism is a bump. It belongs to black heads as well as white, bond as well as free. Invasion will kindle it, and in its blaze the promise of liberty will be trusted, and black regiments under white officers will fight as such regiments always have.—At any moment, when they are hard enough pressed, the conspirators can and will adopt into their army against us, all those negroes from whom there is the least danger of insurrection, provided the federal government is stupid enough to leave them the opportunity.

It is very certain that no man knows whereunto this war will grow; but it is certain that the slave power began it, in the Charleston Convention last year, and recommenced it at Charleston as soon as it was known that Lincoln was elected President.

The leading men who represent this power, have shown in Congress and out of it, what they aim at, viz., that slavery shall be the paramount interest of this country,—the main object of its government,—and that they, Cobb, Floyd, Davis, Wise, Mason, Wigfall & Co., must be the rulers. Cotton must be the King, and they the Princes.

For this they make war; for this they aim to subvert the Government. To oppose this, the Northern Democratic Douglas party stood and voted day after day, at Charleston. To oppose it, Democrats all over the North and Northwest shoulder their muskets and stand in the ranks, the post of danger, with their fellow citizens of all other parties except the traitors.

It is not to be expected that all this mighty host are taking up arms that enslaved negroes may be freed; but with thousands it is rather that themselves, free white men, and other free white men like themselves, may not be enslaved under the rule of an aristocracy, as contemptible and mean as it is arrogant and arbitrary.

But let us repeat it—No man knows whereunto this war will grow. It is quite possible that the negro State which struck the first blow and stole the first dollar to revolutionize the Union, may find itself revolutionized long before the war is over. And it is by no means improbable that the border slave States, which have bowed themselves down, like the strong ass Issachar, between two burdens, may find their own consequence snuffed out some dark night—and when the morning dawns again, may find out that slavery was snuffed out also.

Negroes in the Revolution, and in the war of 1812, showed themselves brave soldiers and good sailors. It will not be strange at all, in this war, to see them yet acting a very important part—and no man knows what that part will be. Remember they now out-number the whole population of the Thirteen Colonies, which went thro' the American Revolution.

ANDERSON AND BRECKINRIDGE.—Col. Anderson arrived at Cincinnati on Thursday. He did not meet Mr. Breckinridge there, and so the latter's loyalty needs confirmation. It is said that a gentleman riding in the cars from Philadelphia to Harrisburg received a letter containing the announcement, and that he told it to Col. Anderson, who related it to Gov. Curtin. It is feared at Louisville, that on the arrival of Col. Anderson, there may be an outbreak between the Union men and the rebels.

When the story was told to Col. Anderson, he received the intelligence with much warmth, as Breckinridge was an old personal friend, but he is said to have remarked that the news was almost too good to be true.

It seems quite improbable that he would take command under Anderson,—and if he would, he is unfit to be trusted.

A Louisville dispatch says:—

Advices from Lexington and Frankfort state that everybody ridicules the report of Breckinridge taking command under Col. Anderson. It is also universally discredited here.

WASHINGTON'S DUST. — The rumored removal of the remains of Washington from Mount Vernon, is not credited at Washington.

None of the Managers of the Mount Vernon Society at Washington have any knowledge of the removal of the remains of Washington beyond what has been published. They reasonably suppose that if facts were as represented, those in charge of the place would have informed them.—John A. Washington has no legal right to move the dust of the Father of his Country to any other locality. This is evident from an examination of the deed of purchase by the Association.

A correspondent of Lynchburg Virginian gives as a report the removal of Washington's remains, on the ground that the North was going to do the same.

☞ Gen. Butler's military ability has been practically recognized by the President, who has promoted him to be Major General. The General remains in command of Annapolis, but rumor says he may be sent to Fortress Monroe. Col. Dimmick, at the latter place, is a brave and loyal soldier, as his answer to the rebels who asked him to yield possession of a bridge, clearly shows; but the garrison is to be very much increased, so that a general officer will be required. A large number of troops passed through Baltimore on Thursday.

☞ We learn from the Newburyport Herald that the war has called away sixteen undergraduates from Harvard, ten being secessionists. Three are in Massachusetts regiments in Maryland and Washington, and three in Fort Independence.—In this last post are the orator and the poet of the Senior class, and it will be necessary to omit the usual class day exercises this year, as the poet's lines have fallen in such different places, and the orator finds it necessary to lay aside his usual weapon—the pen, and take up the less powerful sword.

☞ Up to Tuesday morning there had been completed and delivered at the Massachusetts State Prison, 78,000 Minie rifle bullets, 2100 towels, 800 tin canteens covered with cloth, 2200 tin dippers, 55 sheet iron mess kettles, 100 sheet iron mess pans, 800 leather sheathes for carrying knives and forks, a large number of pants, and some other articles. Large contracts are still to be filled. The work was commenced on the 20th ult., and has been vigorously prosecuted. The convicts have been several times called upon to labor nights, and have done so cheerfully.

☞ Rev. Wm. S. Perry, formerly of Nashua, was instituted Rector of St. Stephen's church, in Portland, on Thursday. Morning services were read by the Rev. Mr. Burgess, of St. Luke's church, assisted by the clergy of the Diocese. The sermon was by Rev. F. D. Huntington, D. D., of Boston, and was an able production.

After the services, the Wardens and Vestry of St. Stephen's church, and the Wardens of St. Luke's church, with the clergy of the Diocese, dined at the International Hotel.

GEN. BEAUREGARD.—The Atlas states that "a letter was received in Boston, last week, from a lady in Charleston, in which she stated that she had just returned from attending the funeral services of Gen. Beauregard, who died from wounds received at the Sumter attack." Won't Gen. Beauregard please come out with a card in one of those gentle Charleston papers and tell us whether he is dead or not!

The sale of the three free colored men, taken by the Texans on board the Star of the West, into slavery, is an outrage upon every principle of honor, humanity and law which will receive the scorn of the civilized world.—Boston Post.

This is right, says Uncle Toby—and the civilized world at this day scorns the whole slave trade, in all its various branches. It is left to traitors and thieves to advocate and fight for it.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—In the case of the Walnut street tragedy of Saturday night the verdict is that six were killed by musket balls fired by United States troops by command of an officer unknown to the jury. That two were killed by pistol shots fired by a person unknown.

Keokuk and Quincy papers say that hundreds of Union men were driven out of Missouri under orders issued by a Southern legion.

A dispatch to the Democrat says that Dr. Leivner has been arrested at Liberty township and sent to Jefferson City for trial by martial law, for raising a company of Union men.

The military encampment of 200 State troops at St. Joseph, mostly armed with guns stolen from the Liberty Arsenal, was dispersed on the 13th.

Enlisting at the Arsenal continues active. About 300 enlisted yesterday.

It is reported that the government has leased Hyde Park, in the northern part of the city, and will quarter there.

NEW YORK, May 16.—A dispatch to the Post states that Congressman Ashley of Ohio proposes a plan to float an army down the Mississippi river to take New Orleans.

A dispatch to the World says that the troops are to be ordered rapidly to Washington from New York and Pennsylvania.

It is believed that 10,000 Pennsylvanians are moving towards Maryland.

The transfer of Gen. Butler to Fortress Monroe and sending there large quantities of ammunition and stores, is believed to indicate important movements.

Advices from Fortress Monroe state that on Monday a band of secessionists at Hampton sent a deputation to Col. Dimmick, demanding the sole possession of the road leading across the Dyke, which has been lately under guard of the garrison.

Col. Dimmick's reply was that he would give the rebels just ten minutes to disperse. Two companies of Massachusetts troops were then ordered forward, and cannon were place so as to sweep the entire distance. The Colonel with watch in hand waited for the expiration of the time, when not a rebel was to be seen. Two hundred Massachusetts troops then took possession of the Dyke and bridge, and will treat all rebels in the same way hereafter.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Maine Regiment sailed to-night in the steamer Coatzacoalcos for Washington.

A special dispatch to the Herald, from Wheeling, Va., states that passengers have returned from an attempt to reach Baltimore, and report two culverts on the railroad near Harper's Ferry blown up, and the rails torn. The rebel troops are hourly expecting an attack; they numbered 3000 strong.

A full regiment of Union men will be in camp here in a few days. The secessionists have been ordered to leave.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Tribune's Washington dispatch says, Mr. Patten of Maine is said to be instructed to build several gunboats, to be armed with Dahlgreen's guns, for blockading purposes.

Three companies have been ordered to Long Bridge, on the Potomac; one has crossed, one is at the draw, and one at this end.

The World's Washington dispatch says that a passenger via Harper's Ferry reports that the rebels are erecting fortifications on the Maryland Heights, and have erected one of railroad iron, twelve miles below the Ferry.

It is reported that considerable discontent exists among the troops at Richmond.

Gen. Wool was to day ordered to Fort Monroe.

Steam gun boats Mount Vernon, Resolute, Reliance and Thomas Freeborn sailed last evening under sealed orders.

The Times' dispatch says, "A Government messenger from Cairo reports all in good condition there, with anticipations of an attack and hot work."

Gen. Butler has been ordered to the command of Fort Monroe, and the entire Massachusetts contingent is to be ordered there. Gen. Butler will have over 15,000 men at Fort Monroe in less than ten days, and a squadron to act with him. It is expected that Gosport will be taken as the first step toward Richmond.

WELLSBURG, May 16.—A number of secessionists from below report the temporary detention of a party of Virginians, including Judge Brockenbrough, a member of the Montgomery Congress, at Gallipolis.

ELMIRA, N. Y., May 16.—Ninety companies of volunteers are now here, twenty of which have been formed into regiments. The rest will be formed as soon as possible.

☞ The Claremont Eagle states that Rev. Robert F. Lawrence is about to dissolve his connection with the Congregational Church in that town. Mr. L. has been settled there since 1839.

MARRIED,

In New York City, May 12, by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Mr. MORTIMER THOMPSON, better known as "Doesticks," to Miss GRACE ELDRIDGE, eldest daughter of "Fanny Fern." The patriotic mother of the bride had an elegant American flag arranged as a canopy, beneath which the happy couple were united.

THE CALCIUM LIGHT IN WAR.—The government has made an arrangement to use the Calcium light at Fortress Monroe, to illuminate the waters of the Chesapeake. By the aid of this light, the garrison at Fortress Monroe will be able to detect any vessel that may attempt to pass the fortress in the night, and give its artillery a distinct object on which to be effective, no matter how great the surrounding darkness.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a medicinal agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

THE DRUM-STICKS.—Our item about the Drum and Fife has brought out a pair of Revolutionary drum-sticks. Capt. Geo. W. Towle has at his recruiting office, a pair of drum-sticks which were used in the battle of Bunker Hill. The drummer said he was beating his drum when Warren fell, and that he saw him fall. The sticks have been preserved in his family ever since. They are of heavy black ebony, and are roughened with cuts by a knife, to prevent slipping.

SUICIDE AT CHELSEA.—Mrs. Miriam Leach, 60 years of age, and belonging in Newburyport, hung herself on Thursday morning at the residence of Mr. S. Jones, Chelsea, where she was visiting. The act is attributed to intense grief consequent upon learning that her son, who resides in New Orleans, had joined the rebel service, in an armed vessel. Mrs. Leach was a native of Kittery, Maine, and was the widow of Daniel Leach of that place. She was an estimable woman, of warm affections and keen sensibilities, which were wrought up by affliction to insanity and suicide.

A dispatch from his brothers in Newburyport, states that Capt. Joseph Leach, (son of the above,) is not commanding the privateer steamer W. H. Webb, of New Orleans, as has been reported.

☞ There was considerable trepidation among some half-a-dozen ladies, who came across the river in the Navy Yard boat on Thursday afternoon. There was a strong breeze, and considerable "chop" consequent thereon. When part way across, the boat came very near a schooner, which, under full sail, was taking a short tack, heeling considerably and dashing the spray from her bows, as she swiftly plowed her way through the water. A gentleman in the boat recommended that they should cut across her bows. Mr. Anderson, who knows so well just what is safe in such emergencies, paid no heed to the suggestion; but the ladies, regarding silence as equivalent to consent, as ladies are apt to do, especially when asking some "right" of their inferior half,—became alarmed, and matters quickly approached a crisis. One of the boatmen became alarmed, dropped his oar and stood up; in consequence of which the boat approached very near to the schooner,—so near, in fact, that a person in the former could easily have placed his hand upon the rudder of the latter. The schooner and the danger passed, the man recovered his wits and his oar, the ladies subsided, and at length the boat rounded to at the slip, some of the passengers joyous that they had escaped the great dangers of the deep.

☞ The U. S. Circuit Court adjourned finally on Friday evening. In the suit Ring vs. Hutchins and Woods, the jury returned a verdict for the plantiff for $2214.81. This was an action for taking a large quantity of lumber. The defts. claimed it, as they held a mortgage on the land where it grow.

Lewis W. Clark, Esq., of Manchester, was admitted an Attorney of the Court, and Henry Heywood, of Tamworth, was appointed a Commissioner.

☞ The workmen at our Navy Yard certainly do a large amount of work in a short time. Either there has not been enough done there of late years for them to "get the hang of the school-house," or, what is more probable, they make it their object to do their duty, and not merely to draw their pay. At any rate, there are no laggards in their number now. Since the order was received to fit out the three vessels, unusual activity has been maintained. A few days ago, we are told, a gang of calkers were assigned a certain piece of work, with the injunction that it must be finished within a week. The men went at it, the sound of the hammer was heard, huge piles of oakum disappeared, and at the end of two days the job was done well.

☞ Rev. Mr. Eddy will hold a service on the parade ground near the barracks, tomorrow morning, at 9 o'clock, should the weather be pleasant. The entire 2d Regiment will be present, and it is reported that the Manchester Cornet Band will be in attendance.

In the afternoon, at 4 1-2 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Medbery will preach at Fort Constitution.

☞ A flag with the stars and stripes was thrown to the breese on Thursday last, by the pupils of Eliot Academy, in the presence of a large collection of the citizens—when an Ode was sung by the Choir and patriotic speeches were made by the Principal, G. A. Hammond, Esq., and Rev. Otis Holmes, after which three cheers were given for the stars and stripes and for the Union.

☞ Hon. Jos. B. Adams of this city, Sheriff of the County, has been appointed by Marshal Gilman a Deputy Marshal.

☞ See auction column for a good chance to buy Furniture, Carriages, &c.

☞ Company C, Governor's Horse Guards, had a drill and parade at the Portsmouth Plains, Friday afternoon. They dined at the Rockingham House, Gov. Goodwin and Gen. Stark being among the guests.

☞ While Wm. A. Rand, the junior clerk in Wm. R. Preston's apothecary store, was engaged in making Catholicon, the cistern fell on his left foot, severely lacerating a number of his toes.

☞ Gov. Goodwin has appointed Hon. Ira Perley, Gen. George Stark and Capt. Paul R. George, commissioners to prepare such bill or bills as may be proper to be submitted to the Legislature at its next session, touching the military organization of the State.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents; $1 per year, in advance.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the battle of the business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

The Ladies of Portsmouth have been engaged for several days at the Chapel of the Unitarian Church in Court street, in working for the Volunteers. As there is much work yet to be done, it is hoped that every lady of Portsmouth who can make it convenient, will come in and give a helping hand.

MORE SOUTHERN BRUTALITY.—There seems no limit to the infamous outrages of which the traitors at the South are capable. We heard yesterday of another shocking illustration of the treatment to which men from the North are exposed in Southern cities.

Mr. Charles H. Walden, who was for some time Dep. Collector of N. Y., went to Savannah about a year ago with his family, and engaged in business as a Custom-house broker. A few weeks since he went with his wife to Montgomery, leaving at home his two sons, Charles and Lionel, the former 21 and the latter about 18, together with two or three smaller children. Soon after his departure the two boys were called upon to enlist in the secession army.—They evaded the requisition from day to day, until, finally finding there was no escape, Charles, the eldest, escaped secretly from the City and came North by way of Memphis and Cairo, arriving at New York on Tuesday.

On Wednesday a letter was received here from his father, still at Montgomery, stating that a body of men called on Lionel to impress him, and on his resisting they killed him on the spot. The details of this barbarous brutality will of course, never be known.

Charles and another brother in this City have joined the Thirteenth Regiment. They have private wrongs to redress, as well as public outrages to punish.

The above is from the New York Times of the 15th. Mr. C. H. Walden is a grandson of the late Jacob Walden, Esq. of Portsmouth.

THE LOST SHIP BALTIC.

This large merchant ship, under command of Capt. Zerega, left Liverpool on the 24th of Jan. for New-York, 114 days ago, and no tidings having been heard from her, there is now little doubt that the vessel and all on board are lost.

A shipmaster who left Liverpool the same day informs us that the weather was very stormy.—He was 17 days getting out of the channel, and for seven days his boots were not removed from his feet. He saw nothing of the Baltic after leaving Liverpool.

Capt. Zerega's wife accompanied him in his voyage and has doubtless shared his fate. Mrs. Z. was Hattie Ricker, the eldest daughter of the late Moses D. Ricker, of this city, who with his wife, were drowned from his ship in the Indian Ocean, about two years ago. Capt. Ricker was the adopted son of Capt. Andrew Daniels of this city, who was also drowned from his ship on the coast of Europe more than thirty years ago. The widow of Capt. Daniels is still living, quite infirm, and under the severe and repeated afflictions which the dangers of the sea have brought upon her, frequently expresses regret that her own grave had not been the ocean, and her burial taken place at the time of her husband's.

Mr. Zerega leaves one son in New York of about 4 years of age, who is with his grandfather. Capt. Ricker leaves a son of about 10 and daughter of about 8, who by this loss of their sister and her husband are orphans indeed.

Gen Harney, a Missourian, has recently addressed a letter to Col. Fullon at St. Louis, urging Missouri, for very cogent reasons assigned at length, to remain true and loyal to the Union.—Gen. H. speaks of having been forty-two years in the military service, and we all know that he distinguished himself as an active and fearless veteran in the Mexican war. On his way to Washington he was arrested at Harper's Ferry, and sent to Richmond, a prisoner, but not there detained but a few hours. He refutes the idea that he ever entertained the thought of resigning. He had thought it wise for the General Government "to bear with patience outrages that no other could have endured. But when the Confederated States, with 7000 men, under cover of strong fortifications or impregnable batteries, assailed a starving garrison of 70 men in Fort Sumter, compelled the banner of the United States to be low, and, and boasted of its dishonor before the world (Gov. Pickens' glorification speech) the state of the question was immediately changed." "My hands cannot aid in the destruction of the Government."

Pennsylvania has voted three millions in aid of the Government, and is equipping fifteen regiments more than the call of the Proclamation. Pennsylvania, New York, and Ohio alone can and will furnish men and means sufficient to meet the present rebellion in its greatest extent.

ORDERLY SOLDIERS.—We understand that although we have not far from one thousand soldiers now in Portsmouth, there has not a single one yet been brought before our Police Court on any charge of misdemeanor. Those of our citizens resident near the barracks speak in the highest terms of the good order that prevails. It shows that they are sound men, who have entered upon the service as a duty to their country, not for the purpose of a pastime and a frolic. These are the men who can be relied upon in the hour of trial.

The amount of provisions consumed by the troops at Camp Constitution is considerable.—There are used daily 3 barrels of beef, 3 of pork and hams, 1 of beans, 300 loaves of white bread, and 125 of brown, besides other articles.

The following, obtained from headquarters, will show the average daily consumption of provisions by five thousand men:—

Fresh beef,	6500 lbs.
Bread,	6500 lbs.
Sugar,	600 lbs.
Coffee,	300 lbs.
Candles,	100 lbs.
Salt,	4 bush.
Beans,	13 bush.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Humors, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

Oakland, Tex., Oct. 20, 1860.

J. C. AYER & Co.: Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it would come in the form of my hands and arms; sometimes it would break out upon my face, and for years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines, and consulted physicians, but without much relief from any thing. Finally, the disorder grew worse. At length I was reduced to make the deeper Mississippi that your Sarsaparilla as an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I used to Constantinople it, and used it till it cured me. I think it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful one a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin seem disposed to form under the scabs, with which the whole left off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel well, when I write to tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Price, Fort Wayne, Allen Co., N. Y., 13th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla. Also, of a case of Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; and he cures the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Newark, Wayne Co., N. Y., writes: "Scores of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most powerful alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in female diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Inward St. Marcus, of Newark, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in our family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptoms of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

New Orleans, Utah, August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful. In the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease, one of my patients had Syphilitic abscesses in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, chiefly taken, cured him in five weeks. Another case attended by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, and was fast extending, disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, and enjoying a vigorous constitution to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks, as I know from its friends, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great benefit; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Personally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

Ingersoll, Tioga Co., Pa., 13th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I cannot do less than give a public testimony in favor of your Sarsaparilla for a long time, which I attribute, with the skill of physicians, and next to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a valuable medicine.

Julius V. Gaskill, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been confined to my house for some years from no other cause than derangement of the liver. My friend yonder, the late Dr. Berg, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because, said he knew of no other remedy. My friends urged

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER
UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.
They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.
Dr. JAMES L. LEPEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."
E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."
Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.
THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart, and at times severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."
GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."
J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails) that he constantly recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.
D. R. CALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.
TO THE LADIES.
CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled
Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread it will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.
THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.
Every Machine Warranted.
PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.
☞ Be sure to call and examine.
I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting!

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MAY 20, 1861.

GENERAL BUTLER AN ABOLITIONIST. Don't be frightened at this head, good reader: we get our authority for it, from the Baltimore Republican of Tuesday, which says:—

Our citizens were taken by surprise last night when they learned that General Butler and his Massachusetts forces had quietly left the Relay House and taken up their quarters on Federal Hill, overlooking our city. * * * Certain it is, that Maryland is now, thanks to the wisdom and courage and patriotism of Thomas Holliday Hicks and his indorsers, completely under the guardianship and control of northern abolitionists. Baltimore city is surrounded with State troops, and if they were animated by the spirit of those at their homes, it would be but a holiday pastime for them to place the torch to our houses, and butcher our wives and children by the light of the conflagration. What they would do, God only knows. No human reason can divine what is before us.

Not only Gen. Butler, who returned the fugitive slaves to their masters, but every man who adheres to the United States government, or goes out in its armies,—must expect to be branded as abolitionists, by the Baltimore Republican, and other papers of that class. The idea of Ben. Butler's abolitionism borders on the ludicrous, now,—but be and other officers of the army may yet deserve the name and rejoice in the deed.

AN IMPUDENT TRAITOR.—The rebel Gen. Twiggs considers Mr. Buchanan's denunciation of him, just before he left Washington, as a personal affront. He therefore addressed a letter to Mr. Buchanan, after the latter had retired from office, dated East Pascagoula, March 30, holding him personally responsible in the following language:

"Your usurped right to dismiss me might be acquiesced in; but you had no right to brand me as a traitor. This was personal, and I shall treat it as such, not through the papers, but in person. I shall, most assuredly visit Lancaster for the sole purpose of a personal interview with you. So, sir, prepare yourself. I am well assured that public opinion will sanction any course I may take with you."

If Twiggs comes through Maryland, Ben Butler will catch him and lock him up.—But seriously, does such a man as Twiggs suppose any public opinion out of Bedlam would bear him out in a personal attack on the old ex-President? If he does, he will probably live to see himself a fool.

CLOSING A CHURCH.—The minister of the Universalist Church in Washington City, writes thus to the editor of the Christian Ambassador.

All the male members of my congregation, except three, having enrolled their names as soldiers for the defence of this city; and the Government being compelled to use the church as a hospital, our meetings will, of course, be discontinued for the present. We are ready to make much greater sacrifice than this, if the exigencies of the times shall demand it. I should be painfully humiliated to hear that a Universalist could be found consorting with the enemies of our glorious Government.

☞ "Bread, gentlemen, bread is the Staff of Life," said Lord Peter, in the old dialogue. It still remains so—but sometimes it is a poor staff.

We have before us from Mr. J. F. Shores, Jr., a pamphlet designed to make bread as good as may be. The title is:—"The Theory and Art of Bread-Making, a new process without the use of ferment. By E. N. Horsford, Rumford Professor in Harvard University, Cambridge."

☞ A Volunteer from Lyme, belonging to the Nashua Company of the 1st N. H. Regiment, died at Concord, and was buried under arms by the entire Regiment, with a Band, on Friday about sundown. The body was deposited in a tomb; and the services are said to have been exceedingly solemn and impressive. The man's death was caused by fever, of which we learn several others are sick.

☞ A writer for the New Orleans Picayune ventilates his ire upon Gen. Butler and the Massachusetts troops as follows:

"All the Massachusetts troops now in Washington are negroes, with the exception of two or three drummer boys. Gen. Butler in command, is a native of Liberia. Our readers may recollect old Ben, the barber, who kept a shop in Poydras street, and emigrated to Liberia with a small competence. Gen. Butler is his son."

☞ The remains of Luther C. Ladd, who fell in the fight at Baltimore, and who with his last breath shouted "All hail the Stars and Stripes," were buried at Alexandria, N. H., on Wednesday of last week, with military honors.

ELECTION SERMON.—The Statesman publishes a nearly perfect list of the clergymen who delivered discourses before the Legislature of New Hampshire, at the commencement of the June session. The first was by Rev. Samuel McClintock, of Greenland, in 1784, and the last by Dr. Nathan Lord, in 1831. The preachers from this vicinity were:—

In 1786, Samuel Haven, Portsmouth;—1788, Samuel Langdon, Portsmouth; 1789, Oliver Noble, Newcastle; 1790, John C. Ogden, Portsmouth; 1796 and 1809, Wm. F. Rowland, Exeter; 1806, James Miltimore, Stratham; 1808, Nathan Parker, Portsmouth; 1814, Peter Holt, Epping;—1826, Ferdinand Ellis, Exeter.

The usual vote of thanks and compensation were voted to Pres. Lord, but in the House on Tuesday, June 21, 1831, a resolve for the appointment of a committee to select some person to preach the discourse in June, 1832, was voted down by 137 to 81; that was the end of the ancient usage.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A special dispatch to the Herald from Cincinnati states that the report about Breckinridge is unfounded.

Gen. McClenan has sent 5000 guns for the use of the Kentucky Unionists.

Col. Anderson is likely to receive a grand ovation at Louisville.

Dan Rice's circus flotilla was menaced by a mob last night, and demanded that he should hoist the Union flag instead of his own. He escaped by crossing over to the Kentucky shore.

The remains of Washington were conveyed to Lexington, Va., and interred in a suitable mausoleum.

[Col. Lee, by letter denies the truth of the above statement.]

No bridges were destroyed. New batteries have been erected on the hills at Harper's Ferry since Wednesday.

Gentlemen from Virginia confirm the report that an army invading the State will be harassed by numerous bands of guerrillas.

Four men from each Company in the District were selected today, and sent off on secret service.

The Secretary of War has accepted the Chicago Brigade, 3000 strong.

The Postmaster General will suspend all steam mail service in the seceded States today (Saturday.)

The Virginians have vacated the soil of Maryland, and the hights will now be occupied by Federal troops, thus commanding Harper's Ferry.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—An agent from France is travelling through the South collecting information there on commercial and political matters and prospects.

The President and Cabinet had an hour's important session to-day, after which Mr. Seward had a long interview with Gen. Butler.

The government has determined to take charge of the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad in Missouri.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—Steamer Richmond arrived from Washington via Fortress Monroe, saw last evening, off Cape Henlopen, Steamer Yankee, with three prize steamers in tow bound north.

Orders for building one of the seven new sloops-of-war has been received at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. The vessel is to be pushed rapidly forward.

MAINE ITEMS.—The Aroostook Pioneer states that immigration to that part of Maine has thus far been unusually large this spring. There will be a large number of settling lots taken up this season, and much land cleared.

When the Norway volunteers received their pay and bounty at Portland, many of them immediately deposited their money in the Savings Bank.

In Franklin county there is a woman 6 feet 8 inches tall, weighing 350 pounds.—She wears a No. 12 shoe.

The prospect of the grass crop is most cheering, and the weather has been favorable for the preparation of the soil for seed. So says the Kennebec Journal.

NEW YORK, May 17.—One hundred volunteers for the British Regiment arrived this morning, from Boston, and proceeded to their quarters.

The Maine regiment was detained by orders from Washington on account of reported sickness, but were ordered to proceed to-day.

U. S. steamer Crusader, at Havana from Key West, reports that the yacht Wanderer has been taken by the U. S. sloop St. Louis, for the federal government.

Steamer W. H. Webb, arrived at Havana from New Orleans under the U. S. flag, has been sold, and transferred to other parties.

[This is the steamer of which Capt. Leach was said to be Commander.]

☞ Evil disposed persons having conveyed ardent spirit into Camp Union, Concord, secreted about their persons, the officers of the Regiment now subject visitors to examination. On Friday afternoon, the Governor elect, Geo. G. Fogg, Esq., the senior publisher of the Statesman, and other gentlemen, were subjected to a search by the vigilant sentinels. We were pleased to learn that nothing contraband was found upon them. One gentleman, who did not understand the thing, said he thought they were mighty particular in smoothing him down before his appearance upon the Muster Field.

☞ An engineer from New York was detained at Harper's Ferry as a spy, but effected his escape, and now refuses to tell what he saw there. As he was confined in the guard house, his range of vision was undoubtedly extremely limited.

MR. SEWARD'S LETTER.—Washington, May 17.—The following important letter was written yesterday by the Secretary of State:—

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, May 16

Sir:—I received your letter of yesterday, asking me to give you in writing my reasons for considering the acceptance on your part of Governor Letcher's proposition to purchase steamships Yorktown and Jamestown, recently seized by his order and now in his possession, an act of treason, I readily comply.

An insurrection has broken out in several States of the Union, including Virginia, designed to overthrow the Government of the United States. The executive authorities of that State are parties to that insurrection, and so are public enemies.—Their action in seizing or buying vessels to be employed in executing that design is not merely without authority of law, but is treason.

It is treason for any person to give aid and comfort to public enemies; to sell vessels to them, which it is their purpose to use as ships of war, is to give them aid and comfort. To receive money from them in payment for vessels, which they have seized, would be to attempt to convert an unlawful seizure into a sale, and would subject the party so offending to the pains and penalties of treason; and the government would not hesitate to bring the offender to punishment.

(Signed) W. H. SEWARD.

To G. Huneken, Agent, &c.

ITEMS FROM WASHINGTON.—Another gentleman arrived here to night from the South. He states that some trouble was brewing among the troops at Richmond when he left. They had become discontented at some commands which had been issued. There had been no less than four different commanding officers at Harper's Ferry, within a month.

Passengers who arrived to night by the western train, passing through Harper's Ferry, state that the rebels are busy erecting fortifications on the Maryland Heights. They have erected one, twelve miles below Harper's Ferry, of railroad iron, on the principle of the Cumming's Point battery, which did such execution in the reduction of Fort Sumter.

The steamer Pawnee continues to lie off Alexandria, with shotted guns constantly bearing upon the city. The people are very indignant, and make many threats, but are powerless to carry them out.

Extra Billy Smith, of Virginia, is here. He has announced himself a candidate for either Congress that his constituents may choose to send him to.

The President has been importuned by men prominent in public life, and who hold high official stations, to confiscate southern property located in the North. They desire him to interfere in the transfer of real estate, and base their position upon the ground that southern men decline to pay debts due North, and do not hesitate to seize property wherever they can find it. To one of these delegations—and there have been several—Mr. Lincoln calmly listened, and then said, "No, gentlemen, never." "But they do it," replied the spokesman. "They," rejoined the President, "can afford to do wrong—I cannot." And so that question is settled.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The statement that Ross Winans of Baltimore was unconditionally released is unfounded. There is authority for stating that he was only released by order of the Government, upon his giving his parole of honor that he would do no act openly or covertly hostile to the government of the United States.

Gen. Mansfield issued the following order to day:—"I ordered by telegraph the agents of Adams' Express at New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, that in future no express matter, inclusive of letters, is to be permitted to go South of this city into Virginia. Last evening Col. Stone seized by my order the Express matter, and stopped all contraband goods, but allowed the balance to go forward."

Ex-Governor Reeder was to-day appointed Brigadier General by the President.

The reopening of the line of travel from Baltimore north and north-west has been the signal for a rush of travel to Washington. Yesterday's and to-day's train brought hundreds of passengers.

An Irish brigade, over one thousand strong has been tendered by major Mulligan and accepted by Secretary Cameron for service during the war. It is probable that their destination is Washington.

The Departments daily receive bushels of letters from applicants for places military and civil. The inflexible rule is that such letters cannot be answered.

BLOCKADE AT CHARLESTON.—BRITISH VESSELS ORDERED BACK.—Washington, May 17.—The Charleston Courier reports that the British ship Hilgia, from Liverpool, was refused admittance on the 12th, to the harbor, by the frigate Niagara. British ships Monmouth and Parkhill were also ordered off. British ship A. N. A. was pursued into shoal water and was towed up. British ship Susan G. Owens for Liverpool, was boarded and permitted to go.

The Quaker City towed ship Arago of Bath, to sea from Richmond with a cargo of tobacco valued at $100,000. Capt. Stringham put a crew on board for her protection till she reached New York.

HANGING WRONG END UP.—A man was found at Norwalk, Conn., one morning recently, hanging by the heels head down, from a picket of the fence around the Union factory. He had been in that position since one o'clock in the night, when he had tried to climb the fence to get inside. He must have felt like hanging the other way awhile.

A UNITED NORTH.—The Democratic and Republican flags float side by side in Claremont, on the same halyards, with their Unions joined in token of loyalty and fraternity. The arrangement was made at the suggestion of the Democrats,—the Republican flag staff having been blown down last week.

EXETER, April 24, 1861.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Rockingham County Agricultural Society, held this day—the death of Morrill M. Coffin, Esq., Secretary of the Society, was announced by the President; and the following Preamble and Resolutions adopted by the Board.

Whereas, A vacancy has been caused in this Board by the untimely decease of M. M. Coffin, Esq., our Secretary; and we deem it fitting and proper that some public notice should be made by us of the sad event—therefore,

Resolved, That it was with the most sincere grief and heartfelt sorrow, that we learned of the sudden death of our late dear friend and valued associate, Morrill M. Coffin, Esq., Secretary of this Board and this Society.

Resolved, That to his untiring devotion and eminent fitness of qualifications for the office, was due much of the success of the Fairs of this Society for the past few years.

Resolved, That we bear glad testimony to his faithfulness to all his numerous duties,—to his uniform courtesy to his companions in this Board—and to his bearing as became a Christian gentleman, in all the walks of life.

Resolved, That while we are deeply conscious of the loss which this Board and this Society have suffered; yet we cannot be unmindful of those to whom he stood in yet more intimate and dearer relations; and that to his wife and entire family, this Board beg to be allowed to tender their most sincere and heartfelt condolence and commiseration, in their affliction; and to suggest that however great their burden—however irreparable their loss—yet for comfort, they have the assurance that "the memory of the righteous is blessed," and that "he who lives in Christ can never die."

Resolved, That these Resolutions be entered on the records of the Society; and that a copy of the same be forwarded by the Secretary, to the widow of the deceased.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice. Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, MASS., July 2, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that this simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

CAMP CONSTITUTION. — On Friday evening last we visited the barracks at the South End, and were politely conducted through them by Major Fuller, Quartermaster of the Regiment. Just as we arrived, a detachment of soldiers filed out to receive their rations, which, that evening, consisted of a liberal slice of what is commonly known as a brick loaf, ditto of brown bread, cold beef, butter, cheese, and a large can of coffee. We were favored with a taste of the coffee, and although we expected it would prove good, we were somewhat surprised after all to find it so excellent.

The cook room is a long, one story building erected for the purpose: it contains several large "coffee pots," arrangements for preparing soup, beef, &c., for the soldiers, and very many plates, cups, &c., of a color very nearly resembling that of silver. On Friday morning, eight barrels of soup were prepared, and of this large quantity only two and a half buckets remained after the wants of the men were supplied. "Two and a half buckets of soup left," might be rather appalling to a good housewife, but if we consider the large quantity prepared, when the wants of a thousand men are to be regarded, (and it might be more difficult to average these in regard to soup than some other articles of food,) we can partly realize how efficient Col. Hadley and his assistants are.

From the cook-room we passed to the barracks. Here were collected, in the different sections, nearly one thousand men, yet there was no unusual noise or disturbance. Many were lying upon the straw, wrapped in their blankets; one, on being questioned if they slept soundly, answered—"sound as bricks," which gave us a very vivid idea of that depth of soundness which plummet never reached. But this strange collocation of ideas we attributed to the strong odor of tar which prevailed.—In one spot a small squad were singing, to the rattle of the bones; in another, two or three were reading papers by the dim light of a lantern, while all seemed to be cheerful and contented.

No serious accident has occurred, nor have any of the soldiers been seriously sick. The Hospital is now well arranged and Dr. Hubbard attends the soldiers faithfully. A lady of this city, on Friday afternoon, kindly carried down a large number of sheets, hospital shirts, &c., which were very acceptable. Many other little acts by ladies of this city, are appreciated by those most interested, but we are not at liberty to particularize.

HORSE GUARDS. — Company C., Governor's Horse Guards, Capt. M. C. Burleigh of Great Falls, were out in good numbers for drill, at the Plains in this city, on Friday. Upwards of thirty sat down to a capital dinner at the Rockingham House; and Gen. Stark improved the occasion to re-acknowledge the indebtedness of the regiment to Governor Goodwin's fostering care and liberal encouragement—to which His Excellency replied in his usual appropriate and earnest manner, in compliment to the Guards. The ranks of Co. C. are gradually filling up, and they will no doubt appear at the June parade, fully organized as the 3d Company.

☞ We hear much regret expressed that no previous public notice was given, of the Presentation of the flag to the Goodwin Guards. Those whose business or pleasure fortunately called them to the vicinity of Market Square at the time, were favored with the opportunity to hear the truly eloquent and interesting speeches, but very many others, including all the ladies, would gladly have been auditors to Messrs. Woodbury and Gookin, the former being well known as an able speaker, and the latter achieving a reputation "in his own country," as a ready, eloquent and earnest, as well as patriotic orator, and delighting all his audience.

☞ We are indebted to the courtesy of Joseph M. Edmonds, Esq., Deputy Collector, for the following list of appointments at the Custom House: Charles C. Whittemore vice Edward S. Wendell, and Joseph D. Pillow vice Albert Hayes, Inspectors; Foxwell C. Staples, Messenger, vice Enoch Bartlett; and Elias T. Holbrook, Boarding Officer at Newcastle, vice Thomas Curtis. John H. Frost, as already announced, was appointed Inspector a week or two ago. The other Inspectors, at Dover, etc., are not yet appointed.

2D REGIMENT.—We are informed that there is no authority for the statement, which we copied from the Patriot, that this regiment will be transferred to Concord after the departure of the first.

☞ A local Home Guard has been organized in Frankfort, Kentucky, and the Hon. John J. Crittenden stands the first on the list of privates.

☞ All the leading organs in the seceded States are now exhorting Jeff. Davis not to attack Washington.

☞ The Champion Hose Man publishes a card in the Dover Union, and we copy that portion of it relating to this city, tho' he falls into one or two errors, and rather shocks our prejudices by referring to our schools as "places of amusement."

A CARD.—I feel it my duty to return my sincere and heartfelt thanks to that noble-hearted gentleman John E. Rider, Esq., President, and to all the members of Ex. 6's Associates, for the kind reception given me, and the escort to the Franklin House, and the bountiful supply furnished for the "inner man;" and for those pleasant rides to Fort Constitution; our visit to the school room, and to all other places of amusements. I here feel and owe you more than I can express on this occasion. Not forgetting my old friend, Albert Foye, Vice President of the Ex. 6's, who is always on hand.

To the Portsmouth Cornet Band, for their splendid music upon the occasion; to Capt. Scriggins and members of Laconia Engine Co. No. 2; to the officers and members of the Goodwin Guards; to Capt. W. O. Sides and members of the Portsmouth Volunteers, who have so nobly volunteered to defend our flag, trusting that through the Providence of God, you may all return safe to your homes. To His Honor, Mayor Simes of Portsmouth; to mine host of the Franklin House, Webster Barnabee, for all the favors which were freely given me, and all assistance that was rendered me upon my arrival, and during my stay with you, which shall never be forgotten—remember my promise to you, Web; and to all others, if any I have herein omitted, please accept my thanks for all favors received, and should you ever visit Dover I cordially invite you all to come and see me.

Yours Truly, H. H. CHAMPION.
Dover, May 16, 1861.

☞ Mr. John H. Downs of this city, has been appointed Boatswain in the Navy.

☞ The Gospel Banner, published at Augusta, Me., thus reveals another of Secretary Floyd's treasonable and despicable acts.—

"Not many months since, by order of Secretary Floyd, cartridges amounting to more than two hundred barrels of powder, were broken up at the arsenal in this city. The purpose of the order was, at the time, a mystery; but it is clear enough now.—A strong gang is now at work at the arsenal making up the same powder into cartridges. Of course Mr. Secretary Floyd has played a similar game at various government establishments throughout the country."

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—As Mr. Jas. Corcoran was coming up the road, not far from the Haverhill Alms House, Thursday afternoon, he was met by a stranger, who asked the time of day; and on Mr. Corcoran's taking out his watch—a valuable gold one—made an attempt to snatch it. He obtained only a part of the chain, and then struck Mr. C. in the face with a stone. Mr. C. gave him two pretty hard blows, and left him, as he supposed, senseless; but on his return from a house not far distant, the rascal had decamped.

☞ Among the many strangers yesterday in the city, are Hon. Gilman Marston, Representative from this District, and Adj. Gen. Abbott, of Concord.

Parties direct from Harper's Ferry report only 4000 troops there, with many Unionists among them, who were induced to enlist by a false report of another John Brown raid.

One object in scattering the Confederate troops in so many counties in Virginia is to make sure of a secession majority by their votes.

The true Remedy for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.—It is acknowledged on all hands that the Oxygenated Bitters are the true remedy for these complaints. They are free from alcohol, and contain, judiciously combined with hygienic substances, oxygen, the chief vital element.

LIFE INSURANCE.
"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."
The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.
THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,
invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues
POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.
POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.
PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.
The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.
The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.
No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OXFORD, Ind., 6th June, 1860.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways from my childhood. It showed itself out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and humiliating beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was required to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I know not from your representation that any thing you made must be good. I went to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses at first, increasing over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the best benefactors of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED R. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 17th Sept., 1860, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he has cured the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me of a very obstinate Goitre or swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulcerations, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. S. B. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a valuable alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous Diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was sure to heal. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Murrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of my females is fully healed, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, for at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physicians thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had been from childhood in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cleared him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, and of course without some deformity in his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that a change from a dry to a damp atmosphere excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know more its formula, which your agent gives me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, O. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, during which the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. The bottle cured me in two weeks, and I am in general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

JOHN N. Gothard, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; that I thought would relieve me, for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel strong again. I believe that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Scirrhus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cures have been reported to us where cases of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit of such. Some of these cures are published in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates their vital functions when they are languid, and overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the medical of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it seems here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its wonderful confidence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. In this commonwealth, or even families, among them will have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the fatal and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs, or can know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and so they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in traveling the greater part of the last three or four years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all; but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize such articles at no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation, and have met with some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subjected to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care Box 1223, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In one seven virginity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all who find hair falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of his preparation, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess the power to restore of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its ingredients are purely innocent.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June 7, '60.

PROF. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—I was induced some then a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and it has never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to say it is indeed an universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps the free from itching and other supplementaries. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has become almost its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence so lofty, so far above attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be restored. He tested his own case—was bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—*N. Y. BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is a matter of some importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling, reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

TRAGEDY FROM BURNING FLUID.—On Wednesday evening, says the Boston Traveller, the wife and child of Mr. Francis Chisholm, in Winchester, Mass., were burned so severely by the explosion of a can of burning fluid as to cause their death. The child died soon after the accident, the mother on Thursday morning. The particulars, as given by the mother, are these: The can was under the sink in the kitchen, and the child got hold of some matches, lighted them, and placed them into the nose of the can, which instantly exploded. The mother had all her clothes burnt off from her, and rushed out of the house with her hair on fire, when her neighbors came to her relief. Her body was terribly burned, but she lingered in great agony, although conscious, until death released her from suffering.

☞ The editor of the Williams County (Ohio) Leader learns from a gentleman in whose statements he relies, that there is now organized a company of cavalry, consisting of two thousand picked men, each of whom has a good horse, a Sharp's rifle, a sabre, and a brace of revolvers. They are located at present in Iowa, Kansas, North Elba, N. Y., Canada and the Western Reserve, where they respectively belong. Virginia has seceded, and as soon as the war is opened, these men will invade that State on their own hook. The plan of the raid none know but those engaged in it. Two secret agents passed through Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, two weeks ago.—John Brown, Jr., is now in Canada.

SINGULAR DETECTION OF A BURGLAR.—The Boston police arrested Robert W. Marsh and John Howarth, for breaking into the house of Deacon Moses Grant, on Friday night of last week, and stealing $73 worth of silver ware. Howarth, recently discharged from Mr. Grant's service, was arrested on suspicion, but denied all knowledge of the robbery. He was identified as the burglar, however, by a plaster found in a drawer which he had ransacked, and which had accidentally fallen from a boil on his wrist. He then confessed the crime.

☞ At a party in a dwelling-house in London, a short time since, a lady who was playing on the piano caught her dress on fire from a candle. Other ladies rushed to extinguish the flames, when they caught fire too. Five ladies were burning at one time, and their screams were awful. The gentlemen present were unable to quench the flames for some moments. Two of the ladies were so much injured that they died.

☞ Forty-three traders and trading firms in Nashua publish a notice in the papers of that city, stating that being desirous of reducing their expenses as much as practicable in these times, they will close their stores at dark on five of the secular days of the week, exempting Saturday evenings from the list. Why may not their fellow traders in this city do likewise?

☞ The Albany Journal says, as an indication of the growth of public confidence, loans to the amount of over fifty millions of dollars have been offered to the Secretary of the Treasury, and all at or nearly at par! The Boston Post adds, what better evidence that the storm by which the country is convulsed will be weathered, can be afforded?

☞ About twenty runaway slaves arrived in Philadelphia on Friday of last week, and scarcely a day has passed since the commencement of the present difficulties, but one or more escaped negroes have made their way to that city.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1859, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and the last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious remedy for that disease I ever used.—WM C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by thousands of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS

The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEPERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the m st severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. CARPENTER, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1861.

☞ Rev. Gerald Fitzgerald, Chaplain of the Mass. 12th Regiment, preached at Fort Warren on Sunday morning last, from the text, "Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live." He said that there had been different opinions upon the subject of what constituted a good soldier. It had been said that the worse the man, the better the soldier. He did not believe this, and the difference of opinion gave him a right to express his own. This was a holy war in which they were engaged, and it was a duty to fight. They would be better soldiers for being better men. The preacher said that it might not be out of place to state what he considered to be his duty. He hoped that they would find him a young man, and not an old woman. He should sympathize with their pleasures and amusements, and they need feel no constraint in his presence. He should feel himself honored to have their confidence. He should endeavor to sympathize with and understand what was good in them, and should find pity in his heart for what was weak.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says the reports that Gen. Scott is crippled with gout, afflicted with rheumatism, and feeble and infirm, are without the least foundation. He is out daily among the troops, active, energetic, and jovial, and alights from his carriage with the agility of a youth. The rumors are in keeping with the reports in the Virginia papers that Mr. Lincoln has been lying stupefied with liquor during the last ten days. Uncle Abe never crooks his elbow.—Boston Post.

Our files of Texas papers have been received, and from them it is apparent that the Rio Grande frontier is entirely defenceless. As a natural consequence organized bands of robbers and Mexican banditi are making incursions. The residents deplore the absence of United States troops and find their homes pillaged. Thus Texas is begining to reap her reward.—Boston Post.

☞ The Newburyport Herald is responsible for the statement that a member of the Mass. militia, when his company was called, rushed home and persuaded his wife to bead him up in a molasses hogshead, where he remained for three days, being fed through the bung-hole.

Says the Mobile Register—"Woe be to the Northern battalions that meet the first shock and outburst of the fiery valor and fierce indignation that have fused in one compact mass the entire Southern mind and heart. If the war last five years, the terms of peace will be dictated at the gates of Boston." You are too far North, Mr. Forsyth. Recollect you must get your compact mass past Washington first!—Boston Post.

ANNIVERSARIES. — The Universalists have decided to postpone nearly all of their usual anniversary meetings in Boston, in consequence of the excited state of public affairs. The meetings to be held include the Prayer Meeting for every morning;—the College Meetings on Tuesday; and the Sabbath School Meetings.

MEASLES.—Never within the memory of the oldest inhabitants have there been so man cases of the measles in our town, as at present. It is reckoned that there are over three hundred cases now, and no knowing where it will stop. It seems to have thoroughly permeated our schools. No fatal cases have yet occurred, although many bad cases are now under the care of the physician.—Dover Union.

☞ "Maine Standard" is the name of a new paper just started in Portland, and published by Brown Thurston under the supervision of the Maine Board of Trustees for Temperance. Price $1 a year in advance.

☞ The Paris correspondent of the London Chronicle, says:—

In consequence of the gravity of the political situation in the southern parts of the United States, the Government is about to send there an eminent diplomatist, to observe and report on what may occur.

Gravity, we apprehend, will soon be the distinguishing characteristic of the Southern rebels.

We received a copy of the Boston Post yesterday, returned from Alabama, with this endorsement upon its margin—"Take your paper and go to H—ll." We have no objection to taking the paper, but are opposed to joining the Secessionists.—Post.

☞ Next Sunday is the Day of Prayer for the Nation, appointed by Ministers of several Churches in Rhode Island, including Bishop Clark. It is suggested to observe it all over New England.

☞ The citizens of Annapolis having complained of colored persons in the camp tampering with slaves, they will not hereafter be allowed to pass the lines.

PERSONAL.—Judge Douglas has written a patriotic letter defining the position of Union men. The Senator is quite sick at Chicago, of typhoid fever.

Hon. Howell Cobb has written a letter to the Athens Banner, in which he announces his intention to retire from public life at the expiration of his present term of office. He is now President of the Southern Congress.

Leroy P. Walker, Secretary of War, and Judah P. Benjamin, Attorney General, in Jeff. Davis' Cabinet, are to change places.

Hon. John J. Crittenden has declined being a candidate for election to Congress.

Senator Bayard of Delaware, publishes a letter relative to his position, disclaiming any connection with the Southern Confederacy while South; that his visit there was purely a social one; and, deprecating civil war, if after the assembling of Congress he finds no chance for a settlement, he will not misrepresent his constituents, but resign his seat.

Horace Bishop died at Adrian, Michigan, last week, aged 100 years. He served four years in the revolution, and stood sentry over Major Andre at his execution.

General Cass is resolved, even in his old age, to die with harness on his back, and has mounted his old uniform, and reviews his troops, now congregated in Detroit, every morning. He has contributed out of his private fortune $25,000 to the equipment of the Michigan volunteers, and $10,000 to the support of their families during their absence.

Jeff. Davis' cousin, a young man at Rockford, Ill, born at Natchez, Miss., has enlisted. He expresses his great anxiety to put a ball through his traitorous relative.

The Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman has authority from John C. Breckinridge to contradict the statement which has been made to the effect that he was in favor of the Confederate troops marching into Kentucky to shape and control her action.

Per contra, we have before us the Louisville (Ky.) Journal, which says it can prove the statement of Breckinridge's disunion talk. But it adds these declarations were all made before last Saturday—when Kentucky gave an overwhelming vote against disunion!

It is likely now that he and those like him would like to crawl back.

☞ The Sullivan Republican, which has been published at Newport, N. H., for the past two years, has been discontinued. The following usually appeared over its list of marriages:—"Seek a good wife of thy God, for she is the best gift of his providence." And, over that of deaths:—"There is a reaper—Death." We regret that the Republican should so soon prove its mortality.

A NEW DODGE.—A southern writer says:—

"The Southerners do not want Fort Pickens, unless the confederated government is acknowledged by the European powers. There is now in Pensacola ten thousand secession troops camped. Their being there is but a bait. The entire distance from Pensacola to Washington can be passed over in five days, as there is rail the entire distance. Some fine morning Lieut. Slemmer and his garrison will wake up and look on an empty camp."

Don't want it—will they leave all those Columbiads which they have been at such an expense to mount; and have they so much money that they can throw away on a "bait?" Then it is admitted that the "confederate" government will not be acknowledged by European powers. This is coming down considerably.—Atlas.

A battle field is wanted, exclaims the Baltimore Clipper—"the Gulf States inaugurated the war, but they don't want the battles fought upon their soil. They have had an army before Fort Pickens for months, but they won't make the attack because they say some of their men will get hurt. They want to get rid of the fight, and they push it upon Virginia.—Virginia in turn has begun to be a little squeamish about it, and she is trying to push it over upon Maryland. We don't want this nuisance among us, and what is more we won't have it. If Virginia don't want it, she can push it back again upon the Gulf States, which have cowardly sought to make the Border States a shield between them and danger."

☞ A gentleman of this city, who witnessed the reception of the Maine regiment of lumbermen, at Boston, says he never saw a body of men, in which all were so large, and apparently so strong.

MAIL AGENT.—Mr. Brown, of Exeter, N. H., has been appointed route agent on the Eastern Railroad, in place of Samuel Crowell, removed.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says the house of Mr. Brees, in Amesbury, was entered on Thursday night, by a burglar, and four hundred and seventy dollars, all in American gold, was stolen.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Stephen A. Douglas is somewhat better, but his condition is still critical.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 13.—The wires were cut and rails torn up at Monocacy last night, but were repaired to-day.

☞ The telegraph reports Kentucky to have gone for Union, last Thursday, by an overwhelming majority.

☞ About half of the $15,000,000 Cotton loan has been taken and paid for in bills of the different States.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The transportation of immense bodies of troops to fortress Monroe takes place with the least possible delay. Major General Butler will forthwith repair thither, where he will establish his headquarters as coumandant of the new Military Department of Virginia, North Carolina and Tenessee. This is significant of future events.

A private letter dated "Frigate Minnesota, Friday," says we arrived from Boston on the 18th, and have seized about $300,000 worth of ships and tobacco. We are anticipating an attempt to fortify Sewall's Point, which we shall attack.

Government intends to render West Point Academy even more efficient than heretofore.

A number of appointments have recently been made from civilians to occupy Lieutenancies in the regular army.

The health of the volunteers in and around Washington is unusually good. The regiments already encamped manifest the most friendly feelings towards each other, and their general good conduct is remarkable.

The Montgomery Advertiser says Congress has decided to remove the Confederate Capital to Richmond.

NEW YORK, May 20.—A dispatch to the World says Arlington Heights will be occupied, by Wednesday, by 10,000 troops.

Secretary Cameron has declined to accept four regiments tendered by Gov. Hicks simply for the defence of Maryland and the District of Columbia. If the Marylanders enlist, they must enter the general service.

The corps d'armee to be advanced into Virginia will consist of 25,000 volunteers and 5000 regulars.

It is settled that no more troops will be accepted by the Governor under the last requisition. 220,000 have already enlisted

The Tribune says three of Ellsworth's Zouaves brought in a secession flag, seventeen feet long, which they hauled down from a pole in Alexandria.

MONTGOMERY, May 18.—Congress has passed bills organizing a patent office, regulating telegraph lines, authorizing the issue of fifty million in bonds papable in 20 years at 8 per cent., and twenty millions in treasury notes of small amounts without interest.

A bill was introduced exempting the cars from duty.

A bill was passed defining, the limits of the port of New Orleans, which embraces all the waters, inlets and shores on both sides of the Mississippi River, within the Parish of Jefferson on the right bank to the upper line of D'Estrehaus canal, and on the left bank to Huntsville. The ports of Bayou, St. John's, Lakeport, and Ponchartrain are abolished and the duties are to be collected at New Orleans.

An act was pas ed abolishing the mints at New Orleans and Daldonega after the 1st of June.

Arkansas was admitted to-day as one of the confederate States.

WASHINGTON, May 20. — Gen. B. F. Butler left to day for Fort Monroe.

Government has determined to release all persons under arrest as spies on their taking the oath of allegiance to the Union.

A collision between the federal troops and the rebels at Harper's Ferry, this week, is deemed certain.

☞ Orders have been received at Concord to break up Camp Union there, and for the 1st Regiment N. H. Volunteers to proceed at once to Washington.

The 2d Regiment (for three years) for which enlistment is now going on in this city, will also proceed to Washington as soon as completed.

☞ Marshal Kane and his comrades in Baltimore, have suddenly become very quiet and inoffensive. Gen. Butler's proclamation has had a most salutary effect. He is roundly hated, though, by the secessionists there, who express great satisfaction at his removal from that post. How his promotion will suit them is easily inferred.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Herald's Louisville dispatch states that the Frankfort convention will probably not be attended by the representatives of any other State except those of Kentucky. Two thousand dollars' worth of beef has been purchased here for the confederate army.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says a party of gentlemen, including an officer of the 7th New York regiment found every thing untouched at Mount Vernon on Saturday.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., May 19.—Judge Mason, late Collector at Baltimore was arrested yesterday. He said he came to Chambersburg to see if the people would buy four negro children, who se father he emancipated. He was released to-day.

ST. LOUIS, May 18.—The Democrat learns that the encampment at St. Joseph, has been removed several miles west on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, where batteries have been erected, trains stopped, and government stores detained.

Gen. Lyon refuses to release John Desur and others, arrested at Potosi, for being engaged in overt acts against the government, and liable to the penalties of treason.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA., May 18.—A deserter, who was impressed at Culpepper Court House and went from thence to Harper's Ferry, has arrived here. He states that his company were ordered to husband their powder and percussion caps, as they only had enough to fire five rounds. The rebels had only twelve cannon—five brass field pieces, the rest being old iron pieces, and they were short of provisions.

The confederate troops have committed daily depredations in Maryland for ten miles above the Ferry.

☞ Gov. Goodwin has requested Rev. Henry E. Parker, of Concord, to prepare a discourse to be delivered at the time of the inauguration of the Governor elect.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA. — Fort Kearney, May 19th.—The Pony Express with San Francisco dates of the 8th has arrived.

The San Francisco markets generally wore very firm, holders believing that Eastern shipments would be checked.

The civil war is the all engrossing topic, and thousands congregated in the streets on the arrival of the Pony Express, to learn the news. The sentiment in favor of sustaining the government is almost unanimous.

Union meetings are being held all over the State. The loyalty of California is beyond question.

The Douglas Democratic State Committee, 35 to 5, rejected on the 7th all overtures to unite with the Breckinridge party, and call a State Convention.

Sandwich Island dates are to April 16th. An affray had occurred between Commissioner Borlen and the editor of the Advertiser, growing out of recent Consular investigations.

The Oxygenated Bitters.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy for every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflicting dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters, a case of Dyspepsia cured was a rare experience in medical practice Now, under the influence of these Bitters, the rule is to cure—the rare exception, failure to cure.

From LOVETT MORSE, Esq., President of the Taunton Bank.

TAUNTON, MASS., July 2, 1860.

MESSRS. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.

Gents:—After suffering much with DYSPEPSIA and its attendant evils for more than seven years, employing the best medical skill that could be procured, I was induced, by advice of a friend who was a physician, to try the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Having tried so many advertised specifics, which seemed only to aggravate the disease, I began the use of the Bitters with no faith whatever in their pretensions. A thorough trial satisfied me of their excellent virtues as a remedial agent, and I commend them with confidence to the dyspeptic sufferer, as a medicine of real merit and character. And that I did simple statement, which I send in token of my appreciation of your valuable remedy, may induce others to give it a fair trial, is my sole object in so doing.

Very respectfully yours, LOVETT MORSE.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

CAMP CONSTITUTION.—Rev. Mr. Eddy, on Sunday morning last, delivered an eloquent discourse to the volunteers, founded upon the fifth verse of the twentieth Psalm, —"In the name of our God we have set up our banner." A large number of our citizens also attended, and the scene presented by the silent crowd as they hearkened to the impassioned words of the speaker, was peculiarly solemn and impressive.

Dignam's Cornet Band, one of the best in the State, was present, and we understand is to be attached to the regiment for the present.

On Monday morning, Col. Pierce addressed the volunteers, stating that the preference would be given to them to enlist for three years. There could be no difficulty in filling the ranks from those who had not yet enlisted for the three months' service, yet he hoped that most of those who were now here would attest their devotion to the Stars and Stripes by re-enlisting for the full term. If any of them, however, declined to do so, they would probably be transferred to Fort Constitution, and serve out there the time for which they had been enlisted, unless they were dispatched to some Southern post before their time expired. An opportunity would be given them immediately to make known their intentions on this point.

On Monday afternoon, the entire regiment paraded through our streets, all the companies, with the exception of a few "short men," being uniformed. It is a long time since our citizens have been enabled to witness so large a military force in our streets, and seldom, if ever, have they had an opportunity to see anywhere a more noble band of stalwart men. These are not the men to decline to enlist for the three years' term, unless some absolute necessity exists why they should do so. They are making rapid progress in drill, and this fact is a pleasing one to all those interested (and who is not?) in the organization of our Volunteer Militia, while it presents a forcible argument why the members of this regiment should have the preference in the enlistment for the three years' term, as has been promised them.

We have been permitted to copy the following bill of fare from the official papers in the Quartermaster's Rooms.
